SENATOR PHILIP:

Thank you, Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. Ask that the record would indicate that Senator Raica is still in the hospital. Hopefully, he'll be with us next week. And Senator Friedland is home because of a death in his family.

PRESIDENT ROCK:

The record will so reflect. All right. Ladies and Gentlemen, I'm just going to keep it open a few more minutes to accommodate those Members who may still be around, and then we'll -- we have effectively adjourned until next Tuesday at the hour of noon. PRESIDENT ROCK:

During the course of this Session, I intend to turn the heat up - a lot, Howard. ...(at ease)... Further -- any further business to come before the Senate? If not, Senator Vadalabene moves that the Senate stand adjourned until next Tuesday. Tuesday at the hour of noon. Senate stands adjourned.
