PRESIDENT:

SECRETARY:

Senator Vadalabene, chairman of the Committee on Executive Appointments, Administration and Veterans' Affairs to which was referred to the Governor's Message of April the 27th, 1983, reports the same back with the recommendation that the Senate advise and consent to the following appointments.

PRESIDENT:

Senator Vadalabene.

SENATOR VADALABENE:

Yes, thank you, Mr. President and members of the Senate.

PRESIDENT:

Senator Vadalabene.

SENATOR VADALABENE:

I move that the Senate resolve itself into Executive Session for the purpose of acting on the Governor's appointments set forth in the Governor's Message of April 27, 1983.

PRESIDENT:

You've heard the motion as placed by Senator Vadalabene. Any discussion? If not, all in favor signify by saying Aye. All opposed. The Ayes have it. The motion carries. The Senate is now in Executive Session. Senator Vadalabene.

SENATOR VADALABENE:

Yes, thank you, Mr. President and members of the Senate. With respect to the Governor's Message of April 27, 1983, I will read the salaried appointments to which the committee on Executive Appointments, Veterans' Affairs and Administration recommends that the Senate do advise and consent.

To be director of the Department of Agriculture for a term expiring January 21, 1985, Larry A. Werries of Springfield.

And to be director of the Department of Conservation for a term expiring January 21, 1985, David Kenney of Springfield.

Mr. President, having read the salaried appointments, I now seek leave to consider these appointments on one roll call unless some Senator has objection to a specific appointment.

PRESIDENT:

You've heard the request. Is leave granted? It is without objection, Senator.

SENATOR VADALABENE:

Mr. President, will you put the question as required by our rules.

PRESIDENT:

Question is, does the Senate advise and consent to the nominations just made. Those in favor will vote Aye. Those opposed will vote Nay. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Take the record. On that question, the Ayes are 57, the Nays are none, none voting Present. The majority of the Senators elected concurring by record vote, the Senate does advise and consent to the nominations just made. Senator Vadalabene.

SENATOR VADALABENE:

Yes, thank you, Mr. President and members of the Senate. I move that the Senate arise from Executive Session.

PRESIDENT:

You've heard the motion. Is...all in favor indicate by saying Aye. All opposed. The Ayes have it. The motion carries. Senate does now arise. Senator Hudson, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR HUDSON:

PRESIDENT:

State your point, sir.

SENATOR HUDSON:

The other day, last Friday, I inadvertently voted on Senate Bill 1201, I realize this is no longer in possession of the...of the Senate, but my vote on Senate Bill 1201, Senator Joyce's bill, was recorded as No, it should have been recorded as Yes. That's...would like that entered into the record.

PRESIDENT:

All right, the record will so reflect. Committee reports.

PRESIDENT:

There's a motion in writing, the Secretary informs me...with leave of the Body, we'll go to that order. Motions in Writing, Mr. Secretary.

SECRETARY:

Motion in writing. I move to suspend rule...Senate Rule 7C posting requirement so that House bills...that all House bills in the Senate may be posted no later than Friday, June the 3rd, 1983, and may be heard in committee. Signed, Senator Bruce.

PRESIDENT:

Senator Bruce.

SENATOR BRUCE:

Thank you, Mr. President and members of the Senate. This is a similar motion to what we made when we had the Senate bills. This is to suspend the posting requirement so that all bills that will be posted by this Friday in committee can be heard next week. That still gives sufficient notice, we believe, to have everyone here that's interested in legislation. So, I would move the adoption of the...of the motion to suspend the rules for bills that are posted by Friday of this week to be heard next week.

PRESIDENT:

All right, Senator Bruce has moved to suspend the Six-day Posting Requirement to require...or to afford the opportunity to post bills up through Friday. Is leave granted? Leave is granted. Motion carries. I would point out to the membership also, I have...take a look, if you will, at the House Calendar. There are five pages of Senate bills on 1st reading without House sponsors. Now, some of that may have changed since the House went in, but I would urge the membership to take a look and follow up on their Senate bills over in the House to make sure they are sponsored and taken off the Calendar and posted. Senator Hall, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR HALL:

Thank you, Mr. President and Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. I would like for the record to show that Senator Chew is absent on assignment in the City of Chicago for today.

PRESIDENT:

All right, the record will so reflect. Senator Chew is in Chicago on official business. Any further business to come before the Senate? Is there any further business to come before the Senate? Any announcements? Senator Watson, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR WATSON:

Just like to remind the Body that tonight is the annual legislative tennis tournament and we have reservations from the following Senators and anybody who is not read off here and is interested in playing, they should contact me...yet this afternoon. I've got Senator Holmberg, Art Berman, Bob Mitchler, Harbor Hall, Dick Luft, Cal Schuneman, George Sangmeister, they're all playing tennis. And then we got racketball and we have Roger Keats, Bob Kustra and Billy Marovitz. Anyone else...wishing to participate, let me know.

PRESIDENT:

Senator...Senator Sangmeister, of course, is the top seat, I assume. Senator Lemke, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR LEMKE:

I make a motion that we'd like to move our committee meeting up to one-fifteen in Judiciary. We have many bills and this way we'll get done in time.

PRESIDENT:

All right, Senator Lemke has requested the members of the Committee on Judiciary I that they will meet at one-fifteen in Room 400. Senator Marovitz, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR MAROVITZ:

Thank you, Mr. President. Maybe Senator Nedza, if he's listening...Senator, would you raise your hand, I know you're here someplace.

PRESIDENT:

Senator...Senator Nedza.

SENATOR MAROVITZ:

Senator Nedza. I...is there a...there's supposed to be a chairty softball game and a practice, is that correct? Is there practice today? There's not a practice today? Okay. Forget about it.

PRESIDENT:

You ought to...send him a letter, will you? Any further business to come before the Senate? If not, those on Judiciary I will meet at one-fifteen, and the rest of us can go to lunch and meet at two o'clock. If there's no further business, Senator Hall moves that the Senate stand adjourned until Thursday, June 2nd, at the hour of noon. Tomorrow at noon. Senate stands adjourned.
