Thank you, Mr. President. It's my privilege to introduce a special guest, and I hope a friend of all of ours here. If we could do that, folks, we could be up at the top of the ladder nationwide, if we could just keep our own athletes at home. Now, I'm sure Coach Mackovic will instruct us as to really what we can do on legislative scholarships, and on financial aid, and buying 'em coca colas, and this and that. But it is a real privilege to have Coach Mackovic here, who's also our athletic director. John.

COACH MACKOVIC:

Similar motion, Mr. President. I'd like to move to waive the posting notice for Senate Bills 268, 320, 1165 and 1320, so that they could be heard in the Senate Insurance, Pensions and Licensed Activities Committee next Tuesday at seven -- pardon me?

purpose do you arise?

When you were on Page 7, I was talking to the athletic director and missed moving 398 from 2nd to 3rd. There's no amendments, and if it's possible, I'd like to go back and do that.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

Well, there was a proposed amendment that we had on that one. All right. Senator Philip, for what purpose do you arise? Senator Philip.

SENATOR PHILIP:

For some -- whoa! Whoop! I'm -- I'm sorry. It's on now. I'm just wondering that -- Senator Madigan seems to have a problem posting bills in the Insurance and Licensed Activities Committee. And we try to bend over backwards to extend courtesy, but in that committee there doesn't seem to be much courtesy. And, quite frankly, I'd like to know the reasons that our Members can't even get their bills posted. In fact, Emil Jones was over here yesterday and asked me to - on his behalf - to take a pension bill for the City of Chicago and not have it go to committee; come on 2nd Reading. And I did it out of courtesy. Now my Members can't even get his bill posted, let alone heard? And, quite frankly, we ought to have a little courtesy from that chairman and that committee.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

Senator -- Senator Jones.

SENATOR JONES:

Thank you, Mr. President and Members of the Senate. In response to the -- the distinguished Minority Leader, I have - as chairman of that committee - I have always tried to be very fair and work with the minority spokesman of the committee, and usually when Members -- and when Members have bills they want posted, they will come to the committee chairman and say, will you kindly post my bill. Now, I don't want to post bills that Members aren't going to hear, because all it's going to do is tie up the committee room with a lot of personnel. I have no problem in posting bills. But I -- I talked to the minority spokesman yesterday, I talked to you, the Minority Leader, and I've always tried to be fair. You have a very able spokesperson in Senator Madigan. Now if there's some problems as it relate to the posting, I'm quite certain you, being a very, very congenial person, we can sit down and work out those problems. I see no problems. And no one -- I talked to the minority spokesperson this morning; he didn't indicate there was a problem. Because -- because not only -- not only are your -- some of your bills aren't posted, some Members on this side. I have -- gavel -- attention.

87th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

Excuse me.

SENATOR JONES:

I have gone through the over two hundred bills we had assigned to the committee. I have posted bills and I -- and Members never show up. They don't call and say, "Don't post the bill." I put them on Postponed Consideration. So I -- what I did, I waited to see whether or not they want the bills posted. Now, four-thirty yesterday was the deadline for posting for Tuesday. And I posted the bills. And I left off some because I felt the Members just put the bills in and didn't say anything. I had two or three of your bills in committee this past week. I know Representative Madigan had the one. Nothing was said on the other bill, so I assumed that the sponsor didn't want the bill heard.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

Well. Why don't -- let me make a suggestion. Why don't you go over and talk to the chairman about getting your bill posted, and I'm -- I -- I -- it sounded like to me like we could probably resolve this. Senator Philip.

STATE OF ILLINOIS

SENATOR PHILIP:

Thank -- thank you, Mr. President. I have been reliably informed that the minority spokesman, in more than one occasion, has asked the chairman to post bills. And for some reason, that request happens to get lost in the shuffle. And, quite frankly, we know what happens in that committee. We end up with -- with a so-called committee bill. Everything's lumped in. There's all kinds of funny things that go on in that committee, continually. And he continually is coming over to me - at least once a month, twice a month - wanting to not go through the committee, put it on 2nd Reading, and I have yet to say no to him once. And all I'm saying is we -- it's about time we had a little fairness. When the minority spokesman asks to have his bills posted, they ought to be posted.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

Senator Jones. Senator Jones.

SENATOR JONES:

As I indicated in my remarks and response, I have always -- and you have been very congenial. You have been very receptive. And I appreciate that. The Members of this Body appreciate that. Tuesday meeting is not the only meeting. So what I will do, I will talk to the minority spokesperson, and if there -- if there's a supplemental calendar needed to post the bills you want posted, I will do such. And that goes for Members on this side of the aisle equally as well. I don't want to clutter that committee room up with a lot of people, bills the sponsor don't even show up for. So I have no problems in working with Senator Madigan. He is a great leader, and I intend to work with him.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

Senator Madigan.

legitimate misunderstanding here. And I think probably the easiest way to accomplish this is, based upon what Senator --

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

Excuse me. Pardon me, Senator Madigan. I cannot hear you. Senator Madigan.

SENATOR MADIGAN:

Thank you. Just to conclude. Based upon what Chairman Jones has just said, I think we could solve this very easily if we would -- if I would defer to Chairman Jones, and he could make the Motion to Waive the Posting Requirements, and we've got this problem all solved. I have talked with the Chairman many times about these bills. Rather than go through all of this, I would be glad to defer to him to make the substitute Motion to Waive.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

Senator Jones. Ladies and Gentlemen, I'd like to resolve this. It is -- it is getting close to the time for the committees to start. Senator Jones.

SENATOR JONES:

Yes. As I indicated, there will be another meeting of the Insurance Committee. Now, I will talk to you, Senator Madigan. If we have to waive the posting requirements, you know, there's no problem whatsoever. I intend to take care of the minorities because I'm very sympathetic to the minorities.
