PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZZIO)

Can we have some order, please. Senator Rock.

SENATOR ROCK:

Thank you, Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. For the benefit of those of you I know who are anxious to get back to your offices and draft additional bills to be introduced, let me just suggest that the schedule will call for us to reconvene here tomorrow morning at eleven o'clock, and the Governor has asked the Speaker and I to convene a Joint Session for the purpose of hearing his State of the State address at the hour of noon, so that we will transact whatever business we have between the hour of eleven and eleven forty-five and then go to the House. The major business tomorrow will be the rules change which will set out the deadlines and Senator Philip and I have met a couple of times on the schedule. What we'd like to do tomorrow is provide the entire membership with a schedule as best we can determine of the entire Session so that you can make your plans accordingly. As it looks now, we will be in Session...when we leave tomorrow we don't return to Springfield until March the 3rd and we will be in Session in March roughly six or eight days. And then, of course, there is the Easter break and then the schedule commencing right after Easter, I believe, it's the 21st, gets a little tough. The deadline for introduction of bills will probably be April the 10th which is the Friday before the Easter break. So those of you who have ideas and bills to be drafted by the Reference Bureau, let me encourage you to spend this afternoon and tomorrow getting those thoughts collected and getting them down there so that the bills will be ready for introduction by April the 10th. Additionally, we expect to have the full committee membership in place tomorrow so that the committees themselves can begin to assess the workload...that has been assigned to them and...and make the...their recommendations for a schedule. In addition, Mr. Secretary, I would like the record to reflect that Senator Vadalabene is absent due to his illness, he is recuperating at home and I'd like the record to reflect that Senator D'Arco is not with us today due to an illness in his family.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

Madam Secretary, will...the record will so note. Senator Smith, for what purpose do you arise? Senator Smith. Introduction of bills.

SECRETARY:

SECRETARY:

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

Senator Rock.

SENATOR ROCK:

Thank you, Mr. President. I'd also like the record to reflect that Senator Lechowicz is not with us today due to illness, and in that respect, I'd ask leave of the Body to handle Senate Resolution 28. It is a congratulatory resolution but there is some urgency. It congratulates the Odvocot Society, the legal society for lawyers of Polish descent.
There is no controversy and I would move to suspend the rules for the immediate consideration and adoption of Senate Resolution 28.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

All right. Senator Rock has moved for...leave to be...asked to handle the resolution for Senator Lechowicz.
Senator Rock has moved to suspend the rules for the immediate adoption and consideration of Senate Resolution 28, it's congratulatory in nature. Those in favor indicate by saying
