SECRETARY ANDERSON:

Senate Resolution 1437, offered by Senator Murphy.

And Senate Joint Resolution 56, offered by Senator Barickman. They are both substantive.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

Senator Rezin, for what purpose do you rise at the correct desk?

SENATOR REZIN:

At the correct desk. Thank you, Mr. President. Point of personal privilege, please, for purpose of two introductions.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

State your point.

SENATOR REZIN:

Thank you. We would like to welcome Rajan Zed, who opened up the Session today. He is a religious statesman, who have taken up various issues worldwide. Also, he's President of the Universal Society of Hinduism and he was awarded the World Interfaith Leadership Award. He has been invited by the President of the European Parliament for an interfaith dialogue as well. I would like, for my first introduction, a warm Springfield welcome.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

Welcome to Springfield.

SENATOR REZIN:

And, Mr. President, I have a second introduction as well.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

State your second one.

SENATOR REZIN:

Thank you. I am also proud to have a friend and a colleague here today with me, who joins me, Jon Scholtes. Jon started working many, many years ago with me, and he was valedictorian of his high school. Happens to be a neighbor, but, more importantly, I consider him, you know, a colleague and somebody I greatly respect as a leader in this next generation that's coming up as well. Currently, Jon Scholtes works for Congressman Kinzinger in his district office. Once again, I would like a warm Springfield welcome for Jon Scholtes. Thank you.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

Welcome to Springfield. Will all Members at the sound of my voice please come to the Senate Floor immediately? Will all Members at the sound of my voice please come to the Senate Floor immediately? Senator Martinez, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR MARTINEZ:

For point of personal privilege, Mr. President.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

State your point.

SENATOR MARTINEZ:

Thank you. Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, if I could have your brief attention for a moment. Today here I have a constituent of mine, Rose Slowikowski, from Chicago. Aside from living in my district back home, Rose serves as the President of the Illinois Association of Nurse Anesthetists and a certified registered nurse anesthetist at Lake Forest Hospital. She is here today with seventy - that's right, seventy - if you look up in the gallery, we have seventy CRNAs - members for their annual lobby day. There is nearly one thousand seven hundred certified registered nurse anesthetists statewide, and there's another three hundred students, CRNAs in training. They provide highly specialized anesthesia care to our State citizen {sic}. Rose, this is an incredible turnout today. For Rose and the seventy CRNAs who came to meet with lawmakers, could you please stand up in the gallery and be recognized? And I would appreciate us giving them a very warm Springfield welcome. Thank you, Rose, for joining us. And thank you to all the CRNAs here today. Thank you.

SENATOR SCHIMPF:

Point of personal privilege, Mr. President.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

State your point.

SENATOR SCHIMPF:

Yes, Mr. President, I would like to -- I would like to introduce three special guests that I have with me on the -- on the Senate Floor. I'm -- I am lucky to be kept company today by Haleigh Turner, Jade Kranawetter, and Juhle Prange. They are all three students at Trico High School, which is in my district. They have -- they have come up to spend the day with me. I'd just ask that we wish them a warm Springfield welcome.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

Welcome to Springfield. Senator Haine, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR HAINE:

A point of personal privilege, Mr. President.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

State your point. I hope it's not number thirty-four.

SENATOR HAINE:

Oh, no. I assure you, it's not. I -- I just want to bring -- while we have a lull here in the proceedings waiting for Members and in consideration of the fact that this month is Black History Month, I wanted to enlighten the Members on a individual, which I had never heard of until two weeks ago, an African American named Robert Smalls. And I want to read from the prologue to a book about Admiral Smalls, who took a vessel, a Confederate gunboat, docked in Charleston. He was trained as a pilot as a slave. He was illiterate, but he took his family -- he was worried about being split from his family, because South Carolina slave owners were selling their slaves south, breaking up families, in the early 1860s. He took that gunboat past tremendous fortifications and other gunboats in the dead of night, took it to the Union Navy, and made off with a huge boat as well as many guns that the Union Army used. He became a captain. Keep in mind he was illiterate. He became a captain because he knew all the -- the rivers and the streams in and around Charleston. He assisted the Union Army and the Union Navy in taking those areas when Sherman showed up. He assisted in the siege and the capture of Wilmington, which was a crucial battle of the Civil War. He became a high officer in the Army, including an Admiral in the -- the Navy. He became a six-term Congressman from South Carolina, raised a family, was the last African American to sit on a state commission in 1895, when the Ku Klux Klan and the Red Shirts, through a campaign of terror and murder, eliminated the African American voting base. Robert Smalls is truly an American hero, a hero of the Civil War, an intrepid sailor, and one of the most brilliant officers of the Civil War. And I just want to bring the attention of the Illinois Senate, during this month, to Robert Smalls, and the book is Be Free or Die: Escape from Slavery Union Hero {sic} (Be Free or Die: The Amazing Story of Robert Smalls' Escape from Slavery to Union Hero). Thank you, Mr. President.

