SENATOR T. CULLERTON:

Point of personal privilege.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

State your point.

SENATOR T. CULLERTON:

Thank you, Mr. President. Just wanted to inform the Senate and make everyone aware, as you were driving down yesterday or the day before or last week, you probably saw a lot of orange cones popping up. It is construction season. This week marks "Work Zone Awareness Week". From 2013 to 2017, on average each year, there are fifty-three hundred and thirty-three work zone crashes, with fifteen hundred and forty people injured as a result. I would like to make sure that we, as we are driving, we also talk about, in our districts, people being safe, putting down your phones, and making sure we take care of our brothers and sisters that are

I rise to object -- thank you, Mr. President. I rise to object to the gentleman's motion to waive posting. What's at issue here is a substantive amendment to the Illinois Constitution that will affect the finances and taxes of millions of Illinoisans. At the very least, the six days' notice required is appropriate for this Body - I understand there's been a lot of public speculation - for this Body to have a conversation about the contents of the amendment and the effects that it might have on our constituents. I would ask for a roll call on the motion -- on the motion, please. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

A roll call has been requested. And the -- all those in favor will vote Aye. Opposed, Nay. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Take the record. On that question, there are 36 Ayes, 15 Nays, none voting Present. Having received -- the motion is adopted, and the notice and posting requirements are waived. Senator Righter.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Thank you, Mr. President. I'll rise to verify the most recent roll call. Thank you.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

Senator Righter has requested a verification. Will all Members please be in their seats? The Secretary will read the affirmative votes.

Thank you, Mr. President. Today, in the President's Gallery, we have Deputy Chris Jones, Sheriff Mike Ringhausen, and several other brave men and women who are here to commend the bravery of Deputy Jones. In the early morning hours of June 13th -- thank you, Mr. President. In the early morning hours of June 13th, 2017, Jersey County Sheriff's Deputy Chris Jones responded to an alarm call at D.J.'s Pub and Grill in Jerseyville. When Deputy Jones arrived on the scene, he joined several other officers who were on foot in pursuit of the subject. Deputy Jones heard gunfire near the suspect and another officer and ran towards the gunfire to assist that officer. Upon arriving, he witnessed the other officer being shot. Deputy Jones returned fire, striking the suspect, and then he moved to apprehend the suspect, who still resisted. Eventually, the suspect was subdued and taken into custody, and it's because of the bravery of Deputy Jones that that other officer survived. So Deputy Jones is in the President's Gallery. Can we please give him a round of applause and thank him for his incredible service?
