

1 AN ACT concerning taxes.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The Property Tax Code is amended by changing
5 Section 15-172 as follows:

6 (35 ILCS 200/15-172)

7 Sec. 15-172. Senior Citizens Assessment Freeze Homestead
8 Exemption.

9 (a) This Section may be cited as the Senior Citizens
10 Assessment Freeze Homestead Exemption.

11 (b) As used in this Section:

12 "Applicant" means an individual who has filed an 13 application under this Section.

14 "Base amount" means the base year equalized assessed 15 value of the residence plus the first year's equalized 16 assessed value of any added improvements which increased the 17 assessed value of the residence after the base year.

18 "Base year" means the taxable year prior to the taxable 19 year for which the applicant first qualifies and applies for 20 the exemption provided that in the prior taxable year the 21 property was improved with a permanent structure that was 22 occupied as a residence by the applicant who was liable for 23 paying real property taxes on the property and who was either 24 (i) an owner of record of the property or had legal or 25 equitable interest in the property as evidenced by a written 26 instrument or (ii) had a legal or equitable interest as a 27 lessee in the parcel of property that was single family 28 residence. If in any subsequent taxable year for which the 29 applicant applies and qualifies for the exemption the 30 equalized assessed value of the residence is less than the 31 equalized assessed value in the existing base year (provided

1 that such equalized assessed value is not based on an 2 assessed value that results from a temporary irregularity in 3 the property that reduces the assessed value for one or more 4 taxable years), then that subsequent taxable year shall 5 become the base year until a new base year is established
6 under the terms of this paragraph. For taxable year 1999
7 only, the Chief County Assessment Officer shall review (i) 8 all taxable years for which the applicant applied and 9 qualified for the exemption and (ii) the existing base year.
10 The assessment officer shall select as the new base year the 11 year with the lowest equalized assessed value. An equalized 12 assessed value that is based on an assessed value that 13 results from a temporary irregularity in the property that 14 reduces the assessed value for one or more taxable years
15 shall not be considered the lowest equalized assessed value.
16 The selected year shall be the base year for taxable year
17 1999 and thereafter until a new base year is established 18 under the terms of this paragraph.

19 "Chief County Assessment Officer" means the County 20 Assessor or Supervisor of Assessments of the county in which 21 the property is located.

22 "Equalized assessed value" means the assessed value as 23 equalized by the Illinois Department of Revenue.

24 "Household" means the applicant, the spouse of the 25 applicant, and all persons using the residence of the 26 applicant as their principal place of residence.

27 "Household income" means the combined income of the 28 members of a household for the calendar year preceding the 29 taxable year.

30 "Income" has the same meaning as provided in Section 3.07
31 of the Senior Citizens and Disabled Persons Property Tax 32 Relief and Pharmaceutical Assistance Act, except that, 33 beginning in assessment year 2001, "income" does not include 34 veteran's benefits.

1 "Internal Revenue Code of 1986" means the United States
2 Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or any successor law or laws
3 relating to federal income taxes in effect for the year
4 preceding the taxable year.

5 "Life care facility that qualifies as a cooperative"
6 means a facility as defined in Section 2 of the Life Care
7 Facilities Act.

8 "Residence" means the principal dwelling place and 9 appurtenant structures used for residential purposes in this 10 State occupied on January 1 of the taxable year by a 11 household and so much of the surrounding land, constituting 12 the parcel upon which the dwelling place is situated, as is 13 used for residential purposes. If the Chief County Assessment
14 Officer has established a specific legal description for a 15 portion of property constituting the residence, then that 16 portion of property shall be deemed the residence for the 17 purposes of this Section.

18 "Taxable year" means the calendar year during which ad
19 valorem property taxes payable in the next succeeding year 20 are levied.

21 (c) Beginning in taxable year 1994, a senior citizens
22 assessment freeze homestead exemption is granted for real 23 property that is improved with a permanent structure that is 24 occupied as a residence by an applicant who (i) is 65 years
25 of age or older prior to during-the taxable year 2001 or 60 26 years of age or older during taxable year 2001 and 27 thereafter, (ii) has a household income of $35,000 or less 28 prior to taxable year 1999, ~~or~~ $40,000 or less in taxable 29 years year 1999 and 2000, and $50,000 or less in taxable year 30 2001 and thereafter, (iii) is liable for paying real property 31 taxes on the property, and (iv) is an owner of record of the 32 property or has a legal or equitable interest in the property
33 as evidenced by a written instrument. This homestead 34 exemption shall also apply to a leasehold interest in a

1 parcel of property improved with a permanent structure that 2 is a single family residence that is occupied as a residence 3 by a person who (i) is 65 years of age or older prior to 4 during-the taxable year 2001 or 60 years of age or older 5 during taxable year 2001 and thereafter, (ii) has a household 6 income of $35,000 or less prior to taxable year 1999, ~~or~~ 7 $40,000 or less in taxable years year 1999 and 2000, and 8 $50,000 or less in taxable year 2001 and thereafter, (iii)
9 has a legal or equitable ownership interest in the property 10 as lessee, and (iv) is liable for the payment of real 11 property taxes on that property.

