3rd reading. All right. With leave of the Body, we do have some resolutions. Senator Poshard has one he wishes to suspend the rules on, I am told. So we'll have a few more minutes of business and then we'll repair to committee. Senator Watson, for what purpose do you seek recognition?

SENATOR WATSON:

Yes, just...just an inquiry, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT:

Yes.

SENATOR WATSON:

The...beginning of the Calendar, we...we've got several bills that have gone on there that have not had an opportunity to be heard on 2nd reading, and I wonder if there's a chance we could just run through those and pick up those noncontroversial bills and...

PRESIDENT:

Well, we were...Senator Philip and I discussed that we would do the noncontroversial bills again tomorrow.

SENATOR WATSON:

I see.

PRESIDENT:

From eleven to twelve and hopefully get out of here. And we should be able to cover the... 'cause every other one has got a mark on it.

SENATOR WATSON:

Okay. Very good.

PRESIDENT:

I'm... I'm well... I'm well aware there are some that don't and we'll get through them in a hurry, believe me.

SENATOR WATSON:

Okay. Thank you.

PRESIDENT:

Senator Brookins, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR BROOKINS:

Thank you, Mr... President. I'd like leave of the Body to add Senator Jones, Senator Savickas and Senator J. J. Joyce to Senate Bill 1483 as hyphenated cosponsors.

PRESIDENT:

All right. The gentleman seeks leave to add Senators Jones, Savickas and Joyce to Senate... as cosponsors... Senate Bill 1483. J. E. Joyce, Jeremiah Joyce. All right. Without objection, leave is granted. Senator Vadalabene, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR VADALABENE:

Yes, Mr. President, I would like to remove my name as sponsor of Senate Bill 710 and put in its place... I don't know how to say this but... Beverly Fawell, that wants to have the bill, and I don't want to have any problems with her. So, would you please have... have leave so Bev can take care of the boats.

PRESIDENT:

All right. Senator... Senator Sam has moved that Senator... seeks leave of the Body to show Senator Fawell as the chief sponsor on Senate Bill 710, and he wishes to be removed from that responsibility. Without objection, leave is granted. All right. With leave of the Body, we'll move to the Order of Resolutions. Mr. Secretary, if you'll clear the board, please. Resolutions.

ACTING SECRETARY: (MR. HARRY)

Senate Resolution 237 offered by Senator Holmberg.

Senate Resolution 238 offered by Senator Holmberg. Both congratulatory.

PRESIDENT:

Consent Calendar. Senator Poshard. Resolutions, Mr. Secretary.

ACTING SECRETARY: (MR. HARRY)

Senate Resolution 239 offered by Senator Poshard.

PRESIDENT:

Senator Poshard, Senate Resolution 239.

SENATOR POSHARD:

Yes, thank you, Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. Mr. President, the members of the United Automobile Worker's Local 376 were forced to strike the Colt Firearms Company of Hartford, Connecticut on January 24th, 1986, after the company refused to bargain fairly for a new contract. Despite a profit of a hundred and thirty-two million dollars in 1985, Colt Firearms demanded a wage freeze and a reduction in health insurance benefits. The company has now called in strike breakers. In September of 1986, the United Auto Worker's locals unconditional offer to return to work was spurned by Colt Firearms Company, and the Connecticut State Labor Department has now ruled the situation a lockout for the purposes of unemployment insurance. Mr. President, I would urge that the members of this Senate express our solidarity with the striking workers of Colt Firearms Company and call upon Colt to resume bargaining with the union in good faith; and I would further urge that the Illinois Secretary of State, the Department of Corrections and the Department of State Police boycott products of the Colt Firearms Company while the strike continues. I would ask for consent of this resolution by this Body.

PRESIDENT:

All right. The gentleman seeks unanimous consent to have the resolution immediately heard. I assume, Senator Philip, that's going to be...Senator Philip.

SENATOR PHILIP:

Yeah. Thank you, Mr. President. I'm afraid I'll have to object, it's a very controversial issue. It ought to be heard in Exec. Committee. And...and, quite frankly, we have that Colt Gun Company...is our guest in the State of Illinois and our guest in the City of Chicago for their national convention. Now we want them to come back to Illinois, Senator. But if we're going to pass resolutions telling Connecticut what to do and encouraging people to demonstrate at a Chicago hotel against the Colt Company, I don't think it's in the best interest of the City of Chicago or the best interests of the state. We've only heard your side of the story, we have not heard the other side of the story, and I think in...in good conscience this ought to go to Exec. and we ought to hear both sides.

PRESIDENT:

All right. Further discussion? Senator Hudson.

SENATOR HUDSON:

Well, thank you, Mr. President. I can only echo what...what Senator Philip has said in this regard. I think it would be ill-advised to discharge this bill...this resolution from committee at this time on such summary notice. I...I...I don't know whether the resolution, in fact, has been distributed or not. I don't know that the members have a copy of it, they're conversant with it. And, furthermore, it would seem to me to be establishing bad policy to begin to do this kind of thing because there are...forty-nine...there are a lot of other states...forty-nine other states in this country that all have labor disputes of some kind going on and I suppose if we set a precedent and do this for this...do this in this case, we can do...something similar for all of the rest of them that come along. And I...I, too, would speak against discharging, I think it belongs in committee, should be deliberated...with some thought and some reason rather than a preempt..preemptory consideration of this kind.

PRESIDENT:

All right. Senator Poshard, what is your pleasure? There have been two objections to the request for unanimous consent.

