very important statement.

SENATOR CARROLL:

Thank you...

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR GEO-KARIS)

May we please have your attention?

SENATOR CARROLL:

Thank you so much, Madam President. And as you know, having been there all these years yourself at this important day, the Governor convened, again, a Day of Remembrance for the victims of the Holocaust, at the Old State Capitol Building in Springfield. Once again, this was a very historic occasion, to be in the building where Lincoln worked as a Member of the Illinois General Assembly and to remember those who perished during World War II, both Jew and Gentile alike. Let me just take a moment, if I might, to bring to your attention a small part of that ceremony, as I said, at which the Governor spoke. Representatives of all faiths were there doing presentations. But most importantly, probably, a victim of the Holocaust spoke, an elderly gentleman by the name of Adam Starkopf, who I have known for maybe thirty years, who had a very interesting life. And while he said time did not permit that -- for him to take us through all of the experience he had had, he had been twice arrested and jailed during the early part of the Holocaust, in 1939 and again in '41, when living in Warsaw, in Poland. But he mentioned the fact that this is all about the children, and that's what his goal was as a victim, and his goal today, to teach others, and told the story of during his second arrest, he was in the jails of Warsaw when he knew that the Nazis were coming in to move the prisoners to the concentration camps. And they knew from past experience that they would bring trucks to the hospitals and to the schools and to the kindergartens and to the prisons, take the healthy ones to the camps and -- and take the less-than-healthy directly to the Jewish cemetery, where they would be mass-murdered and -- and dropped into mass graves of three and four hundred at a time. Knowing there would be some confusion at the prison, he and a few others, when they got to the yard, as the trucks pulled up, for his second time, he escaped from the prisons of Warsaw and got back into the ghetto to get to his family and his year-and-a-half-year-old daughter. A friend of his was a doctor who lived in the next apartment, and he convinced that doctor as the only way to save his child was to inject her with a medication that would slow down the heart rate and make it look as if she had died. And he got a casket, and they gave the girl the shot and they, then, presented to the Nazis as if she were dead. They put her in a shroud, put her in this casket, and started a funeral procession to the Jewish cemetery. He, of course, had to stay in hiding, and his wife took this child, in the casket, to the cemetery. When they got to the cemetery, though the gravediggers were all Jewish, they had said we will not -- we're not allowed to do ritual burials, so we will place her in the mass grave. And the mother then said, in Yiddish, to these undertakers, "Please, don't. She's really alive." The Nazis came and wanted to inspect the casket. And as they went to open the casket, she thought quickly and said, "My daughter died of typhoid fever." And they were afraid, therefore, to open the casket, for fear of contamination. So the -- the gravediggers took this casket into what had been, before the war, a ritual cleaning room. They weren't allowed to use it anymore, because they weren't allowed to do any ritual funerals. And they took the casket in there. The Nazis then left. They took the girl out and waited till that evening when the medication wore off and the father was able to smuggle his way in and smuggle the two of them out to an area seventy-five miles away, where he had made prearrangements, through righteous Gentiles, to live as a Pole for the remainder of the war. These righteous Gentiles, Polish people, had given him forged passports and documents, and he moved his wife and, now, alive child to this location, where they stayed for two years till they were, in fact, liberated by the -- in that case, the Russian Army. But he went back to the ghetto three nights after escaping, through the cemetery, back through the Wall, to try and save his parents and his in-laws. When he got there, he found that the building in which he lived and in which they had a bunker where they were hiding the parents and the in-laws had burned down. Two of the parents, one of his and one his wife's, had been taken to the concentration camp and never seen again. The other two perished at the time of the fire. And he said to us in that room, and to the Governor, the importance of the lesson was, it was worth everything to save one child. It might have been his, it might have been someone else's, but that that was the lesson of the Holocaust: that there are righteous people of all faiths that will help those in time of need, and what we must teach our children is to never forget. Thank you, Madam President.

of you will have a chance to partake of the good sounds. Thank you.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR GEO-KARIS)

(Remarks by Senator Geo-Karis in Spanish) Senator Jacobs, for what purpose do you rise, sir?

SENATOR JACOBS:

Thank you, Madam President. Two points. I wish that Senator Garcia would have repeated that in -- in Spanish, so we could all get our names, maybe, in the Wall Street Journal, which he did very nicely. But I have a point of parliamentary procedure, Madam President.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR GEO-KARIS)

State your point.

