PRESIDENT PHILIP:

...Sieben, for what purpose do you rise? State your point. I -- evidently his microphone is not turned on. Well, we lost a microphone - probably won't be the first one today. Senator Sieben.

SENATOR SIEBEN:

Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I do rise for the -- Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate...

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Senator Sieben, I think this is the Senate, but...

SENATOR SIEBEN:

Yes, sir. Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, and now that I have your attention, I rise for the purpose of a very important announcement today. My colleague, who normally sits right in front of me here in the Senate chamber and also shares the office next to mine down on M Floor, Senator Bill -- Bill Peterson, passed a very significant milestone last Friday, February 2nd, when he turned -- he's getting close, though. He's passing a lot of things, but he did pass a milestone reaching his sixtieth birthday last Friday, February 2nd. If you stop by his office, I think he has some cake for you, and he may want to make a comment about how he feels today.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Senator Peterson. You old guy, you.

SENATOR PETERSON:

Thank you, Mr. President. I do have cake and coffee down in my office, in M122, and you're all welcome to come down and have some after you learn how to use these laptop computers. You're going to burn a lot of energy learning about these laptop computers, so you'll need some -- some sustenance when you finish. So thank you very much, Senator Sieben, and thank you all for your -- your congratulations on my birthday. Thank you.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Senator Maitland.

SENATOR MAITLAND:

Thank you, Mr. President. I rise on a point of personal privilege, sir. I want to -- I want to introduce a very special guest to the Senate today who's on the Floor. If I could have your attention please. I want to introduce to the Senate this afternoon Cinnamon, who is obviously a teddy bear, but more importantly, he's an honorary Senator today. He's a student at Trinity Lutheran Grade School in Bloomington, and each week -- each week he travels with a different person in the community, and this week it's my privilege to have Cinnamon with me. And I'm taking pictures of Cinnamon at different places where I will be attending this week. At the end of the week, I will do a chronology of -- of my activities for the entire week, and then next week Cinnamon will go back to his second-grade class and -- and tell them what Senator Maitland did in -- in Springfield this week. He was a guest in the Leadership meeting this afternoon, and Senator Philip gave him instructions on how to be a good leader in the General Assembly. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Resolutions.

SECRETARY HARRY:

Senate Resolution 154, offered by Senator Shaw and all Members.

And Senate Resolution 155, offered by Senators Hawkinson, Shadid and all Members.

They're both death resolutions, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Consent Calendar.

SECRETARY HARRY:

And Senate Joint Resolution 75, offered by Senator Woodyard. It's substantive.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Senator Dudycz, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR DUDYCZ:

Thank you, Mr. President. On a point of personal privilege.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

State your point.

SENATOR DUDYCZ:

I would just like to briefly remind the Members of the Body that today also is a -- a very important day to the -- to our country. It is the eighty-fifth birthday of former President Ronald Reagan, and we all wish him well and a speedy recovery from his illness and long life and happiness. And happy birthday, former President Ronald Reagan, on his eighty-fifth birthday.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Senator Jones, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR JONES:

Thank you -- thank you, Mr. President. You know, I was sitting in my office and waiting for Session to come in, along with some of the other Members in the Leadership office, and we were totally unaware, for the last fifteen minutes, that we were in Session because the speaker system is not working. Furthermore -- furthermore, when we go in Session, I wish we would just ring the bell. If the bell is rung then perhaps some Members can hear that. But we were sitting there and Senator Demuzio came in, said, "Well, I'm still waiting for Session to come in." Not knowing that the speaker system is not working.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Senator -- Jones, your -- your comments are certainly in order. Let me suggest this: I rang the bell, myself, three times. And I'm sorry about the -- the PA system in the office, but I rang the bell, myself, three times. Senator Jones.

SENATOR JONES:

Only thing -- only thing I'm pointing out to you is that in the Leadership office there, that I'm not the only one there. Senator Vince Demuzio came in and said, "When we going in?" Well, I said, "I'm waiting for us to go in Session." And -- and Senator Cullerton's office, it's not working. So, therefore, Members who want to be here in Session are unaware that Session is starting. That's the only thing I'm saying.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Point well-taken, Senator. The Senate will be in recess until the call of the Chair. The Chair directs the Sergeant-at-Arms and the doorkeepers to request all persons except designated staff to retire from the Chamber. This includes the galleries, the press boxes and the side hallways. The Chair yields to Mr. Secretary. Senator Rauschenberger, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR RAUSCHENBERGER:

For purposes of an announcement.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Make -- state your announcement.

SENATOR RAUSCHENBERGER:

I'd just like to advise all the Senators on Appropriation and the Body that the Appropriation Committee expects to meet today at 2 o'clock. We just have a few bills to consider, and I expect the meeting will last close to an hour and a half, maybe a little bit less, depending upon how much talking we do. So I just want to remind everybody: 2:12, 2 o'clock. Thank you.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Senator DeAngelis, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR DeANGELIS:

On a point of personal privilege.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

State your point.

SENATOR DeANGELIS:

Seated in the gallery behind the Republican part of the Senate, are the students from Illiana High School -- Illiana Christian High School and their instructor, Mr. Light. I would like for them to please stand and be recognized.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Senator Peterson, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR PETERSON:

Thank you, Mr. President. For the purposes of an announcement. I would like the Body to know that the Revenue Committee will not meet on Thursday at 9 a.m. The committee meeting has been canceled. The Revenue Committee meeting for Thursday has been canceled.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Senator Cronin, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR CRONIN:

Thank you, Mr. President. For purposes of an announcement. The Senate Education Committee will meet at 2 o'clock today. We will hear from our State Superintendent about the school

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

...the Sergeant-at-Arms and the staff would please clear the Floor, we will get on with our program for the rest -- for the next hour, I guess. That includes the media. If the media would please leave the Chamber, we'd appreciate it. Will the Chamber please settle down now, so we can get this program on the road. Mr. Secretary.
