SENATOR HASTINGS:

Thank you, Mr. President. This last month has been a -- a difficult month for the State of Illinois and our nation. We lost three soldiers in combat operations -- or in operations in support of the War on Terror: Private First Class Miguel Villalon, from Aurora; Army Specialist Henry "Mitch" Mayfield, my constituent from Hazel Crest who had passed in insurgent attacks in Africa; and then we lost one of our National Guardsmen this month - Master Sergeant Nathan Goodman, from Lansing, Special Forces Noncommissioned Officer, a stand-up soldier. And I ask, Mr. President, that the Senate stands in a moment of silence for these three young soldiers. God bless them and God bless their families.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

So please rise for a moment of silence. (Moment of silence observed) Ladies and Gentlemen, eleven years ago, I was elected Senate President and my first priority was getting the gavel away from the Governor as fast as possible. And I admit that today that it's with mixed emotions that I'm giving it up. It's been my honor to be elected six times to serve as your Senate President. And to the next Senate President, I wish you the best. If there's anything I can do to help in the days, weeks, and months ahead, you know how to reach me. I have enjoyed working with all of you - Republicans and Democrats alike. We have accomplished a great deal together. And now it's time for me to move on. My

GOVERNOR J.B. PRITZKER:

The Senate will come to order. Will the Members please be seated? Secretary Anderson, please read Communications from President John J. Cullerton.

SECRETARY ANDERSON:

Have a letter dated January 19th, 2020.

Dear Secretary Anderson - I hereby resign as President of the Illinois Senate effective at 5:20 p.m. on January 19th, 2020.

Sincerely, John J. Cullerton, President of the Senate.

GOVERNOR J.B. PRITZKER:

Due to President John Cullerton's resignation as Senate President, there is a vacancy in the Office of President of the Senate. Senate Rule 2-2 (d) provides that when there's a vacancy in the Office of the President, a Governor of the same party as the majority caucus shall preside over the nomination and election of the new President. Mr. Secretary, please call the roll of the current Senators of the 101st General Assembly.

GOVERNOR J.B. PRITZKER:

Thank you, Mr. Secretary. A quorum is present. The next order of business is the election of the President of the Senate for the remainder of the 101st General Assembly. As required by Senate Rules 12-4 and 2-2 (b), thirty affirmative votes will be required to elect the President of the Senate. Nominations are now open. Senator Kimberly Lightford is recognized for the purpose of placing a name into nomination. Senator Lightford.

SENATOR LIGHTFORD:

Thank you, Mr. Governor, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. There's generally a lot of flowers on the Floor, many decorations, galleries full of families and friends. Today, Senator, I'm sorry we've fallen short of that call. But what we have come to is a place where I'd like to place in nomination for President of the Senate to finish the 101st General Assembly vacancy that Senator-President John Cullerton has just retired from. I'd like to place in nomination Senator Don Harmon. Don and I have neighboring districts and we have since 2002. So we've been neighbors in the western suburbs and on the west side of Chicago, we've been neighbors in our district offices, we've been -- Senate offices, we've been neighbors here on the Senate Floor. I can't think of anyone else who would do a wonderful job leading our caucus and I look forward to working with him in unity. And for all of these reasons and more -- he's got a beautiful family. I've watched him raise all his children. And I know that he will look out for the children of the State. And for these reasons, I rise to place his name in nomination. Thank you.

SENATOR AQUINO:

Thank you, Mr. Governor, and happy birthday. I rise to second the nomination of Don Harmon for President of the Senate. Just want to take a moment to say, I wish Don the best of luck. I want to thank Senator -- President, excuse me, Cullerton for his service to this esteemed Body. And I -- I wish luck to our -- our next leader, next Senate President, Don Harmon.

GOVERNOR J.B. PRITZKER:

Senator Aquino seconds the nomination of Senator Don Harmon for President of the Senate. Senator Laura Murphy is recognized for the purpose of the seconding nomination. Senator Murphy.

SENATOR MURPHY:

...Members of the General Assembly. I, too, want to extend most happiest birthday wishes to you, but I rise to second the nomination of Senator Don Harmon to be the next President of the Senate. We've known -- I've known Don for a number of years and we've all known him to be a man of character, integrity and, most importantly, patience. I've always admired his ability to listen to all sides of an issue and to include all personalities and perspectives and then bring people together on the decision. So I think it's these critical skills that will be needed to unite this caucus and to lead the Senate through the rest of the 101st General Assembly and on. So I appreciate that. Mr. John Cullerton, thank you too for all the years and your commitment to the Senate.

Thank you, Governor Pritzker. Thank you for -- particularly for spending your fifty-fifth birthday with us. Nothing says "party" like waiting for Senate Democrats to vote! Thank you, Governor Pritzker, President Cullerton, Leader Brady, Treasurer Frerichs, Lieutenant Governor Stratton. I also want to recognize my family watching at home, my remarkable wife, Teri, who has been incredibly supportive through this entire journey, particularly over the last eight weeks, and our three amazing children, Don, Frances, and Maggie. I used to speak on the Floor late in the night on those long days in May just so I could say good night and tell them to go to bed. It is wonderful to have young adults who are engaged in -- in our conversation and committed to social justice. I'd first like to ask all of you to join me in thanking President John Cullerton. John, it is clear to me from my travels how highly all of our colleagues think of you and how much we all appreciate how you served and how you led. From the beginning, your guiding principle was to govern in the spirit of cooperation and collegiality. I fully intend to do the same. You have been a friend and a mentor and we will all miss you. Thank you so very much. I'd also like to extend my gratitude to my longtime friend and neighbor, on the Floor, in the Capitol, and back home in our districts, Senator Kimberly Lightford. I could not be more pleased that you have agreed to continue your outstanding service as Majority Leader, the lead partner in governing. Everyone who has seen your work in passing minimum wage, education reform, and equal pay knows how effective you are at getting things done. Thank you, Leader Lightford. And I would like to thank each and every one of you for your thoughtfulness, the thoughtfulness you brought to this decision. As well as I knew you before, it has been a pleasure visiting with you in your districts and listening to the creative and well-informed ideas that so many of you have for how to make the Illinois Senate even more effective. Choosing a new leader, especially among your peers, is a leap of faith. I stand before you humbled by your confidence. At times, the contest was vigorous and sometimes contentious, so as Martin Luther King said, "Unity is the great need of the hour." I want to assure my colleagues on both sides of the aisle that my door will always be open and I want to express my gratitude to Senator Lightford for her commitment to partner with me to heal whatever rough edges may have emerged during the contest. While we build on the success of the past, let us also use this occasion to think about who we are, what the people need us to be, and how we can reset the tone of the culture here in Springfield. Sixty years ago, John F. Kennedy said, "No responsibility of government is more fundamental than the responsibility of maintaining the highest standard of ethical behavior for those who conduct the public business." The Senate is a collection of diverse views and diverse experiences but consistent purpose - to best represent the citizens who send us to the Capitol, to collaborate, to compromise, and to create better opportunities, better outcomes, and greater faith in the honor and integrity of our State. And now the work begins in earnest. I look forward to joining together with Governor Pritzker and the Leaders in both Chambers as we work to change the trajectory of our State and to set a better course for our future. I ask for your continued confidence and for your patience, as we strive to maximize what we get right and minimize what we get wrong. Honest. Collaborative. Representative. These are the principles that will guide me as we start our journey together. And now, let us begin. Please be well, be safe, get home to your districts and come back here to start our work at the end of the month. God bless you all and thank you so very much. Mr. Secretary, Resolutions.
