26          however, that as of July 1, 1995, foster care payments shall

32          The Department shall consider the individual needs of the 33          child and the capacity of the prospective foster or adoptive 34          parents to meet the needs of the child. The Department shall

1 make special efforts for the diligent recruitment of 2 potential foster and adoptive families that reflect the 3 ethnic and racial diversity of the children for whom foster
4 and adoptive homes are needed. "Special efforts" shall 5 include contacting and working with community organizations
6 and religious organizations and may include contracting with 7 those organizations, utilizing local media and other local 8 resources, and conducting outreach activities.

9 (c-1) At the time of placement, the Department shall
