Is there leave to return to the Order of Resolutions?
For what purpose does Senator Vadalabene arise?

Yes, thank you, Mr. President. I would like, at this time, to Table Senate Bill 121.

ACTING PRESIDENT: (SENATOR BRUCE)

Senator, are you the sponsor of that bill?

Yes, sir.

ACTING PRESIDENT: (SENATOR BRUCE)

Alright. The motion by the sponsor is to Table Senate Bill 121. On the motion to Table by the sponsor, all in favor say Aye. Opposed Nay. The Ayes have it and the bill is Tabled. Senator Savickas, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR SAVICKAS:

For the purpose of reassigning Senate Bill 127 from the Judiciary Committee to the Transportation Committee. I have spoken to Senator Weaver, the Minority member, and he agrees with me.

ACTING PRESIDENT: (SENATOR BRUCE)

The motion is to discharge the Committee on Judiciary from further consideration of Senate Bill 127, and that's Judiciary II, and have the bill re-referred to the Senate Committee on Transportation. On the motion, is there discussion? All in favor say Aye. Opposed Nay. The Ayes have it, and the bill is discharged and re-referred. For what purpose does Senator Geo-Karis arise?

SENATOR GEO-KARIS:

Mr. President and Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, I have requested permission from Senator Jeremiah Joyce and been granted permission to be added as an additional hyphenated co-sponsor to him and Senator Dignan on Senate Bill 20.

ACTING PRESIDENT: (SENATOR BRUCE)

...and Senator Lechowicz...Senator Geo-Karis...wait a minute. Senator Geo-Karis...Senator, is it to join as a co-sponsor or as a hyphenated co-sponsor? Senator Geo-Karis. Senator...Senator Geo-Karis, let me get back to you. We've got a problem in the...how many joint co-sponsors they can print down in the Legislative Reference Bureau, and as soon as the Secretary checks with it, we...we'll get back to you. For what purpose does Senator Darrow arise?

SENATOR DARROW:

Mr. President, Senator Joyce has given me permission to be added as a co-sponsor to Senate Bill 221.

ACTING PRESIDENT: (SENATOR BRUCE)

Alright. Now, just...if I might have the attention of the Body, under the Senate Rules, which are temporary in nature, but are the rules under which we are now operating, co-sponsors need no longer take up Floor time to indicate that you will be a co-sponsor. And, all you have to do is send a note to the Secretary that you would like to be added as a co-sponsor, and he will do that internally to our printing of our Journal, and...and to the printing of the Digest. So, co-sponsors, just tell the Secretary. If you want to be a joint hyphenated co-sponsor, that will still be done on the Floor. In...in both instances it is common courtesy to notify the sponsor that you are joining him in his efforts...or her. For what purpose does Senator Rock arise?

SENATOR ROCK:

Thank you, Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. If I can have your attention, we are shortly to proceed to the House for the Joint Session and the Governor's Budget Address; but I am pleased to introduce to you today and I would ask that we move to the Order of Senate Resolution 37, so that he can be properly introduced. He is a man who is an old friend of mine, although he is not an old man. I would like with leave of the Body to read Senate Resolution 37. I have asked leave that all members be shown as co-sponsors.

(Senator Rock reads SR 37)

Mr. President, I would ask you to introduce to this Body, one of the truly nation's outstanding public servants, the Treasurer of the State of California, Mr. Jess Unruh.

Yes, this is the joint resolution calling for us to join the House in Joint Session to hear the Governor's Budget Address. I would ask that the membership get to the Well of the House or right outside the front door of the House in about ten minutes. We will return to the Chamber. It helps to journalize what we're about. Frankly, there will be no substantive business after the Message, but we will come back and pro-forma adjourn until next Tuesday.

SENATOR ROCK:

Thank you, Mr. President. If I can have the attention of the members again, when we leave here today we will not return until next Tuesday. The House has decided to be in Session tomorrow. There is no reason for us to be here. We will return to Springfield next Tuesday, at the hour of noon, and I would move for the suspension of the rules and the immediate consideration and adoption of Senate Joint Resolution 7, the adjournment resolution.

The resolutions are adopted. Alright. If I might have the attention of the Body, we are going to come back after the Joint Session. If you have bills that you would like to introduce today, we can take introduction when we come back and it will help the Secretary's office. So, if you have more introductions, that would be the only matter of business we will take up when we come back, other than to adjourn. So, if you have bills to introduce, you might...you have another hour and fifteen minutes to get them down here. Any further business?