SENATOR JACOBS:

I know our normal procedure is to wait until these motions are placed on the Calendar, but I have put in a motion in writing to move for immediate consideration that the six-day posting notice required in Senate Rule 3-11(e) and any other applicable rule be suspended, in order for the following House bills to be posted on May 8th, 1997. And the only reason I make this request, Madam President, is because these bills were left -- let out of Rules on Thursday, which would not have met our normal hearing time, but because the meeting is recessed until tomorrow, we feel that it does meet the six-day posting requirement and would like to have these bills heard as soon as possible.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR GEO-KARIS)

At this time, I have to rule that we have to finish the Order of 2nd Reading, and we have to finish this Order first, before we do anything else. Senator Jacobs.

SENATOR JACOBS:

And inasmuch as I don't participate in exercise -- exercises in futility, I will not make an attempt to override the ruling of

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR GEO-KARIS)

Senator Jacobs, for what purpose do you rise, sir?

SENATOR JACOBS:

Thank you, Madam President. Earlier, whenever I brought up my motion, I think that you said something about after we got through with 2nd Readings, we would address the motion. And let me just reiterate that Friday is the last day to get bills out of Rules -- I mean - excuse me - to have bills out of committee, and inasmuch as these bills were let out of Rules last Thursday, subject to posting, we feel the six-day requirement has been met, and because of -- of the time restraints, I'm asking for a setting-aside of the rules, if you will, in order to be able to allow us to consider the motion now, rather than waiting until it comes on the -- the Calendar tomorrow. We feel that they're bills that have been let out of Rules, they should have the opportunity to be heard.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR GEO-KARIS)

Mr. Secretary, have there been any motions filed?

SECRETARY HARRY:

Yes, Madam President. Senator Weaver has filed a motion with respect to Senate Bills 664, 686, 912, 922, 4, 132, 141, 182, 198, 203, 239, 438, 459, 467, 522, 568, 608, 666, 675, 712, 716, 737, 740, 890, 959, 1005, 1007, 1010, 1011, 1017, 1032, 1043, 1045, 1100, 1108, 1133, 1134, 1135 and 1177, and Senate Bills 85, 211, 443, 501, 657 and 1172. Senator Jacobs has filed a motion with respect to House Bills 7, 333, 372, 409, 579, 776, 781, 784, 829 and 1302.

Mr. Secretary, the Chair requests that these motions be printed on the Calendar. So ordered. Resolutions.

SECRETARY HARRY:

Senate Joint Resolution 34, offered by Senator Jones.
It's substantive.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR GEO-KARIS)

Senator Jacobs, for what purpose do you rise, sir?

SENATOR JACOBS:

Yes. Thank you, Madam President. Not to belabor the point, but just so we have a clarification. I guess the Chair has ruled that immediate consideration of these bills is not in order. Is that correct?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR GEO-KARIS)

You are correct.

SENATOR JACOBS:

Thank you.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR GEO-KARIS)

Senator Klemm, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR KLEMM:

For the purposes of an announcement, Madam President.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR GEO-KARIS)

Senator Klemm has an announcement. Please listen.

SENATOR KLEMM:

Well, I just want to announce that the Senate Executive Committee will be meeting immediately upon adjournment in Room 212. We do have a heavy schedule, so I hope you all will be there promptly. Thank you.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR GEO-KARIS)

All right. Senator Fitzgerald, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR FITZGERALD:

I'd like to announce that the State Government Operations Committee will be holding a hearing - a committee meeting - right after we adjourn here today. Our hearing is in Room A-1 over in the Stratton Building. Thank you.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR GEO-KARIS)

Thank you, Senator Fitzgerald. Senator Demuzio, for what purpose do you rise, sir?

SENATOR DEMUZIO:

An inquiry of the Chair, if I might. I notice that we have, indeed, added Monday to the schedule, and it's my understanding that we're coming in at 3 o'clock on Monday. And I would inquire of the Chair as to -- a number of Members have made previous commitments, and I'm wondering will there be any recorded roll calls, or what business will we be transacting on Monday the 12th, for the edification of the Members?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR GEO-KARIS)

My understanding, Senator Demuzio -- I'm just as surprised as you are. My understanding is, however, that we will be in Session - regular Session - at 3 p.m. - Is that correct? - Monday, May 12th, which was not on the original schedule, as you and I both know, but it is on a schedule now. Senator Demuzio.

SENATOR DEMUZIO:

Thank you very much for reiterating just exactly what I inquired about. But will there be any roll calls? We'll be conducting business? We'll be in -- in Session for any length of period of time?
