By unanimous consent, the foregoing resolutions were referred to the Resolutions Consent Calendar.

Senator Hunter offered the following Senate Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Assignments:

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 1002

WHEREAS, The essence of American Democracy is a government of the people, by the people and for the people, and that democracy reflects the engagement and leadership of all generations and the premise that citizens can serve; and

WHEREAS, Throughout the lifespan, service instills the knowledge that citizenship brings responsibility and that everyone has talents and skills to make their community a better place; and

[March 19, 2014]

WHEREAS, Service brings opportunities for learning that boost student success, focus on new skills for workers, and embrace the gifts of older generations to address community needs and bring a spirit of involvement; and

WHEREAS, Research by the Corporation for National and Community Service, the federal agency that administers the national service programs AmeriCorps and Senior Corps, revealed that 27.4% of Illinoisans volunteered in 2012, contributing 286,000,000 hours to the most pressing challenges of communities; and

WHEREAS, Research by Generations Serving Generations, a public/private partnership launched by the National Governors Association Center for Best Practices, concluded that many Illinoisans who do not volunteer would like to, but simply do not know how to get connected to service opportunities; and

WHEREAS, Generations Serving Generations and leaders from AGING & RETIREE ORGANIZATIONS (The Illinois Department on Aging, the Association of Area Agencies on Aging, the Illinois Municipal Retirees Fund), EDUCATION (Illinois Board of Higher Education, the Illinois State Board of Education, the Illinois Community College Board, the Council of Community College presidents, and the Illinois State Library); SERVICE (the Serve Illinois Commission, the Corporation for National and Community Service, and Illinois Campus Compact); BUSINESS (Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce); FOUNDATIONS (Robert R. McCormick Foundation and the Retirement Research Foundation), and others, join together in supporting a Call to Service; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that it is in the interest of the citizens of this State to strengthen the infrastructure of volunteerism as a resource for meeting the challenges of education, promoting healthy lifestyles for all ages, and boosting the independence of older generations; and be it further

RESOLVED, That by December 31, 2014, Generations Serving Generations, in collaboration with the State leadership in education, aging, service, and the private sector, will convene a Senate Forum and prepare recommendations on strengthening the infrastructure of volunteerism and national service; and be it further

RESOLVED, That 2015 will be set as a Year of Service and Civic Engagement, that will engage all generations as participants, planners, organizers, and leaders of the volunteer infrastructure.

Senators Kotowski - McGuire offered the following Senate Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Assignments:

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 1003

WHEREAS, Modern medicine has made amazing advances in fighting pediatric cancer and pediatric cancer survivors are faced with a unique set of problems because of these advances; and

WHEREAS, Cure rates for pediatric cancers have risen dramatically during the past 20 years; it is estimated that one in every 900 adults, aged 16 to 44, is a survivor of pediatric cancer; and

WHEREAS, Almost 70% of children that are diagnosed with brain cancer survive treatment today; this statistic calls into focus the need to look at a child's quality of life in the years following treatment; and

WHEREAS, Pediatric cancer survivorship can come with a price in the form of long-term medical, financial, psychosocial, and neuro-cognitive problems due to chemotherapy, radiation, or surgery; and

WHEREAS, The major expenses of a pediatric cancer diagnosis and treatment program are associated with the direct costs of medical care, including charges for hospitalizations, clinic visits, medications, tests and procedures, home health services, services of doctors and other professionals, and other treatment, including surgery, chemotherapy, radiation therapy, and bone marrow or peripheral stem cell transplantation; and

[March 19, 2014]

WHEREAS, Even well insured middle-class families with health insurance can find themselves in financial distress because of a single catastrophic illness; even when insurance doesn't run out, health care costs can be staggering for the families of children with cancer; and

WHEREAS, The State of Illinois recognizes that amazing advances have been made in the treatment of pediatric cancer and survivor rates; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we designate the week of April 6-12, 2014 as Pediatric Cancer Survivorship Week in this State.
