PRESIDENT:

Rules Committee. If I can ask the members please be in their seats. I'd ask the doorkeepers to please man the doors and keep them shut during this observance. I'd ask our guests and the staff to please take a seat. To Commander Landers, Commander Keller, Dorothy Lippert, Michael Ferguson and to all of you here assembled, it is my pleasure on behalf of the members to welcome you to the Illinois Senate. It was once said that no person was ever honored for what he received, rather honor is the reward for what is given. We are gathered today to honor the one hundred and two missing Illinois residents, the POW's and the MIA's who have given more than many of us will ever understand to their State, to their Nation and to the cause of freedom. And on behalf of the members of the Illinois Senate, let me say that we share in this special tribute to the missing, for in the end we are all members of the same family, bonded together by hope, hope that our missing brothers, fathers, friends and fellow citizens will soon be with us again. I've been asked by Dorothy to thank each of you, the members of the Senate, for participating in this observance and ask also to call attention to the packet of information which has been distributed to each of the members. Dorothy suggests it might be a good idea to include some of the information in your next district news letter, because we must rededicate ourselves today to continue to do all we can to bring all the members of the family home. I look forward to the day when you and I as members of the Senate can instead meet to welcome home the hundred and two Illinois residents that we honor today. Commander Landers. Members and our guests please rise for the invocation to be delivered today by Father Victor Kaltenbach, Springfield, Illinois.

FATHER KALTENBACH:

(Invocation given by Father Kaltenbach)

PRESIDENT:

Thank you, Father. If you'd please be seated. It is now my pleasure to call to the Podium, Mr. Albert Keller, Jr., the past National Commander of the American Legion. Commander.

COMMANDER ALBERT KELLER, Jr.:

(Remarks given by Commander Keller)

PRESIDENT:

Thank you, Commander. (Machine cutoff)...Lippert and Michael Ferguson will now lead the candlelighting ceremony and I'll call upon Senator Frank Watson.

SENATOR WATSON:

Thank you, Mr. President. This is a roll call of those Illinoisans that are still missing in action.

(Senator Watson reads names of men missing in action)

SENATOR DAVIDSON:

(Senator Davidson reads names of men missing in action)

PRESIDENT:

Please stand in silent prayer for these hundred and two of our family.

(Senator Rock gives prayer)

Commander Landers. The Senate stands adjourned until noon tomorrow.
