

STATE OF ILLINOIS
88TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION
SENATE TRANSCRIPT

61st Legislative Day

May 26, 1993

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

The hour of noon having arrived, the Senate will please come to order. Will our Members please stand, and our friends in the gallery please rise for the prayer. The prayer today is by Reverend Andreasen, Faith Assembly of God, Lincoln, Illinois. Reverend.

THE REVEREND DAVID ANDREASEN:

(Prayer by the Reverend David Andreasen)

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

...(microphone cutoff)...just like to give the Membership a little comparison - a little historical perspective. If you would look at June 28th, 1991, which I have done, we had on concurrences, a hundred and ninety-three bills; on non-concurrences, sixty-five. That's two hundred and fifty-eight separate pieces of legislation. Today, happy to report to you, May 26th, we have on concurrence, four bills; on non-concurrence, nine. A total of thirteen. Want to compliment the Members. We're in better shape than we have ever been. We are still negotiating with the Governor and the City of Chicago. Hopefully, we can come to some conclusion, if it -- if it -- if we could get some -- a little more cooperation from the City of Chicago, we could get out of here. Let's hope that they have gotten the message. Reading of the Journal. Senator Butler.

SENATOR BUTLER:

Mr. President, I move that reading and approval of the Journals of Wednesday, May 19th; Thursday, May 20th; Friday, May 21st; Sunday, May 23rd; Monday, May 24th; and Tuesday, May 25th, in the year 1993, be postponed, pending arrival of the printed Journal.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Senator Butler moves to postpone the reading and the approval of the Journal, pending the arrival of the printed transcript.

SECRETARY HARRY:

House Amendment 1 to Senate Bill 25.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR MAITLAND)

Senator Cullerton.

SENATOR CULLERTON:

Thank you, Mr. President, Members of the Senate. I would move to concur with House Amendment No. 25 <sic> (No.1). The House did delete the bill that we passed over to them, which dealt with parking tickets and allowing for some cost to be recouped by a person who appeals a parking ticket and who wins. They did cut that out; however, they did provide some relief, with regard to the issue of parking tickets, in their amendment. And I would think that it would be a good idea to approve of it. The parking adjudication law, which allows for the cities of our State to have administrative adjudications of parking violations, provides, in part, that when -- when someone has ten or more parking violations, a notice of an impending driver's license suspension is sent to them. And what this amendment does is to say that that notice shall also state that the person may obtain a photostatic copy of an original ticket that imposes a fine or a penalty, by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to the municipality, along with a request for the -- photostatic copy. So this may be of some assistance to a person who feels that they were the wrong person to have received a -- a parking ticket. So, for that reason, I think it is a good addition, and would be happy to answer any questions, and move that we concur in the House amendment.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR MAITLAND)

Is there discussion? Is there discussion? The question is, -- this is final action, Ladies and Gentlemen. The question is, shall the Senate concur in House Amendment No. 1 to Senate Bill 25. Those in favor will vote Aye. Opposed, -- Nay. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Take the record, Mr. Secretary. On that question, there are 56 Ayes, 1 Nay, no Members voting Present. The Senate does concur in House Amendment No. 1 to Senate Bill 25, and the bill, having received the required constitutional majority, is declared passed. Senate Bill 207. Senator Cullerton. SECRETARY HARRY:

House Amendment 2 to Senate Bill 650.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR MAITLAND)

Senator Cullerton.

SENATOR CULLERTON:

Thank you, Mr. President, Members of the Senate. The bill makes a number of changes regarding the termination of the right of possession after a foreclosure sale. The amendment that the House put on was really a very minor amendment. It changes the definition of occupant to be a person in lawful physical possession, rather than just physical possession. And so, it clarifies that the rights of occupants apply to those in lawful possession versus adverse possession. I believe it's very -- a noncontroversial amendment, and I would move that we concur in it. It's a very good bill.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR MAITLAND)

Is there discussion? Is there discussion? Senator Cullerton moves concurrence in House Amendment No. 2 to Senate Bill 650. This is final action, Ladies and Gentlemen. Those in favor will vote Aye. Opposed, Nay. The voting is open. Have all voted who
