PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

Senator Smith.

SENATOR SMITH:

Thank you, Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. Mr. President, I move that the Journals just read by the Secretary be approved unless some Senator has additions or corrections to offer.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

All right. You've heard the motion as posed by Senator Smith. Are there any objections? Hearing no objections, so ordered.

SENATOR SMITH:

Thank you. I also move, sir, that reading and approval of the Journals of Wednesday, June 21st, Thursday, June 22nd, Friday, June 23rd, Saturday, June 24th, Monday, June 26th, Tuesday, June 27th and Wednesday, June 28th, in the year 1989, be postponed, pending arrival of the printed Journals.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

All right. You've heard the motion as posed by Senator Smith. All in favor indicate by saying Aye. Opposed, Nay. The Ayes have it. So ordered. Permission to shoot still photographs from the

SENATOR WEAVER:

Thank you, Mr. President. I would move that the Senate recede from Senate Amendment No. 1 to House Bill 263. This was an amendment that was put on at the request of the Taxpayers' Federation, and in thus discussing it with the sponsor of the bill and the Taxpayers' Federation, they now feel that it is unnecessary, and would prefer that we recede from this amendment.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

All right. This will be final action. Is there discussion? The question is, shall the Senate recede from Senate Amendment No. 1 to House Bill 263. All in favor will vote Aye, those opposed, Nay. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? All voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Senator Luft. Have all voted who wish? Take the record. On that question, the Ayes are 46, the Nays are 10, 1 voting Present. The Senate does recede from Senate Amendment No. 1 to House Bill -- 263, and the bill, having received the required constitutional majority, is declared passed. 507. Senator Ralph Dunn. Senate Amendment No. 1 to House Bill 1472.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

Senator Zito.

SENATOR ZITO:

Yes, thank you Mr. President and Members. I would move to non-concur. The amendment that was adopted to House Bill 1472 which I agreed to have placed on this bill, on the request of Senator Schaffer, unfortunately did not have an effective date, and so we need to go to Conference. And I would move to non-concur.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

All in favor of the motion indicate by saying Aye. Opposed, Nay. The Ayes have it. The motion carries, and the Secretary shall so inform the House. Senator Fawell, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR FAWELL:

A -- point of personal privilege. I had a bill that I have been sponsor of since day one -- Senate Bill 714. Just a few minutes ago, without any notification to me whatsoever, I gather I was taken off as a sponsor. I would like to know when this happened. How it happened. Couldn't I've at least been asked, or told, somewhere along the line?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

Senator Fawell, is that Senate Bill 714 or House Bill 714?

SENATOR FAWELL:

House Bill 714.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

It is my understanding, according to the Secretary, that the House sponsor had sent a letter to the Secretary of the Senate removing you as the -- as the sponsor, and in place substituting you with Senator Rock, and that is applicable under our Rules. Senator Fawell.

SENATOR FAWELL:

I thought that that had to be done within a certain period of time.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

Not at all.

SENATOR FAWELL:

Here we are, two days before the end of the Session, and all of a sudden, you know, I've lost a bill without even being

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

Well I won't -- I won't quarrel with you on that point. However, a sponsor is in control of his bill and the House sponsor wished to have -- changed sponsors. He sent a letter under our Rules to the Secretary of the Senate, and, in fact, replaced you. Now, I -- I can't -- you know, we don't require that you receive notice. Senator Fawell.

SENATOR FAWELL:

Well, don't you think it would have been nice if somebody had bothered? I mean, at least maybe the Secretary or the present sponsor had bothered to tell me.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

Well -- well, the Chair is not in a position this morning to state opinions with respect to -- to that question. Senator Geo-Karis.

SENATOR GEO-KARIS:

Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. I think -- Mr. President and Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, if there are going to be sponsors removed, I think it's common courtesy for the Chair, or the Office of the Chair, to notify the sponsor of the bill in advance before the removal comes as a shock and a surprise. I think it is only common courtesy.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

Senate Bill 990 was a technical issue of what I thought some importance, and you did, too, when it passed out of here almost unanimously. It said that in order to apply for a State position, you had to show you had registered for Selective Service. What the House amendment did was simply clarify the correct age bracket, so you don't include people who would not realistically be expected to register. I think it's very reasonable, and I would appreciate your -- I would ask the Senate to move to accept House Amendment No. 1.

SENATOR MAHAR:

Thank you, Mr. President and Members. House Bill 1017 amends the Illinois Emergency Services and Disaster Agency Act to expand the definition of the disaster to include telecommunications failure, which is the result of the problem of the fire that happened in Hinsdale, in my district, a year or so ago. It also establishes a State Emergency Response Committee within ESDA, and authorizes ESDA to promulgate rules regarding communications during a disaster. House Amendment No. 1 removes the exemption for local emergency planning committee members from civil liability for death of any person and damage to any property, while acting in the line of duty. . Senator Welch.

SENATOR WELCH:

Thank you, Mr. President. I would move to concur with the House Amendment No. 1 and No. 2. This will be final passage of the bill. The bill originally banned the use of chlorofluorocarbons. Those are used in your automobile air conditioner and other air conditioning units. They're sold over the counter. We wanted to ban the over-the-counter sale. But what we are doing instead is -- the House negotiations are entered into and we are going to ask the Department of Energy and Natural Resources to study the recovery and recycling of chlorofluorocarbons with a view towards passing legislation next year. So I would move to concur with House Amendment No. 1 and No. 2.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

Any Discussion? If not, the question is, shall the Senate concur with House Amendments 1 and 2 to Senate Bill 1043. Those in favor will vote Aye. Those opposed, Nay. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Take the record. On that question, the Ayes are 59, the Nays are none, none voting Present. The Senate does concur with House Amendments 1 and 2 to Senate Bill No. 1049, and the bill, having received the required constitutional majority, is declared passed. Senator Welch seeks leave of the Body to go to the Secretary's Desk, the Supplemental Calendar No. 1, the last Page, to non-concur in House Bill 2790. Is leave granted? Leave is granted. House Bill -- Senator Fawell, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR FAWELL:

I think, Senator, that you just gave the wrong number -- it was 1043, not 1049. You announced 1049. That's all.

SENATOR WELCH:

Thank you, Mr. President. I would refuse to recede from Senate Amendment No. 1, and the reason is that there is a drafting error in the agreement, and what we are going to do is form a Conference Committee just to correct the drafting error.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

Senator Rock, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR ROCK:

Could we have your attention, please? Ladies and Gentlemen, I would just remind you that tomorrow is the deadline, and under the new Rules we adopted after our somewhat lengthy earlier part of the Session, conference committee reports are supposed to be on our desks a full legislative day, so I would encourage all of you who are involved in conference committees to attempt to resolve those in the next few hours and -- file them today, so that we can act on them tomorrow, as I'm sure we want to act on all of them. The Appropriations Committee, again under the Rules change, will be afforded the opportunity to meet later today to discuss any conference committee reports with respect to appropriation bills, and the Rules Committee will also meet later today to discuss substantive bills, again under our Rules. So in order to facilitate and accommodate the Members who are involved in conference committees, I would move that we stand in Recess until the hour of three o'clock. We'll come back. If we have some work we can accomplish, we'll do it, and then we will remain open. We'll come back again at six for the purpose again of making sure that Members will be accommodated with respect to their conference committee reports. So I would move that we stand in Recess until three o'clock, Mr. Chairman.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)
