SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 93

[January 30, 2017]

WHEREAS, Our national and State security should not be undermined by the concerted efforts of foreign actors with the goal of compromising our democratic ideals; and

WHEREAS, In July of 2016, the Illinois Board of Elections was the target of a cyber-attack of unknown foreign origin which targeted the Illinois Voter Registration System Database; and

WHEREAS, On July 12, 2016, the IT staff at Illinois Board of Elections was made aware of performance issues with the Illinois Voter Registration System (IVRS) database server, and processor usage had spiked to 100% with no explanation; and

WHEREAS, Analysis of server logs revealed that the spike in usage was a result of rapidly repeated database queries on the application status page of the Paperless Online Voter Application (POVA) web site; and

WHEREAS, Additionally, Illinois State Board of Elections server logs showed the database queries were a malicious form of cyber-attack known as SQL Injection, which are unauthorized, malicious database queries entered in a data field in a web application; and

WHEREAS, Further analysis of the web server logs showed that malicious SQL queries began on June 23, 2016, and that malicious traffic from the IP addresses continued, though it was blocked at the firewall level; and

WHEREAS, Firewall monitoring indicated that the attackers were hitting the Illinois State Board of Elections IP addresses five times per second, 24 hours per day; and

WHEREAS, Investigations of the attack concluded Illinois Voter Registration System passwords were compromised, and passwords included those of election authorities, their staffs, internal Illinois State Board of Election users, vendors, and web services; and

WHEREAS, The intelligence community has described these individuals or actors as part of foreign entities, namely Russia, intent on boosting one candidate over the other; and

WHEREAS, Aggressive actions contrary to American interests that foster political chaos and institutional mistrust in our democratic values must be thoroughly repudiated; and

WHEREAS, The American public also needs assurance that law enforcement is actively investigating these matters, and if further investigation finds evidence that foreign actors perpetrated or directed such acts, appropriate criminal charges and sanctions will be announced and enforced; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we denounce any threats by Russia or any other foreign actors who seek to interfere with the sanctity of our democratic process; and be it further

RESOLVED, That such an attack on the United States of America and the State of Illinois must not go undisclosed, and that we urge that the Illinois State Board of Elections produce a final comprehensive report outlining the nature of breach, an audit of their IT systems, and that they enact preventative measures to ensure that such cyber interference never occurs again; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be delivered to Steve Sandvoss, Executive Director of the Illinois State Board of Elections.

Senator Hastings offered the following Senate Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Assignments:

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 94

[January 30, 2017]

WHEREAS, All Americans agree that Russia's deliberate interference in our nation's democratic processes is a matter of grave national security; and

WHEREAS, Recently disclosed United States intelligence findings have reported that Russia interfered in the 2016 presidential election and sought to undermine our democratic institutions; and

WHEREAS, On January 6, 2017, an Intelligence Community assessment entitled "Assessing Russian Activities and Intentions in Recent U.S. Elections" assessed that "Russian President Vladimir Putin ordered an influence campaign in 2016 aimed at the U.S. presidential election"; and

WHEREAS, The same assessment warns that "Moscow will apply lessons learned from its Putin-ordered campaign aimed at the U.S. Presidential election to future influence efforts worldwide, including against U.S. allies and their election processes"; and

WHEREAS, As a result, U.S. Senator Richard Durbin, Senate Judiciary Committee Ranking Member Dianne Feinstein, and all committee Democrats have called for an independent, bipartisan commission or a select committee of Congress to investigate these allegations of Russian interference; and

WHEREAS, The National Intelligence Estimate is the formal, authoritative assessment of the Director of National Intelligence related to a particular national security issue, which reflects the collective judgment of the nation's 17 intelligence agencies; and

WHEREAS, The public also needs assurance that federal law enforcement is actively investigating these matters and that, if the investigation finds evidence that Russian officials perpetrated or directed such acts, appropriate criminal charges and sanctions will be announced and enforced; and

WHEREAS, It is also clear that the American public needs confirmation that America's next Attorney General would continue any investigation on this matter, independent of directives by the White House to terminate it; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we urge a full bipartisan investigation by Congress and support the call for a National Intelligence Estimate (NIE) to determine the extent of Russian intervention in the 2016 United States presidential election, because this issue requires the full attention of the executive and legislative branches alike, and a conclusive, public national intelligence estimate will lay out the facts for the American people; and be it further

RESOLVED, That suitable copies of this resolution be delivered to President Donald Trump, U.S. Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell, U.S. Senate Minority Leader Chuck Schumer, U.S. Speaker of the House Paul Ryan, U.S. House of Representatives Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi, and all members of the Illinois Congressional Delegation.

WHEREAS, After the war, General Anders remained in England with the Polish Army in exile, advocating for a free and democratic Poland, which had become a satellite state of the USSR; and

WHEREAS, General Anders passed away in 1970 and his body lay in state in London; and

WHEREAS, General Anders was later laid to rest alongside the thousands of fallen soldiers from "Anders' Army" at the Polish War Cemetery in Monte Cassino, Italy; many of those who fought with him now lie in rest at Maryhill Cemetery in Niles; therefore, be it

WHEREAS, In honor of the ultimate sacrifice paid by so many of our troops throughout history, it is fitting to dedicate a section of Interstate 80 as the "Purple Heart Highway" as a humble gesture of thanks to our troops for the freedoms we enjoy on a daily basis; and

WHEREAS, In accordance with the words spoken over the fallen at Gettysburg by a former representative from Illinois, let us never forget our fallen heroes; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING HEREIN, that we designate Interstate 80 from its intersection with Interstate 55 to its intersection with South LaGrange Road as the "Purple Heart Highway"; and be it further
