Senator Bomke, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR BOMKE:

Thank you, Mr. President. A point of personal privilege.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR WELCH)

State your point.

SENATOR BOMKE:

Have with me a Page, Lauren Formigoni, who happens to be the niece of staffers on the Republican side, Ron Wilson. Lauren is from Chatham.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR WELCH)

Welcome to Springfield, Lauren. Senator Rutherford, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR RUTHERFORD:

Mr. President, thank you. On a point of personal privilege, if I may.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR WELCH)

State your point.

SENATOR RUTHERFORD:

You know, it's really an exciting time for young people to come to see their government in action here at the State Capitol, and we are once again joined by a grade school group, visiting from Livingston County, the small town of Saunemin. Their grade school is here, and one of their instructors also happens to be the mayor of that community and a good longtime friend of the Republican Leader, Frank Watson. Would the Senate please welcome the grade school from Saunemin?

Would you please rise and be recognized by the Senate? Welcome to Springfield. Madam Secretary, 1st Readings, House Bills.

The Senate Executive Committee - the Senate Executive Committee - will meet at 2:15 this afternoon, as opposed to 1 o'clock.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR WELCH)

Ladies and Gentlemen, as a point of information, all the committees will be pushed back, probably about an hour. We will make new announcements. They will still be held, but they'll be moved back, as Senator Silverstein indicated his was moved back from 1 o'clock to 2:15. Senator Cullerton, I would like to invite you and your guest to come to the Podium.

SENATOR CULLERTON:

Thank you, Mr. President. We have a announcement, a presentation. You may recall that we had recently a -- our annual softball game with the House and the Senate. It's actually sponsored by the St. Louis Regional Chamber and Growth Association. They've done this for -- for years, and as long as I've been here, as long as we can remember, we've had this softball game, and during that game, we have raised money. It used to be we sold tickets to the game, and -- and as all of you Senators know, we were -- it's evolved so that now we've collected money from each Senator, both -- both sides of the aisle. And we have chosen in the past, a local charity to present this money to, and we've done that again this year. And actually, what we've done is we've collected five hundred and ninety dollars, ten dollars from each Senator, and then Senator DeLeo, who, as you probably know, is one of the wealthier Senators here, decided he wanted to come up with an extra two hundred and ninety-five dollars, and then he kind of challenged me to do the same. So, although I'm not as wealthy, I came up with the two hundred and ninety-five dollars. So, we've matched it, so we've got five hundred and ninety times two, whatever that is. And -- so this bill be going to a local charity, Contact Ministries, and we have Barbara Turner, who's here to accept it and tell us just a little bit about what her charity does. Barb, here's the money, first. Let's -- let's give her a round of applause for the work she does.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR WELCH)

Senator Geo-Karis, what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR GEO-KARIS:

Mr. President and Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, last night the Conference of Women Legislators put on...

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR WELCH)

Could we please have a little quiet for Senator Geo-Karis' announcement?

SENATOR GEO-KARIS:

The Conference of Women Legislators put on what was known as the "Capitol Capers", relative to the "Changing of the Guard". I want to tell you that I was very pleased to see over six hundred people attend this reception and skit. Skit was very well done. We had a couple of our stars from here, like David Syverson was one the fellows who stole part of the show; Rickey Hendon, of course, who can never be stopped; Carol Ronen, who sang lustily, just like I did; and Jacqui Collins, who sang very well, too, and participated in the skits; and a number of others that I'm probably forgetting to mention. But I want to tell you, it was done in very good taste, and I certainly commend Pat Lindner, who imitated our State Treasurer to a tee and, of course, Barbara Currie -- Flynn Currie, the Assistant Majority Leader of the House, who did herself to a tee. And it was a fun evening. It was well worth it. And the COWL - Conference of Women Legislators - are awarding ten twenty-five-hundred-dollar scholarships to worthy recipients and they're also giving ten thousand dollars to a very good charitable cause. So, the money that you spent going to the affair was well worth it, and I want to congratulate the people who were sponsors. And I want to congratulate the whole crew that worked so hard on "Capitol Capers" in "Changing of the Guard", and I might say there was more tending toward Democrat, even though the -- the -- the directors are Republican. But anyway, it was good. It was in good taste and well worth it. So, keep supporting the Conference of Women Legislators, and God bless 'em all.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR WELCH)

Thank you, Senator Geo-Karis. House Bills 1st Reading.
