SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 6

WHEREAS, It is the goal of the Illinois General Assembly to encourage individuals to save for unexpected health care expenses through appropriate tax incentives; and

WHEREAS, Ensuring the efficient use of health care resources and encouraging access to affordable health care is of primary concern to the citizens of Illinois; and

WHEREAS, A little-known federal tax law is forcing some of this State's citizens to annually forfeit part of their salary to their employer; and

WHEREAS, This forfeiture is required at the end of each year for the total amount of a worker's unused money in the worker's flexible savings accounts (FSAs); and

WHEREAS This egregious penalty is contained in Section 125 of the current Internal Revenue Service tax code's "use it or lose it" rule; and

WHEREAS, This outdated tax policy discourages savings and encourages Americans to spend money, even on unnecessary services, rather than lose the money entirely; and

WHEREAS, The "use it or lose it" rule is inconsistent with the priorities of the citizens of Illinois; and

WHEREAS, Only an estimated one-fifth of workers eligible to contribute to an FSA do so today; and

WHEREAS, The "use it or lose it" rule is a major reason workers choose not to participate in FSAs; and

WHEREAS, Allowing workers to carry over any unused FSA funds would empower them with greater choice and control over how they spend their health care dollars; and

WHEREAS, Allowing contributions to be carried over in an FSA would encourage efficiency and personal savings for future health care spending and benefit a significant number of American workers; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING HEREIN, that we respectfully urge the Congress of the United States to adopt legislation to allow amounts elected by American workers for reimbursement of medical care expenses under a health flexible spending arrangement, as defined in the Internal Revenue Service Code Section 106(c)(2) and the regulations promulgated under Section 125, to be carried over to subsequent plan years without penalty of any kind; and be it further

RESOLVED, That FSA funds may be used for the payment of COBRA or State continuation coverage after the individual has become separated from employment; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be delivered to each member of the Illinois Congressional delegation, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the Majority Leader of the United States Senate, the President of the United States, and the Secretary of the Department of the Treasury.

All proceedings of the Board shall be confidential except the filing of a complaint with the Courts Commission. The Board shall prosecute the complaint.

(h) A member of the Commission shall disqualify himself or herself, or the other members of the Commission shall disqualify a member, with respect to any proceeding in which disqualification or recusal would be required of a Judge under rules of the Supreme Court, under rules of the Commission, or by law.

If a Supreme Court Judge is the subject of a proceeding, then there shall be no Supreme Court Judge sitting as a member of the Commission with respect to that proceeding. Instead, an alternate Appellate Court Judge not from the same Judicial District as the subject Supreme Court Judge shall replace the subject Supreme Court Judge. If a member who is an Appellate Court Judge is the subject of a proceeding, then an alternate Appellate Court Judge shall replace the subject Appellate Court Judge. If an Appellate Court Judge who is not a member is the subject of a proceeding and an Appellate Court Judge from the same Judicial District is a member, then an alternate Appellate Court Judge shall replace that member. If a member who is a Circuit Judge is the subject of a proceeding, then an alternate Circuit Judge shall replace the subject Circuit Judge. If a Circuit Judge who is not a member is the subject of a proceeding and a Circuit Judge from the same Judicial District is a member, then an alternate Circuit Judge shall replace that member.

If a member of the Commission is disqualified under this Section with respect to any proceeding, that member shall be replaced by an alternate on a rotating basis in a manner provided by rule of the Commission. PRESENTATION OF RESOLUTION

Senator Emil Jones, Jr., President of the Senate and all Senators offered the following Senate Resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 44

WHEREAS, The members of Senate of the Ninety-Third General Assembly of Illinois were saddened to learn of the death of Eleanor "Sis" Daley on Sunday, February 16, 2003 at her home in her Bridgeport neighborhood of Chicago at the age of 95; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Daley has been fittingly called Chicago's matriarch because she was the wife of the late Mayor Richard J. Daley and the mother of three politically prominent sons, two of whom, John and Richard M., served in this body before holding their respective current political offices of Cook County Commissioner and Mayor of Chicago, the third being William, the former United State's Secretary of Commerce; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Daley was never greatly impressed by the trappings of high office, preferring to be out of the political limelight, where she provided her husband with shelter from his governmental and political duties and raised her seven children in a strict but loving manner, in a household where religion, education, and respect for others shared equal attention; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Daley was born on March 4, 1907, sharing her birthday with Chicago, which was incorporated as a city on that day in 1837; she was the eighth of 11 children of Patrick and Nora Guilfoyle; and

WHEREAS, Both of her parents were Chicago-born immigrants from Ireland, her father working as a butcher in the Chicago Stockyards while the family lived in a home at 2949 South Troop Street; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Daley was introduced to Richard J. Daley by her brother Lloyd at a softball game when she was a teenager and Daley was a law student, playing second base for the Hamburg Athletic Team Club; and

WHEREAS, By the time they started dating, Mrs. Daley had graduated from St. Mary's High School and St. Bridget's Commercial and was working as a secretary when their six-year courtship began; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Daley and her husband were married in June 1936, and their two-week honeymoon was taken in the midst of Daley's first political campaign, which was a successful run for State Representative; and

WHEREAS, The family's home, a bungalow at 3536 South Lowe Avenue in the heart of their native Bridgeport, was built by them in 1939 and would expand over the years to accommodate their growing family, which would include seven children: Patricia, Mary Carol, Eleanor, Richard, Michael, John and William; and

WHEREAS, When Richard J. Daley was elected mayor in 1955, little changed for Mrs. Daley, who concentrated on raising a family, taking care of her home, and providing Mayor Daley with a secure and peaceful refuge from the demands of his public schedule; and

WHEREAS, When the Daley's celebrated their 40th anniversary in 1976, the former Mayor Daley shared his feelings about his wife at a press conference as follows: "The secret is to get a good wife and a good companion. We've had a very happy marriage and we have a great family and there's been no great differences between us."; and

WHEREAS, Less than a year later, the late Mayor Daley suffered a fatal heart attack, and when thousands of people gathered in bitter cold to pay their respects at the wake in Bridgeport's Nativity of Our Lord Catholic Church on December 21, 1976, Mrs. Daley stood by her husband's bier and thanked each person for coming; and

WHEREAS, After her husband's death, Mrs. Daley continued to participate in the city's cultural and civic life; and

WHEREAS, In 1989, Mrs. Daley celebrated her son Richard M. Daley's victory as Mayor of Chicago after playing an active role in his campaign for that office in both 1983 and 1989; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Daley again moved largely into the background after her son's election as mayor, enjoying the visits of her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren to her home in Bridgeport; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Daley's public appearances have been few in recent years; on March 4, 2000, she acted as hostess of Chicago's 163rd birthday party at the Water Tower on North Michigan Avenue; and

WHEREAS, In her 90s, Mrs. Daley continued to enjoy listening to music and reading, rooting for her beloved Chicago White Sox, visiting her husband's grave twice a week, attending church, and taking pride in the accomplishments of her children and their children's children, which included watching her son William be named Secretary of Commerce by President Bill Clinton; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Daley will long be remembered by all who knew her as a warm and unassuming person, with a good sense of humor and an abiding love for her family, her neighborhood, and Chicago; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Daley's passing will be deeply felt by all who knew and loved her, especially her four sons, Richard M., John, William, and Michael; her two daughters, Mary Carol and Patricia; and her several grandchildren and great grandchildren; therefore be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we mourn the death of Eleanor "Sis" Daley; and be it further
