State your point.

SENATOR HASTINGS:

So, we talk a lot about veterans' initiatives in the State of Illinois and I just want to let everybody know it's been five years since we've signed the veterans-owned {sic} (veteran-owned) small business Act into law and since then IDOT has solicited a hundred and eight solicitations with zero of them having veteran-owned small business goals. I want to take this opportunity just to show people the process in which it takes to get a veteran-owned small business certification. If you guys look at this flow chart, it's quite confusing and it's separate from the State to the county to the cities across the State of Illinois. So I just want to bring it to everybody's attention that we have some issues with veteran small businesses. Although we talk about how much we help our veterans, there's still much to be done. I want to take this opportunity to introduce two people who I find very -- they're patriots. They're -- they're great business owners. Mike and Nathan, if you wouldn't mind please standing. Mike did all of the City of Chicago lead testing for water. Mike is a veteran. He's part of the Army Corps of Engineers. And he does a lot of wastewater treatment in the State. Sixty employees, a multi-million-dollar company that he built by himself. I just want to say thank you for bringing our veterans' issues to our attention. Thank you for what you do for our communities in providing safe drinking water to kids throughout Chicago and throughout the State of Illinois. And I want to say thank you to your team and we will continue to fight for you and veterans across the State of Illinois. If you wouldn't mind giving 'em a warm Springfield welcome. Thank you, Mike.

100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION
