

AN ACT concerning civil law.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly:

Section 1. Short title. This Act may be cited as the Menstrual Products Donor Immunity Act.

Section 5. Definitions. As used in this Act:

"Apparently usable" means, with respect to the product, that the product meets all quality and labeling standards imposed by federal, State, and local laws, rules, and regulations, even if the product may not be readily marketable.

"Donor" means a nonprofit organization that donates an apparently usable menstrual product to a human recipient for ultimate use with respect to menstruation.

"Menstrual product" means a sanitary napkin, tampon, liner, cup, and any similar item used by an individual with respect to menstruation.

Section 10. Nonprofit organization immunity from liability. A nonprofit organization that in good faith receives menstrual products for distribution without fee or compensation and reasonably inspects the menstrual product at the time of donation and finds the menstrual product
