SENATOR SCHIMPF:

Mr. President, Members of the Senate, today I'd like to welcome members of the Illinois HomeCare & Hospice Council, IHHC, who are joining us in the Senate gallery. The ladies are in the south gallery. If you could please stand up. The home -- home health and hospice nurses, therapists, social workers, aides and assistants across our State play a critical role in providing medical and nonmedical care to many of our constituents so that they can recover in the comfort of their own homes with their friends and family nearby. Two of my constituents, Cheryl Adams and Angie Nordmeyer from At-Home Health Care of Sparta Community Hospital, are part of the group. They are also joined by constituents of Senator Ellman, Senators Hutchinson, Koehler, Steans, and Senator Tracy. So I'd ask that we give them a warm Springfield welcome and thank them for their important work.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR MUÑOZ)

Welcome to the Senate and thank you for what you do. Senator Glowiak, for what purpose you seek recognition?

SENATOR GLOWIAK:

Thank you, Mr. President. I am here to ask for a point of personal privilege.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR MUÑOZ)

SENATOR GLOWIAK:

I'm here with two people from Moms Demand Action. You may have noticed those red shirts all over the lobby and the -- there's a lot in the gallery as well. Alicia is next to me, as well as Diane, and they're here representing Moms Demand Action. I want a big warm Springfield Senate welcome for them, please.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HUNTER)

SENATOR MORRISON:

Today you see a sea of red shirts in the Capitol and I want to welcome two ladies from Moms Demand Action who live in my district. Amy Ferguson lives in Deerfield with her husband and two sons, Patrick and Ryan. She works as a consumer researcher at a software startup in -- in Chicago and she joined Moms Demand Action in January 2018 and has served as a Legislative Lead for the Deerfield, Highland Park, Lake Forest group. Andrea Wintroub lives in Highland Park with her daughter, Naiya, and she initially worked as a public interest lawyer and policy analyst before deciding to stay home and raise her daughter. Andrea joined Moms in 2017 and, since September, has worked as Data Lead for the Deerfield, Highland Park, Lake Forest group. These ladies do a lot of wonderful grassroots work. I'm delighted to welcome all the Moms who are here in the Capitol today.

favorite subject is reading and she wants to be a teacher or a scientist - that's an awesome profession. And she's a pretty gifted athlete. She plays basketball, soccer, and volleyball. She's a fifteen-year-old freshman at Putnam Community {sic} (County) High School. She resides in McNabb. And her mother, Brandy, is up here in the gallery and she's the Mayor of McNabb. Something very interesting about Lillian: In the sixth grade, she was accepted to attend a U. -- United States Youth Leadership Conference in Washington, D.C, and this July, she'll be attending one in New York City, but that's where she got her passion for politics. Really well-rounded. She's active in her school's theater and music programs and recently portrayed Anne Frank in The Diary of Anne Frank. I think that's really neat. She loves history and participates in the Scholastic Bowl. Please welcome Miss Sandberg to the Illinois Senate.