12 The amount of this exemption shall be the equalized 13 assessed value of the residence in the taxable year for which 14 application is made minus the base amount.

15 When the applicant is a surviving spouse of an applicant 16 for a prior year for the same residence for which an 17 exemption under this Section has been granted, the base year 18 and base amount for that residence are the same as for the 19 applicant for the prior year.

20 Each year at the time the assessment books are certified
21 to the County Clerk, the Board of Review or Board of Appeals
22 shall give to the County Clerk a list of the assessed values
23 of improvements on each parcel qualifying for this exemption 24 that were added after the base year for this parcel and that 25 increased the assessed value of the property.

26 In the case of land improved with an apartment building
27 owned and operated as a cooperative or a building that is a 28 life care facility that qualifies as a cooperative, the 29 maximum reduction from the equalized assessed value of the 30 property is limited to the sum of the reductions calculated 31 for each unit occupied as a residence by a person or persons 32 65 years of age or older with a household income of $35,000 33 or less prior to taxable year 1999, ~~or~~ $40,000 or less in 34 taxable years year 1999 and 2000, and $50,000 or less in

1 taxable year 2001 and thereafter who is liable, by contract
2 with the owner or owners of record, for paying real property
3 taxes on the property and who is an owner of record of a 4 legal or equitable interest in the cooperative apartment 5 building, other than a leasehold interest. In the instance of 6 a cooperative where a homestead exemption has been granted 7 under this Section, the cooperative association or its 8 management firm shall credit the savings resulting from that 9 exemption only to the apportioned tax liability of the owner
10 who qualified for the exemption. Any person who willfully 11 refuses to credit that savings to an owner who qualifies for 12 the exemption is guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

13 When a homestead exemption has been granted under this 14 Section and an applicant then becomes a resident of a 15 facility licensed under the Nursing Home Care Act, the 16 exemption shall be granted in subsequent years so long as the 17 residence (i) continues to be occupied by the qualified 18 applicant's spouse or (ii) if remaining unoccupied, is still 19 owned by the qualified applicant for the homestead exemption.

20 Beginning January 1, 1997, when an individual dies who 21 would have qualified for an exemption under this Section, and 22 the surviving spouse does not independently qualify for this 23 exemption because of age, the exemption under this Section 24 shall be granted to the surviving spouse for the taxable year 25 preceding and the taxable year of the death, provided that, 26 except for age, the surviving spouse meets all other 27 qualifications for the granting of this exemption for those 28 years.

29 When married persons maintain separate residences, the 30 exemption provided for in this Section may be claimed by only 31 one of such persons and for only one residence.

32 For taxable year 1994 only, in counties having less than 33 3,000,000 inhabitants, to receive the exemption, a person 34 shall submit an application by February 15, 1995 to the Chief

1 County Assessment Officer of the county in which the property
2 is located. In counties having 3,000,000 or more
3 inhabitants, for taxable year 1994 and all subsequent taxable 4 years, to receive the exemption, a person may submit an 5 application to the Chief County Assessment Officer of the 6 county in which the property is located during such period as 7 may be specified by the Chief County Assessment Officer. The 8 Chief County Assessment Officer in counties of 3,000,000 or 9 more inhabitants shall annually give notice of the 10 application period by mail or by publication. In counties 11 having less than 3,000,000 inhabitants, beginning with 12 taxable year 1995 and thereafter, to receive the exemption, a 13 person shall submit an application by July 1 of each taxable 14 year to the Chief County Assessment Officer of the county in 15 which the property is located. A county may, by ordinance, 16 establish a date for submission of applications that is 17 different than July 1. The applicant shall submit with the 18 application an affidavit of the applicant's total household 19 income, age, marital status (and if married the name and 20 address of the applicant's spouse, if known), and principal 21 dwelling place of members of the household on January 1 of 22 the taxable year. The Department shall establish, by rule, a 23 method for verifying the accuracy of affidavits filed by 24 applicants under this Section. The applications shall be 25 clearly marked as applications for the Senior Citizens
26 Assessment Freeze Homestead Exemption.

