17th Legislative Day

March 4, 1993

Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President, I would like to announce that after the introduction of bills, which will be read in this morning, that the Senate stand in recess for a few minutes so that Rules Committee may assign those bills. Many of them are appropriation bills, which could be posted and heard next week.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Senator Weaver, we'll stand at ease for a few minutes for the purpose of the Rules Committee. Secondly, the -- the Chair would like to remind the Members that the last day for introduction of Senate bills is March 10th. We have a special guest here, and I'd like to recognize Senator Geo-Karis for the purpose of an introduction.

SENATOR GEO-KARIS:

Mr. President and Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, if I may have your attention. We have a very special guest here. He's a gentleman who was first elected after the revolution in Romania. His name is Petru Filip - P-E-T-R-U - Filip - F-I-L-I-P - and he is the Mayor of Oradea - O-R-A-D-E-A, Romania. Romania is a country of twenty-three million people, strategically placed at the border between Central and Eastern Europe, very rich in resources - has oil, minerals and a good industry and rich agricultural land. Although it was devastated by the foolish projects of the late dictator Ceausescu, Romania has no foreign debts, and it can become a very prosperous country. It has just signed an association treaty with the Common Market. Although its present government is rather to the left, the commitment to private economy and democracy is there, and it will not turn back. Oradea is a city of two hundred and thirty thousand people, located northwest of Romania, near the border of Hungary. Seventy percent of its population is Romanian; thirty percent is Hungarian and other ...(inaudible)... Agriculture used to be the strongest part of the city's economy, but now it has a large aluminum factory, chemistry plants and other modern industries. Some of them are already in partnership with Western European companies. The Mayor of Oradea is a young engineer, age forty-two. His name, as I said, is Petru Filip. He is a member of the Front of National Salvation, who split with President Iliescu a year ago. The Front of National Salvation Party considers themselves a center party and they seek alliance with the Liberal Party. The Mayor is concerned with the development of the infrastructure of his city. He's also interested to attract investments into Oradea companies and partnership for these companies. The Mayor is open to cooperation with different religious groups in the City of Oradea, and supports the building of new churches and Christian schools and institutions and missions. Mayor Petru Filip was brought here by Daniel Coltea - C-O-L-T-E-A, who is the head of ElectroCom GARD Ltd, and by Reverend Norman Schneller and also by Reverend Garrison from Zion. And at this time, I might tell you that we -- my seatmate happens to be of Romanian extraction, Senator Lauzen, who was able to speak the language with him. And at this time, I'd like you to -- like to introduce Mayor Petru Filip, the Mayor of Oradea, Romania, and let's welcome him here.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Introduction of Bills, and then the Senate will stand at ease for two minutes to allow the Rules Committee to meet in the Anteroom - for two minutes. So if everyone would sit in their seats till the Rules Committee proceeds. Thank you. Introduction of Bills.

SENATOR JONES:

STATE OF ILLINOIS

SENATE TRANSCRIPT

17th Legislative Day

March 4, 1993

Thank you, Mr. President. I move for the immediate consideration to suspend the appropriate rule for immediate consideration of Senate Joint -- Senate Resolution 134. Senate Joint <sic> Resolution 134, Mr. President, deals with a subject matter that we debated on the first day of Session, and what it does is require that the Rules Committee hold hearings on the amendments that myself and several Members have filed. As you know, we did ask for an Attorney General's opinion on the Rules, and the -- that attorney opinion -- Attorney General's opinion indicated that the Rules Committee, which is all powerful, which everything must go to it - motions, amendments and everything else - that the public is totally excluded from input. So what Senate Resolution 134 does is require that the Rules Committee hold hearings on the proposed changes to the Rules on or before March the 11th of next week. You indicated that you will be considering changes in the Rules; you will welcome any input. This is an opportunity for all Members on both sides of the aisle to have their input into the Rules which does not give the Body any opportunity to be heard. So, Mr. President, I move to suspend the appropriate rule for the immediate consideration of Senate Resolution 134.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Thank you, Senator Jones. Your motion is in order and is not debatable. And as you know, it takes thirty affirmative votes. Senator Jones has -- moves to suspend rules for the purpose of immediate consideration of Senate Resolution 134. I'm assuming you would like a roll call, Senator Jones. Senator Jones.

SENATOR JONES:

Mr. President, you indicated in your remarks as it relate to the motion on the -- to suspend the appropriate rule. Could you tell me which rule you are citing that says that the motion is not debatable?

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

1st Reading of the bills, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

We're just about ready to shut down. As you're aware, Senator Cullerton has requested a Democrat Caucus in the Minority Leader's Office immediately after Session. I would remind the Minority that we have committee hearings at 2 o'clock. So I hope that the caucus would not be too long. The business having been concluded today, Senator Weaver moves -- woop. Okay. Senator Hawkinson, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR HAWKINSON:

Purposes of an announcement, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

STATE OF ILLINOIS

SENATOR HAWKINSON:

Just to remind Members of the Judiciary Committee of the hearing, and for the Members on this side, we will try and start that hearing immediately upon the completion of the Democratic Caucus.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

All right. The -- Senator Weaver moves that the Senate stand adjourned until the hour of noon, Tuesday, March 9th. The -- the Senate does stand adjourned.