Ladies and Gentlemen, I have a really good friend of mine from Sullivan, Illinois, Moultrie County area, here today, Rudy Huber. He's a farmer. His -- he and his wife run a small business insurance agency, but he also happens to be a die-hard Illini fan. And I'm just honored to have him with us today. If we could give him a Springfield welcome. Thank you.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

Welcome to Springfield. Senator Aquino, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR AQUINO:

A point of personal privilege, Mr. President.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

State your point.

SENATOR AQUINO:

Thank you, Mr. President. I just wanted to -- just to note to everyone that over the weekend in Chicago, Illinois and Chicago hosted the National Hispanic Caucus of State Legislators. And I wanted to applaud one of our colleagues, but I -- I think she's in the back. Our leader, Senator Martinez, worked really hard to -- to host such a great conference this weekend for Latino -- state legislators throughout the country and also a delegation that came down from Puerto Rico. And so I wanted to just applaud the Latino Caucus, and especially Senator Martinez for her leadership. But on top of that, this past Sunday, not only was she acting as a great host to these state legislators, but it -- it was actually her twenty-first birthday. And so I owe her the baby senator trophy as well. So I have that in my office, but it certainly, at least for this week, will be in Senator Martinez's office. So I

President Cullerton in the Chair.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

Members of the Senate, can I have your attention, please? Members of the Senate, today we have the honor of welcoming Borek Lizec, the Consul General of the Czech Republic in Chicago. Mr. Lizec graduated from the University of Economics in Prague with degrees in International Trade and Commercial Languages. He later received his PhD in European Studies from the same institution. Before being named Consul General in 2014, Mr. Lizec served as Deputy Consul General of the Czech Republic in Chicago from 2005 to 2008. Throughout his career, he has served in several advisory and leadership roles within the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Czech Republic. So would you please join me in welcoming Borek Lizec to the Illinois Senate?

SENATOR ALTHOFF:

I'm having some computer difficulties. I apologize. Just one moment, please. Thank you for the courtesy, Mr. President. Senate Bill 2419 amends the Registered Surgical Assistant and Registered Surgical Technologist Title Protection Act. It just provides that in order for a registrant to renew his or her surgical assistant registration or surgical technologist registration, he or she must maintain a national certification. This is actually a trailer bill to legislation that we had passed last Session. It clarifies some concerns that the surgical assistants and surgical technologists had with regard to the legislation. I'd ask for an Aye vote.

Yes, thank you, Mr. President, Members of the Senate. This is one of the liquor exemption bills that are -- is required in the City of Chicago to allow Colectivo Coffee an exemption. The church that it's nearby has consented to this and this is something we still need to do until we pass changes so that we no longer need to do this. So I'm seeking your Aye votes. Thank you.

SENATOR NYBO:

So, Mr. President and -- and Senator Steans, I -- as I explained in committee, I am going to continue to support these bills because we're making a good effort to -- to -- to fix this process in my opinion, through Senate Bill 2436, which is also on the Calendar today just a couple of spots ahead of this one. So I will continue to support these bills so long as we continue to see some movement on 2436, which I think is a good solution.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

Senator Nybo, on your bill.

SENATOR NYBO:

Thank you, Mr. President. There's been a lot of discussion of this issue already, so I don't think we need to have an extensive discussion today. But this is effectively taking the -- the -- the types of decisions that Senator Steans' bill focuses on and putting those decisions back in the hands of the local community that should be deciding them. That's the City of Chicago in this instance. There have now been, I believe it's seventy-five special exemptions that we've written into this statute to account for varying situations. I just see no logic as to why the City of Chicago business establishments need to come to this Body to get approval on zoning issues that are essentially local zoning issues. So, I'd be happy to answer any questions. I appreciate the Body's support of this proposal. And again, this goes back to the reason why the Governor believes -- or why the Governor vetoed one of these proposals earlier this year, is because this is a solution that he's in favor of, which is giving it back to the local community. Ask for your support.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

SENATOR ALTHOFF:

Thank you very much, Mr. President. 2452 amends the Sanitary District Act of 1936 to give the Lakes Region Sanitary District the ability to dissolve itself by entering to -- entering into an agreement with Lake County. This is unusual and needed because Lake County has agreed to accept all of the assets and responsibilities of the existing Lakes Region Sanitary District. Be happy to answer any questions.

Senator Connelly, on your bill.

SENATOR CONNELLY:

Thank you, Mr. President, Members of the Senate. Senate Bill 2488 amends the Local Library Act and the Public Library District Act to extend public library services to individuals that rent or lease commercial property in a taxed public library service area. This is an initiative of the Secretary of the State's Office. I'm not aware of any opponents and I ask for an Aye vote.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

Senator Clayborne, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR CLAYBORNE:

For a point of personal privilege.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

State your point.

SENATOR CLAYBORNE:

So, today I have with me Johara Farhadieh, who's the CIO of the Illinois State Board of Investment. So, Johara actually develops the strategy as it relates to our investment of our pension fund dollars. So, I'd like for the Senate to recognize Johara, who -- who protects our money and makes sure we get -- get -- receive great returns.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

Us older Members really appreciate that. Senate stands in recess to the call of the Chair. The Senate is now in recess.
