SENATOR HASTINGS:

Thank you, Mr. President. Point of personal privilege.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HARMON)

Please state your point.

SENATOR HASTINGS:

Thank you, Mr. President. Our local veterans' roundtable meets on a quarterly basis and unfortunately, due to the weather, they were unable to make it today for just a -- a recognizing of all the hard work they do, but as we move forward into the next month, we will be opening the Chicago veterans home, which has been a concern of the suburbs and the Chicagoland area legislators and residents to provide a quality home for veterans to live in. So I'm very excited about that and the hard work that the Capital Development Board has done throughout this process. But throughout the research, I always make it a point to -- to commend those for the hard work they do in our district and also read some interesting findings that have come out of that. Obviously, the Veterans Committee is generally where we read these, but this one was so staggering I made it a point of personal privilege to make it known on the Floor of the Senate of how important this is. Per the Illinois Veterans' Administration, there are over ninety thousand veteran-owned businesses in Illinois. Per -- per the Business Enterprise Program, there are currently fifty-one service-connected disabled veteran-owned businesses and a hundred and four veteran-owned businesses that are certified in the State of Illinois. So ninety thousand veteran-owned businesses and about a hundred and fifty-five that are certified in the State. We can do better in this State, and I look forward to working for our men and women across the State of Illinois over the next year. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HARMON)

SENATOR MANAR:

Thank you. Oftentimes, as we value the work that the staff does for us on both sides of the aisle, comes a time when people that have spent a good portion of their lives working on behalf of the State Senate are leaving us. So tomorrow -- today would be the last Session day for Nolan Drea, who has served the Senate Democrats since 2011. I didn't even look and see if he's out here on the Floor. Here he is, right here. But he has done so much work on behalf of our Caucus, not just for me, being from Taylorville, and the 48th District, but he has served us well. So I want to rise, thank him for his work, and wish him well working for the University of Illinois, which is his next endeavor. So, Nolan, thank you very much for your work. We all wish you the very best.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR MARTINEZ)

Thank you so much for your service and good luck to wherever you go. We will miss you. Senator Crowe, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR CROWE:

Point of personal privilege.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR MARTINEZ)

Please state your business.

SENATOR CROWE:

For those of you who know Nolan Drea, you know he loves to be the center of attention, so if I could just keep the attention on him for a few more moments. I got to know Nolan because he was my campaign manager. I was told, "You are getting the best, the finest, the hardest worker", and that was absolutely the truth. I had the utmost confidence in Nolan and his advice, and, for me, it Assembly. It make the following changes: It prohibits the Committee on Assignments from directly assigning a legislative measure to a subcommittee. That would be the role of the committee chairman. The Assignments also may not re-refer a bill from its originally assigned committee to another committee without the consent of the chairperson of the committee the bill was originally assigned to. It also allows any Senator to file a committee amendment on an appropriation bill that is before a Senate committee. Currently, committee amendments can only be filed by the principal sponsor or members of the committee the bill is before. And lastly, it provides that the withdrawal and subsequent reappointment of the same appointee restarts the Senate sixty-day appointments clock. Be happy to answer any questions and ask for your support.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HARMON)

Thank you. Thank you, President Cullerton. Is there any discussion? Senator Righter, for what purpose do you recognition?
