PRESENTATION OF RESOLUTIONS

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 286

Offered by Senator Link and all Senators:
Mourns the death of Nancie L. Blatt of Lincolnshire.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 287

Offered by Senator Link and all Senators:
Mourns the death of Estelle (Lipman) Garmisa.

By unanimous consent, the foregoing resolutions were referred to the Resolutions Consent Calendar.

Senator Barickman offered the following Senate Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Assignments:

[March 14, 2017]

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 284

WHEREAS, Elder abuse is detrimental to public health and threatens millions of our parents, grandparents, and friends; and

WHEREAS, Elder abuse is a crisis that knows no borders or socioeconomic boundaries; and

WHEREAS, Elderly Illinois citizens suffer physical, emotional, and financial abuse, largely at the hands of people that they know; and

WHEREAS, It is estimated that elder abuse claims five million older American victims each year; and

WHEREAS, Most victims of elder abuse do not report abuse to law enforcement or social service agencies; and

WHEREAS, The date of June 15 has been proclaimed World Elder Abuse Awareness Day by President Barack Obama; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we declare our intent to eradicate abuse of the elderly in Illinois; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we designate June 15, 2017 as Illinois Elder Abuse Awareness Day in the State of Illinois; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we urge all Illinoisans to observe Illinois Elder Abuse Awareness Day by learning the signs of elder abuse, neglect, and exploitation, and by raising awareness about this important public health issue.

Senator Biss offered the following Senate Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Assignments:

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 285

WHEREAS, On January 27, 2017 and on March 6, 2017, President Donald J. Trump signed executive orders, "Protecting the nation from foreign terrorist entry into the United States", purportedly to protect Americans from terrorist attacks by foreign nationals admitted to this country; and

WHEREAS, The President's executive order of March 6, 2017 barred citizens of six Muslim-majority nations - Iran, Libya, Somalia, Sudan, Syria, and Yemen - from entering the United States effective March 16, 2017; it also placed a moratorium on issuing new visas to citizens from these countries for 90 days from the enacted date; furthermore, it suspends all refugee admissions in to the country for 120 days; and

WHEREAS, The President's order of January 27, 2017 originally included Iraq as one of the countries whose citizens would be barred from entering the United States; although Iraq was removed from the revised order, its citizens would still be subjected to additional scrutiny in applications for visas or upon entering the United States; and

WHEREAS, The President's cruel, unnecessary, and bigoted executive orders produced chaos in the United States immigration system in the hours and days immediately following its execution; and

WHEREAS, The orders caused widespread confusion in the air and on the ground at U.S. and international airports; they resulted in travelers being detained for hours and questioned by U.S. authorities without legal representation, in some instances separating small children from their parents, and in one case, delaying an urgent medical appointment of a four-month old girl with a heart condition; they prompted vetted refugees and legal residents en route to the United States to be blocked and turned back;

[March 14, 2017]

they triggered mass protests at airports throughout the country, including in Chicago, and they spurred legal action against the President; and

WHEREAS, President Trump's malicious and arbitrary orders bear a striking resemblance to another episode when, during one of the darkest times in human history, America closed its doors to frightened refugees in search of sanctuary, ultimately resulting in the murder of many of them; in 1939, the German ocean liner, the SS St. Louis, set out for the United States by way of Cuba from Hamburg, Germany, with 900 Jewish refugees seeking asylum from Nazi persecution; the passengers were denied entry to the United States, Cuba, and Canada because of strict immigration quotas and were forced to return to Europe; more than half of the Voyage of the SS St. Louis passengers who returned to Europe were killed by Nazis in the Holocaust; and

WHEREAS, History has shown that executive decisions about immigration, refugee resettlement, and religious bans can have tragic life-or-death consequences that may go unrecognized for too long; and

WHEREAS, The United States, and Illinois in particular, have always welcomed, supported, and protected people of all races, ethnicities, religions, and nationalities, so much so that the very self-definition of our country, as expressed both in our founding documents and in our public consciousness, relies upon an open embrace of immigrants and refugees; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRETH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we condemn President Donald J. Trump's executive orders barring immigrants and refugees from entering the United States and call on him to uphold and protect the values of all of the people of this great nation, which was founded by immigrants on principles that include religious freedom and the notion that all people are welcome and created equal; and be it further

RESOLVED, That suitable copies of this resolution be delivered to the President and Vice-President of the United States, the Majority and Minority Leaders of the United States Senate, the Speaker and Minority Leaders of the United States House of Representatives, and all members of the Illinois Congressional Delegation.

RESOLVED, That we congratulate Manager Joe Maddon on guiding the Chicago Cubs to the championship with his zen leadership, convincing both players and fans to look forward not backwards, to think positively, and to "Do simple better"; and be it further Depreciation may not be used as a factor in determining the cost of the damaged or destroyed roadway property for which recovery is sought.

(b) Any agency or instrumentality of the State of Illinois or unit of local government may seek recovery for the cost of the repair of damaged or destroyed highways, highway structures, or traffic-control devices that result from operating, driving, or moving a truck tractor-semitrailer combination exceeding 55 feet in overall dimension authorized under paragraph (1) of subsection (b) or paragraph (1) of subsection (f) of Section 15-107 of the Illinois Vehicle Code. The measure of liability for the damage is the cost of repairing the highway, highway structure, or traffic-control device, or the depreciated replacement cost of a highway structure or traffic-control device.

Vehicles operating during daylight hours when transporting poles, pipes, machinery, or other objects of a structural nature that cannot readily be dismembered are exempt from length limitations, provided that no object may exceed 80 feet in length and the overall dimension of the vehicle including the load may not exceed 100 feet. This exemption does not apply to operation on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. Legal holidays referred to in this Section are the days on which the following traditional holidays are celebrated: New Year's Day; Memorial Day; Independence Day; Labor Day; Thanksgiving Day; and Christmas Day.
