

(REGULAR SESSION)

11/26/72

Time - 5:45

1. (REGULAR SESSION)

2. 11/26/72

3. (Tape at the beginning garbled)

4. PRESIDENT:

5. ...Moved by Senator Egan that the reading of the Journal be
6. dispensed with. All in favor signify by saying aye. Committee
7. reports. We have a series of veto messages. Is it accepta-
8. ble to the leadership just to journalize those?

9. (Some of the recording lost on tape)

10. Senator Partee?

11. SENATOR PARTEE:

12. ...Senator Clarke, Senator Clarke, I'd like for you to listen
13. to this. There is this large number of veto messages none of which
14. we find monumental in terms of desiring to override them. And there
15. are two ways of doing it, and that is simply to let them jour-
16. nalize them, we have all seen them, or to have them read. I
17. would suggest that they do ...that they are journalized, that each
18. member, each member does in fact have a copy on his desk of these
19. particular ones so they ...it isn't necessary, it seems to me, that
20. they be read. So I would move that the Secretary be directed to
21. journalize them rather than to read them.

22. PRESIDENT:

23. Is that acceptable, Senator Clarke? They will be journal-
24. ized. Is there...is there any further business to come before
25. the Session? Motion by Sen...Senator Partee.

26. SENATOR PARTEE:

27. Yes, we have a Committee Report on the Committee on Committees
28. ...the Committee on Committees is met pursuant to Senate Resolution
29. No. 5, of the first Special Session, of the 77th General Assembly
30. and has appointed the following members to wait upon his Excellency,
31. the Governor, and to receive any message he desires to submit. And
32. those Senators are: Senators Berning, Merritt, Cherry, Neistein,
33. and O'Brien. Now, Mr. President, while I am on my feet, I would

1. like to make two other announcements. One of them relates to
2. an event scheduled to take place here tomorrow at 11:30. This
3. entails the unveiling of a painting of a former President pro
4. tempore of this Senate, who was a father of Senator Everett
5. Laughlin. That should take place at approximately 11:30
6. tomorrow. So I am advising the members to please be here, and
7. recognize that almost as soon as it shall have finished we will
8. be going to the House for a Joint Session. The Joint Session
9. is scheduled to take place at noon, at which time Governor
10. Ogilvie will address the Joint Session. I would assume that
11. we will be getting, perhaps after we shall have gone, a Resolu-
12. tion from the House advising us of this Joint Session tomorrow.
13. But inasmuch as we are here and some of us may wander away I
14. thought I would make that announcement at this time, that there
15. will be a Joint Session tomorrow at noon. And we have the 11:30
16. meeting, sort of scheduled time, for the Laughlin presentation.
17. There will be a Democratic caucus tomorrow at 9:00, and we are
18. scheduled to come in Session at 10:00.

19. PRESIDENT:

20. Is there...Senator Bidwill.

21. SENATOR BIDWILL:

22. Short announcement, Mr. President, a Republican caucus at
23. 9:00 o'clock. Across from your office, Senator. Senator Knuepfer.

24. SENATOR KNUEPFER:

25. Senators Partee and Bidwill, there is also a meeting
26. of the...I'm not sure what the proper name is, the Old Budgetary
27. Commission, the Joint Economic Commission, I think at 8:00 o'-
28. clock tomorrow morning. I'm just trying to keep channels clear.

29. PRESIDENT:

30. Senator Partee.

31. SENATOR PARTEE:

32. The meeting I think takes a form of a breakfast meeting
33. at the Mansion View and commences, I think, at 9:00 o'clock. 8:00

1. SENATOR KNUEPFER:

2. 8:00 o'clock. Yea.

3. SENATOR PARTEE:

4. 8:00 o'clock, yes. Well, that means that there are some
5. persons, who will be at that meeting, will have to leave to be
6. over here at 9:00.

7. PRESIDENT:

8. Senator Bidwill.

9. SENATOR BIDWILL:

10. What do you intend having for breakfast, Senator?

11. He says yes.

12. PRESIDENT:

13. Senator Merritt.

14. SENATOR MERRITT:

15. Mr. President, wonder if I may make inquiry of the President
16. pro tem on the ones to wait on the Governor. I heard you say
17. Merry, I know this is the season to be Merry, but I didn't know
18. whether you really meant Merritt, or what?

19. PRESIDENT:

20. Senator Partee.

21. SENATOR PARTEE:

22. I don't explain myself so good sometimes, Senator. I thought
23. I said Merritt. Merritt - with a double T.

24. PRESIDENT:

25. Is there...? Senator Bidwill.

26. SENATOR BIDWILL:

27. For Senator Neistein's information, our caucus will be in
28. Room 419, at 9:00 o'clock.

29. PRESIDENT:

30. Senator Partee, could we go ahead with the Adjournment Reso-
31. lution with the understanding that we will journalize the Message
32. from the House on the Joint Session.

33. SENATOR PARTEE:

1. Yes sir.

2. PRESIDENT:

3. All right. Motion by Senator Partee, that the Senate
4. stands adjourned until 10:00 o'clock tomorrow morning. All
5. in favor signify by saying aye. Contrary minded. Senate
6. stands adjourned.