27 Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, in 28 counties having fewer than 3,000,000 inhabitants, if an 29 applicant fails to file the application required by this 30 Section in a timely manner and this failure to file is due to 31 a mental or physical condition sufficiently severe so as to 32 render the applicant incapable of filing the application in a 33 timely manner, the Chief County Assessment Officer may extend 34 the filing deadline for a period of 30 days after the

1 applicant regains the capability to file the application, but 2 in no case may the filing deadline be extended beyond 3
3 months of the original filing deadline. In order to receive 4 the extension provided in this paragraph, the applicant shall 5 provide the Chief County Assessment Officer with a signed 6 statement from the applicant's physician stating the nature
7 and extent of the condition, that, in the physician's 8 opinion, the condition was so severe that it rendered the 9 applicant incapable of filing the application in a timely 10 manner, and the date on which the applicant regained the 11 capability to file the application.

12 Beginning January 1, 1998, notwithstanding any other 13 provision to the contrary, in counties having fewer than 14 3,000,000 inhabitants, if an applicant fails to file the 15 application required by this Section in a timely manner and 16 this failure to file is due to a mental or physical condition
17 sufficiently severe so as to render the applicant incapable 18 of filing the application in a timely manner, the Chief 19 County Assessment Officer may extend the filing deadline for 20 a period of 3 months. In order to receive the extension 21 provided in this paragraph, the applicant shall provide the 22 Chief County Assessment Officer with a signed statement from 23 the applicant's physician stating the nature and extent of 24 the condition, and that, in the physician's opinion, the 25 condition was so severe that it rendered the applicant
26 incapable of filing the application in a timely manner.

27 In counties having less than 3,000,000 inhabitants, if an 28 applicant was denied an exemption in taxable year 1994 and 29 the denial occurred due to an error on the part of an 30 assessment official, or his or her agent or employee, then 31 beginning in taxable year 1997 the applicant's base year, for 32 purposes of determining the amount of the exemption, shall be 33 1993 rather than 1994. In addition, in taxable year 1997, the 34 applicant's exemption shall also include an amount equal to

1 (i) the amount of any exemption denied to the applicant in 2 taxable year 1995 as a result of using 1994, rather than 3 1993, as the base year, (ii) the amount of any exemption 4 denied to the applicant in taxable year 1996 as a result of 5 using 1994, rather than 1993, as the base year, and (iii) the 6 amount of the exemption erroneously denied for taxable year 7 1994.

8 For purposes of this Section, a person who will be 65
9 years of age, for taxable years prior to taxable year 2001 10 and 60 years of age or older for taxable year 2001 and 11 thereafter, during the current taxable year shall be eligible 12 to apply for the homestead exemption during that taxable 13 year. Application shall be made during the application 14 period in effect for the county of his or her residence.

15 The Chief County Assessment Officer may determine the 16 eligibility of a life care facility that qualifies as a 17 cooperative to receive the benefits provided by this Section 18 by use of an affidavit, application, visual inspection, 19 questionnaire, or other reasonable method in order to insure 20 that the tax savings resulting from the exemption are 21 credited by the management firm to the apportioned tax
22 liability of each qualifying resident. The Chief County 23 Assessment Officer may request reasonable proof that the 24 management firm has so credited that exemption.

25 Except as provided in this Section, all information 26 received by the chief county assessment officer or the 27 Department from applications filed under this Section, or 28 from any investigation conducted under the provisions of this 29 Section, shall be confidential, except for official purposes 30 or pursuant to official procedures for collection of any 31 State or local tax or enforcement of any civil or criminal 32 penalty or sanction imposed by this Act or by any statute or 33 ordinance imposing a State or local tax. Any person who 34 divulges any such information in any manner, except in

1 accordance with a proper judicial order, is guilty of a Class
2 A misdemeanor.

3 Nothing contained in this Section shall prevent the 4 Director or chief county assessment officer from publishing 5 or making available reasonable statistics concerning the 6 operation of the exemption contained in this Section in which 7 the contents of claims are grouped into aggregates in such a 8 way that information contained in any individual claim shall 9 not be disclosed.

10 (d) Each Chief County Assessment Officer shall annually
11 publish a notice of availability of the exemption provided 12 under this Section. The notice shall be published at least 13 60 days but no more than 75 days prior to the date on which 14 the application must be submitted to the Chief County 15 Assessment Officer of the county in which the property is 16 located. The notice shall appear in a newspaper of general 17 circulation in the county.

18 (e) Notwithstanding Sections 6 and 8 of the State 19 Mandates Act, no reimbursement by the State is required for 20 the implementation of any mandate created by this Section.

29 and 8 of this Act, no reimbursement by the State is required
30 for the implementation of any mandate created by the Senior 31 Citizens Assessment Freeze Homestead Exemption under Section 32 15-172 of the Property Tax Code.
