SENATOR SMITH:

Thank you, Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. And the -- Senator Luft is his Senator. We have -- we have the Al -- Reverend Alvin Wesley of Chicago, Illinois, who Reverend -- Senator Richard Newhouse is his Senator. And we have the Reverend Issac Singleton from Joliet, Illinois, in which Senator Tom Dunn is his State Senator. I repeat. Republican Caucus right after this morning's Session in Senator James "Pate" Philip's office. I don't care if he's not here yet. I know I have my orders.

SENATOR MAROVITZ:

Thank you very much, Senator Demuzio. Today we are privileged to have a very special individual in our Chamber. Chicago hasn't been the luckiest town in the world in regards to its sports teams, but we have been very lucky in regards to some of the great players in the history of the game. We're watching the greatest basketball player ever to put on a uniform, Number 23, Michael Jordan, at his peak right now. And I think many of us have had many, many years watching one of the greatest football players ever to play baseball -- ever to play football, excuse me, in the history of the National Football League. There's a lot of accolades that I could talk about this Gentleman. He's gained more yards than any player in the history of football. Ladies and Gentlemen, the greatest running back in the history of football -- Walter Payton.

SENATOR CARROLL:

Thank you, Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. The committee action on House Bill 375 was to basically take the areas in which there was agreement, when we had had the Senate version over, and take out of that those couple items that we passed already in emergency supplementals, to wit: the Department of Public Health and a portion of the Department of Children and Family Services. Taking those that have been approved by the Governor, reducing them down to the actual implementation date levels, so as to save as much as possible, adding to that the DCFS group care homes - and, yes, Senator Fawell, taking care of the problem with the constituent in your district. I would move adoption of Committee Amendment No. 1.

PRESIDENT ROCK:

Senator DeAngelis has moved the adoption of Amendment No. 5 to House Bill 375. Discussion? Senator Carroll.

SENATOR CARROLL:

With all due respect to the Marian Catholic High School and to Senator DeAngelis, I rise in strong opposition to this amendment. The Department of Commerce and Community Affairs has tourism promotion dollars. If they thought it was that important, they could have used those for this. We have long gotten out of the business of funding bands to various locations, particularly at a time when pharmacies are closing, hospitals are going unpaid, and nursing homes are about to close as well. I do not believe that we have the funds, truly, to do this, even though it's such a small amount, and would urge opposition to it.
