Yes, thank you very much, Mr. President. And I am very honored today to introduce to you Governor Mutsindashyaka of the -- Governor of the Eastern Province of the Republic of Rwanda, and some of the local officials from Rwanda, and a Food for the Hungry delegation. Food for the Hungry works in more than forty-five developing countries, providing disaster and emergency relief, but they also work to implement sustainable development programs to help transform communities. I am pleased that my hometown of Greenville and Greenville College is involved with the organization and the exploration of this new partnerships. The -- the Country Director for the Food and Hungry program in Rwanda and Burundi is -- is Dwight Jackson. Dwight, former faculty member at Greenville College, and he's with the group today, along with Dan Jewett, who is a businessman from Greenville. Dan, please raise your hand. And Jill Franks. Jill is the County Board Chairwoman of Bond County. And it was Dwight who said to me that Rwanda needs what Bond County knows. And Rwanda is the "Land of a Thousand Hills"; it's landlocked, rural community of about ninety percent of its eight million people engaged mainly in what we would consider to be subsistence agriculture. So what better place for these elected officials and governmental representatives to come than to the heartland of the United States, right here in Illinois, to discuss agriculture and agribusiness. Since arriving on Thursday evening, the Governor and his delegation and traveling -- party have attended a seminar focusing on how agribusiness, farmers and government work together for agriculture development. They have toured and seen seed companies and met with nonprofit organizations. Today, the delegation met with members of the Senate Agriculture Committee and Legislators engaged in international business interests. And I'm -- thank our Members for taking the time to visit with them. So I'm pleased to introduce to you Governor Mutsindashyaka and -- who will introduce his traveling partners and share a few words with you. Thank you very much.

Thank you. 3rd Reading. Senator Hendon, for what purpose you seek recognition, sir? Senator Hendon.

SENATOR HENDON:

Thank you, Mr. President. You know the annual House/Senate softball game is next week. And since we have one of the House chickens on the Senate Floor, former Senator Bobby Molaro, now a Member of the lower Chamber, in the House - he's no longer a Member of the upper Chamber, the "House of Lords" - I thought it would be an appropriate time to announce softball practice today. We know the House Members are in their offices cowered around their little speakers, listening to us right now, but one of 'em happens to be on the Floor and he happens to play for the House - not that good, I might add - but he happens to be the pitcher for the House. So we're going to make sure that while Bobby Molaro is here, he will know that next week we will knock his balls out of the park. We will bring the trophy back to the Senate where it belongs. So today, boys and girls, men and women of the Senate, practice in Lincoln Park, straight down 5th Avenue {sic}, exactly where the game is going to be, 5:30. We have to return to our true position as the authorities around here, the rulers of Springfield. We must defeat the House this year. Now some of you rookies have never been out there, like Kotowski, and Frerichs, we got a few. We want to see what you can do - Bond - we want to see what you can do. We got a good firm team this year, bipartisan, male and female. I also have the yearbook here, goes back. You got Adeline Geo-Karis in a miniskirt. You got Pate Philip in some Speedos in here. You want to look through this book. You need to understand the fine tradition in the Senate. And next week, on the 23rd, we will beat the House in our annual softball team or die trying. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DeLEO)

Very happy birthday, Senator Wilhelmi. Very, very happy birthday from the entire Senate. Senator Koehler, for what purpose you seek recognition, sir?

SENATOR KOEHLER:

Point of personal privilege, Mr. Chair.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DeLEO)

State your point, sir.

SENATOR KOEHLER:

Since we're talking about birthdays, I wonder if I could mention - and I was going to try to introduce the former Senator from the 46th District - George Shadid has his seventy-eighth birthday today - but he's not here. So if you have his cell phone, please call him.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DeLEO)

We'd like to wish Senator -- former Senator George Shadid a very happy seventy-eighth birthday. If you can hear us, George, happy birthday. Senator Link, for what purpose do you rise, sir?

SENATOR LINK:

Thank you, Mr. President. I would request a Democratic Caucus in the President's Office immediately, and I know Senator Shadid would still be late for that one even though it's his birthday. Thank you.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DeLEO)

Okay. Ladies and Gentlemen, the Senate Democrats have requested a caucus immediately. That request is always in order.

All members of Senate Democrat -- report to Senator Emil Jones' Office immediately for a caucus. Senator Righter, for what purpose do you seek recognition, sir?

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Thank you, Mr. President. The Senate Republicans would request a caucus immediately in Senator Watson's Office. We'd request about thirty minutes. It's my understanding that's about how long you are anticipating for yours, Mr. President.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DeLEO)

That's correct.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Thank you.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DeLEO)

Senator Righter has asked for a Republican Caucus. That request is always in order. Senate Republicans will meet immediately in Leader Watson's Office for a Republican Caucus. We will stand at recess to the call of the Chair and hopefully we will be back here about the hour of 2 o'clock. The Senate stands in recess till call of the Chair.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

Senator Wilhelmi.

SENATOR WILHELMI:

Thank you, Madam President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. House Bill 6 describes that within the crime of stalking, it would expand the definition of "places a person under surveillance" to include placing an electronic tracking device on the person or the person's property. This bill stems out of a situation where a spouse in a divorce proceeding had a tracking device put onto her vehicle and that would allow that person to be tracked electronically. We think that under the definition of "places a person under surveillance", it should not only be physical, but it also should be electronic. I'd be happy to answer any questions, and I ask for an Aye vote.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

Is there any discussion? Senator Millner.