SENATOR POSHARD:

Well, Mr. President, I very well understand when some companies are under duress for whatever reasons financially and...unable perhaps to realize a fair profit. I understand that and I understand those people going to the appropriate labor authorities and negotiating around the table. I've been one of the foremost proponents in this Senate of labor management...legislation for this state. But the one uncontestable thing, Senator Philip, that I think we have to look at in this particular case is that no one contest that Colt Firearms realized a one hundred and thirty-two million dollar profit in 1985. To ask for wage freezes and further concessions seems to me to be an unreasonable request under the circumstances. And, Mr. President, because of that unreasonableness, I would make the motion to suspend the rules to discharge the Committee on Executive from further consideration of Resolution 239 and ask for immediate consideration of the Senate.

PRESIDENT:

Well, we were on the Order of Resolutions. The gentleman does now seek...or move to suspend the appropriate rules for the immediate consideration of Senate Resolution 239.

Discussion on the motion? Senator Fawell.

SENATOR FAWELL:

I would like a...a copy of this resolution, and I think I've got five on my side that would agree with me if...if we can...so...and I would make a move that we get a copy before we take this motion up.

PRESIDENT:

I think copies can be quickly distributed, certainly. All right. Senator Poshard has moved to suspend the appropriate rules for the purpose of the immediate consideration of Senate Resolution 239. Copies have now, pursuant to request of Senators Fawell and Hudson, been distributed, I am informed. Senator Philip.

SENATOR PHILIP:

I'll ask for a roll call, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT:

That request is in order. Senator Poshard, you wish to close? The roll call has been requested.

SENATOR POSHARD:

Mr. President, only to add one other thing, perhaps, and that is that the National Labor Relations Board recently issued a complaint charging Colt with numerous unfair labor practices. So that should be uppermost in our thoughts as we vote on this resolution.

PRESIDENT:

All right. Senator Poshard has moved to suspend the rules for the immediate consideration of Senate Resolution 239. The motion to suspend will require thirty affirmative votes. Those in favor of the motion will vote Aye. Opposed will vote Nay. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? I can't believe it. Take the record. On that question, there are 31 Ayes, 26 Nays, 2 voting Present. The motion carries. On the main order of business, the question is the...I beg your pardon. Senator Philip.

SENATOR PHILIP:

...(Machine cutoff).

PRESIDENT:

Senator Philip has requested a verification. Will all the members be in their seats. Mr. Secretary, if you'll please read the affirmative votes.

ACTING SECRETARY: (MR. HARRY)

The following voted in the affirmative: Alexander, Berman, Brookins, Carroll, Collins, D'Arco, Degnan, del Valle, Demuzio, Thomas Dunn, Hall, Holmberg, Jacobs, Jones, Jeremiah Joyce, Jerome Joyce, Kelly, Lechowicz, Luft, Marovitz, Netsch, Newhouse, O'Daniel, Poshard, Savickas, Severns, Smith, Vadalabene, Welch, Zito, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT:

Senator Philip, do you question the presence of any member?

SENATOR PHILIP:

Thank you, Mr. President. Senator D'Arco.

PRESIDENT:

Senator D'Arco on the Floor? Senator D'Arco on the Floor? Strike his name, Mr. Secretary. Question the...presence of anybody else?

SENATOR PHILIP:

Senator Savickas.

PRESIDENT:

Senator Savickas on the Floor? Senator Savickas on the Floor? Strike his name, Mr. Secretary. Senator Philip.

SENATOR PHILIP:

Inquiry...if that's twenty-nine votes, I won't bore the Senate with knocking anybody else off.

PRESIDENT:

...you, yeah. You question the presence of any other member? All right. The roll call has been verified. The Ayes are 29, the Nays are 26. The motion fails. Senate Resolution 239 will be assigned to the Executive Committee. Further business to come before the Senate? Resolutions.

ACTING SECRETARY: (MR. HARRY)

Senate Resolution 240 offered by Senator Lechowicz and all members. It's a death resolution.

PRESIDENT:

Consent Calendar. Senator Philip, for what purpose do you arise, sir?

SENATOR PHILIP:

Thank you, Mr. President, to make an announcement. The Governor's birthday is tomorrow, he's having coffee and cake at ten o'clock in the morning in Room 207 and everybody is invited. Thank you.

PRESIDENT:

Any further announcements? Further business to come before the Senate? Senator Hall.

SENATOR HALL:

Thank you, Mr. President. I'd just like to make an announcement, that Appropriation II will meet at two-thirty promptly in Room 212. Please be there, we want to pass out...this last bill. Thank you.

PRESIDENT:

All right. 212, Appropriations II, two-thirty. Further announcements? Any further business? If not, Senator Vadalabene will move that the Senate stand adjourned until Friday, May the 8th. Friday, tomorrow morning, at the hour of eleven and we'll work from eleven to twelve on those noncontroversial bills that Senator Watson and I have and we'll hopefully be back in our district early in the afternoon. Senator Smith, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR SMITH:

Thank you, Mr. President and members of the Senate. I merely want to make an announcement to remind all the members of the Public Health, Welfare and Corrections Committee that we will convene promptly upstairs in Room 400. Our workload is heavy today and we would certainly like to move with dispatch.

PRESIDENT:

All right. Senator Smith requests that all members of Public Health and all who have bills please immediately retire to Room 400. Senator Collins.

SENATOR COLLINS:

To remind all members of the Transportation Committee that we will be meeting at 8:30 a. m. tomorrow morning. We do have a lot of bills to clear on our Calendar so we'd appreciate your...our early arrival.

PRESIDENT:

All right...Senate Transportation, eight-thirty tomorrow morning. We're coming...come into Session at eleven and we hope to be...conclude our business around noon. No further business, the Senate stands adjourned until Friday, May 8th, at the hour of eleven o'clock.
