SENATOR BERTINO-TARRANT:

Thank you, Mr. President and Members of the Senate. Today I have with me today Kathryn Mary Grandchamp. Katie is twelve years old and in sixth grade at Aux Sable Middle School in Plainfield. Katie just made Honor Roll for the first time with all A's, including Honors Math and Language Art {sic} (Arts). Her lifelong goal is to be the President of the United States, and with a name like Grandchamp, I think she had a great shot. She plans to study law to help fulfill this dream that she had since her -- fourth grade when she wrote her very first paper. She's a headstrong, confident, smart, and funny young -- lady, and also a cheerleader for the Plainfield Saints Youth Football team. And she recently has chosen to become a vegetarian because she loves all animals. Please welcome Kathryn Grandchamp.

SENATOR HUTCHINSON:

Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, I know we're nearing the end of Women's History Month, so I wanted to make sure that we had something read into the record that was historical for all of us and to all my sisters in the Illinois Senate Women's Caucus. This was done by Sojourner Truth, delivered in 1851 at the Women's

Convention in Akron, Ohio. "Well, children, where there is so much racket there must be something out of kilter. I think 'twixt the negroes of the South and the women at the North, all talking about rights, the white men will be in a fix pretty soon. But what's all this here talking about? That man over there says that women need to be helped into carriages, and lifted over ditches, and to have the best place everywhere. Nobody ever helps me into carriages, or over mud-puddles, or gives me any best place! And ain't I a woman? Look at me! Look at my arm! I have ploughed and planted, and gathered into barns, and no man could head me! And ain't I a woman? I could work as much and eat as much as a man - when I could get it - and bear the lash as well! And ain't I a woman? I have borne thirteen children, and seen most all sold off to slavery, and when I cried out with my mother's grief, none but Jesus heard me! And ain't I a woman? Then they talk about this thing in the head; what's this they call it?" A member of the audience whispers, 'intellect'. "That's it, honey. What's that got to do with women's rights or negroes' rights? If my cup won't hold but a pint, and yours holds a quart, wouldn't you be mean not to let me have my little half measure full? Then that little man in black there" says -- "he says, women can't have as much rights as men, 'cause Christ wasn't a woman!" Well, "where did your Christ come from? Where did your Christ come from? From God and a woman! Man had nothing to do with Him. If the first woman God ever made was strong enough to turn the world upside down all alone, these women together ought to be able to turn it back, and get it right side up again! And now they is asking to do it, and {sic} the men better let them. Obligated to you for hearing me, and now old Sojourner ain't got nothing more to say."

Thank you. Senator Sims, as I understand the bill, it's designed to provide people who are inmates of a local jail with more credit against their fines the longer they stay incarcerated. Is that a fair characterization of the bill?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR KOEHLER)

Senator Sims.

SENATOR SIMS:

That's a fair characterization, Senator.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

You're increasing the credit by sixfold. Has there been any -- have -- have you been provided with any information on what the cost will be to our local counties, because obviously this will reduce the fines that they are able to collect from the offenders?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR KOEHLER)

Senator Sims.

SENATOR SIMS:

Senator, to -- to that point, I've -- I've not -- I've not talked to counties about the fiscal impact in that respect, but if we looked at the -- according to the Bureau -- the Bureau of Labor Statistics, if the amount were -- adjusted for inflation - because the amount has not been adjusted since 1965 - if the amount were adjusted for inflation, it would be forty dollars. We are -- we

STATE OF ILLINOIS
101st GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION
SENATE TRANSCRIPT

have the -- we have the amount set at thirty dollars, the credit being thirty dollars. As we -- this is in line with a lot of -- a number of the other initiatives that we've undertaken to reform our bail system to ensure that individuals who are not a threat to public safety are able to -- to -- to -- to get out and are not a draw on our -- on our public -- on our public safety system.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR KOEHLER)

Senator Righter.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Senator Sims, you -- you referred to these individuals as not a threat to our public safety. Is that because it's a bailable offense?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR KOEHLER)

Senator Sims.

SENATOR SIMS:

Again, that's -- that's the -- this initiative is in line with other efforts that we've undertaken recently, as we've talked about reforming our -- our bail system. As we -- we have a system in Illinois - and, Senator, as you remember, we passed the Bail Reform Act of 2017 - that will make sure that we -- we -- we revamped our bail system to ensure that individuals who are a threat to public safety were not getting out because they are able to pay. And this bill we have before us is consistent with that -- with that legislative agenda.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Thank you very much, Mr. President. And, Senator Sims, thank you for that. I do recall that. I voted for that. This is an add-on to that. I mean -- and I think that every movement in a certain direction has a limit beyond which maybe it's not as good an idea as we were before. This idea is opposed by the State's Attorneys Association and the Illinois Sheriffs' Association, obviously because of the impact on your local counties. This is one of those issues where you will vote for this. You will get a call from your county board members or the county board chairman back home, asking why it is you're voting to take more money out of their pockets when you did that -- when we did that already when we adopted the bail reform. For those reasons, I stand opposed. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR KOEHLER)

Is there any further discussion? Any further discussion? Senator Sims, to close.

SENATOR SIMS:

Thank you, Mr. President. While I appreciate the previous speaker's perspective, what we have been talking about and as we serve to reform our criminal justice system, we are trying to ensure that those individuals who are not a threat to public safety are not held in our county jails. We are trying to make sure that we are not looking at individuals as -- as -- as fiscal benefits to our -- our -- our counties only, but we are making sure that we -- that we are investing in people. And that's what this -- that's what this initiative does; it makes sure that individuals who are held in county jails are able to get out in a more -- in a more
