18 (305 ILCS 5/12-10.5 new)

19 Sec. 12-10.5. Public Aid Medical Programs Special
20 Purposes Trust Fund.

21 (a) The Public Aid Medical Programs Special Purposes
22 Trust Fund ("the Fund") is created. Any grant, gift, 23 donation, or legacy of money or securities that the 24 Department of Public Aid is authorized to receive under 25 Section 12-4.18 or Section 12-4.19, and that is dedicated for 26 functions connected with the administration of any medical 27 program administered by the Department, shall be deposited
28 into the Fund. All federal moneys received by the Department 29 as reimbursement for disbursements authorized to be made from 30 the Fund shall also be deposited into the Fund.

31 (b) No moneys received from a service provider or a 32 governmental or private entity that is enrolled with the

1 Department as a provider of medical services shall be
2 deposited into the Fund.

3 (c) Disbursements may be made from the Fund for the 4 purposes connected with the grants, gifts, donations, or 5 legacies deposited into the Fund, including, but not limited
6 to, medical quality assessment projects, eligibility
7 population studies, medical information systems evaluations,
8 and other administrative functions that assist the Department
9 in fulfilling its health care mission under the Illinois
10 Public Aid Code and the Children's Health Insurance Program
11 Act.
