SENATOR ROCK:

I wonder, Mr. President and Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, since we're in the waning hours and the deadline has obviously passed, if I can move that the House bills on 1st reading, House Bill 855, 955, 1524, 1525 and 2517...be referred to the Committee on Rules.

SENATOR PHILIP:

I move that all substantive House bills on 2nd reading be referred back to the Rules Committee.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR BRUCE)

Senator Philip, your motion was in the nature of the substantive bills, not appropriation bills? Senator Philip.

SENATOR PHILIP:

That's correct. Just the substantive bills on 2nd reading, not the approp bills, back to Rules Committee.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR BRUCE)

All right. Those bills will be found on page 2 and on page 7 of your Calendar. And...and...and there is one on the bottom of the page...bottom of page 6. On the motion, discussion? All in favor say Aye. Opposed Nay. The Ayes have it. The bills are recommitted to the Rules Committee. (Machine cutoff)...those would include House Bills 1033, 1733, 2513, 2521, 2530 and 2541 for the record. Is that correct, Senator Philip? Those are the bills under your motion? We are now going to the Order of Secretary's Desk Concurrence, with the leave of the Body. Is there leave? Leave is granted. If you will turn to page 9 of your Calendar, there are a series of appropriation bills in which the Chair has been made to understand that there is a desire to nonconcur with House amendments, and we will make these motions individually, but so the membership knows the bills that we will consider and will not, I will go down through the Calendar with you on the ones so you'll be ready. On page 9 of your Calendar, these are the bills in which motions to nonconcur, I am informed, will be filed: Senate Bill 1285, 1359, on the next page, 1363, 1374, 1386 and 1397, at the bottom of page 10. And then on page 13, all those appropriation bills, 21, 22, 25, 26, 27, 28 and 1445. On page 14 of your Calendar, at the middle of the page, 1514 and 1516 and 1524. PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR BRUCE)

A...a good reason, Senator.

SENATOR SCHAFFER:

I would settle for a good reason. I'd be delighted to have one.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR BRUCE)

Well,...the Chair is willin to add to the list if you and Senator Buzbee and...and all the other appropriation chiefs sit down...this was the list that I was given that there was substantial agreement on, and I'm sure that by the time we get to the end of the list, we might be able to add more. There were some questions pending, I think, on those. 1359, Senator DeAngelis moves that the Senate nonconcur in House Amendments 1, 4 and 5 to Senate Bill 1359. On the motion, all in favor say Aye. The Ayes have it and the motion prevails, and the Senate nonconcur with the amendments. Senator Grotberg, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR GROTBORG:

Thank you, Mr. President. I...see the...the...the experts are conferring over here with staff, and my leader was talking to me and I missed it, but what the hell are we doing? And would...there are several other members present on the Floor, and I think it would be good if we just said what we're doing or at least get Mr. Schaffer or Mr. Somebody to tell us what we're doing for the...I think I know what's going on...

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR BRUCE)

Right, the Chair was given a list of bills...

SENATOR GROTBORG:

...we're getting ready for the deal, but I want to know what's in the deal...

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR BRUCE)

no...no, the Chair was given a list of bills in which he...the Chair was advised that there was no controversy, and that...and that the House amendments...there were some problem with them that we would nonconcur and these bills will be put in a Conference Committee. This is not final passage. Senator Schaffer.

SENATOR SCHAFFER:

Mr. President and members of the Senate, for the members on this side, and I guess for everyone's general edification, it's obvious the House put, in most cases, put considerable amount of money back in each of these budgets, funded the personnel items beyond the point that the Senate sent to them. It's obvious that...that we are working towards a comprehensive settlement on things like percentage of increase, et cetera, and to expedite the movement of paper through the system, we are going to have to put all these bills into a position where we can put together a Conference Committee, and it was the thought that fifteen, twenty minutes work here tonight will allow the staff to get that paper work going, speed up the whole general situation. The question that...that we were a little concerned about was a couple of bills were excluded for a reason...basically, they're the bills that relate to the pension funding level, and perhaps that's a issue of, shall we say, controversy that perhaps should be left when more of these chairs are filled or a consensus is worked out.

Before putting the motion to adjourn, unless there's any further business, we will return here at noon tomorrow, and I would ask all the members to try to be...prompt. We have a lot of work ahead to us. Some...some of us have been meeting continually attempting, at least, to affect some compromise. But why don't we also, to save the printers some problem, re-refer, if there's no serious objection to House bills on 3rd reading back to the committees from whence they came. That's on page 2.