SENATOR MILLNER:

Thank you, Madam President. I rise in support of the bill, as it also unanimously came out of our committee.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

Is there any other discussion? Seeing none, the question is, shall House Bill 6 pass. Those in favor will vote Aye. Opposed, Nay. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Take the record. On that question, there are 58 Yeas, none voting Nay, none voting Present. And House Bill 6, having received the required constitutional majority, is declared passed. Senator Link, on House Bill 32. Mr. Secretary, read the bill.

SENATOR BURZYNSKI:

Thank you. Senator, I -- I noticed on my analysis that the Republicans were not in support of this. Can you tell me why?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

Senator Link.

SENATOR LINK:

It surprises me that they would never be in support. I don't know why. But I think the reason that they took their support, and I don't think it -- that they weren't in support, they voted Present in committee, and the reason we did is that we changed back the chargeback part of it. And that's the reason they voted Present on it.

SENATOR WILHELMI:

Thank you, Madam President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. House Bill 33 would require the Department of Natural Resources to establish specifications for signs and devices that provide warning to persons using public waterways. DNR will also be required to establish State safety standards for dams that are not subject to federal regulation regarding safety. It also authorizes DNR to enforce exclusion zones around dams that will result in violations being a Class A misdemeanor. Many of you may have read some of the terrible, tragic deaths that occurred in some of our dams - one in the -- Yorkville area, also one in the Wilmington area. These dams are dangerous. We need to give signage and notification to people to let them know how dangerous these dams are. I'd be happy to answer any questions, and I ask

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

SENATOR HENDON:

Well, I'm glad you are not asking about my personal health, but let me let you know, I am one hundred percent in good health. In fact, you will see when we play the House in the softball game, I'm all that and a box of crackers, so I'm ready to go. But some men have problems with their health that they don't like discussing or going to the doctor about - prostrate {sic} and other things - and this will just have one person designated in the Department of Public Health to help men with those issues.

Senator, in the committee discussion, I think the point was brought up that - just like you replied to Senator Righter, that you feel good - men feel good, so they don't go to the doctor, they don't get -- regular checkups, they don't anticipate something ahead until they don't feel good. And I thought one of the purposes of this bill was to encourage men to go and get those annual checkups every year, even though they're feeling

Senator Hendon.

SENATOR HENDON:

Yes, Senator Pankau. I'm glad you brought that up. You are absolutely right. There will be more information out there for men, more information to get them to go and get themselves checked out no matter how they're feeling. And we believe that this -- getting the information to them and giving them more dialogue, brochures and that kind of thing will help -- would help men a lot get past that macho roadblock that they have when it comes to our health.

Senator, you're proposing making a change that would allow a -- the accounting systems for schools are set up in a very specific way. This is a very major change that would allow transfers to take place among all these funds. This is not something that is some kind of ancient history. We're about to change it, if this goes through, in a very dramatic way. Could you give us some of your thoughts about -- it's been one way for many years and maybe it's time that we change it. But why was it set up the way of having separate funds? Now they'll be able to transfer. Right? This is a major change, I think, and so I'm asking you to give us some guidance.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

Senator Noland.

SENATOR NOLAND:

To speak directly to your question, Senator. First of all, this would only extend the deadline by three years, to June 30th, 2010. So this -- this bill does sunset. Now the -- the three funds that we're -- we're discussing here are still subject to local hearing review. So the local control is still in effect. This is not something that is necessarily -- sanctioned -- at the State level regarding the transfers. So there are no wholesale transfers between these funds, you know, from the -- at the State level, but they are a matter of local discretion.

Thank you, Madam President. To the bill: The bill came through Energy and Environment. There was one No vote. There was a little bit of concern. One of the concerns is about the -- the fund has been swept before. The West Nile portion of it has not been swept, but the -- the tire fund has been swept. And there was a real question about, with sweeping of the funds, why couldn't we just leave the funds in place and then maybe not have to have this increase. But in any case, it is a worthwhile thing to do. We need to continue to fight West Nile virus, and so I urge an Aye vote.

SENATOR E. JONES:

Thank you, Madam President. House Bill 426 is the change in our primary date for the State of Illinois. It changes the primary date to Tuesday, February the 3rd, {sic} (5th). And that primary date will put us in concert with many other states across this nation, so that the voters of Illinois will have an impact as to who their nominees shall be for our respective parties. Also included in Senate -- House Bill 426 is a provision that requires the State Board of Election to certify Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates for the Republican Party, so that they will be able to appear on the November election, in the event they have a candidate. And it changes our -- our filing reports for our campaign finance reports. It moves it up eleven days, to July the 20th and January the 20th. And also it -- it changes the date for our contributions over five hundred dollars. So it will be -- will be replaced by pre-election reports for general primary election between January -- January 1 and the primary election. And as it -- as it relate to printing and mailing by Members of the General Assembly, that date is also changed, which will impact how you send out brochures as it relate to State-paid brochures as it relate to the election. That's what it does basically. It put the -- it -- it puts Illinois voters in position wherein they can determine who those candidates shall be, and I'll answer any questions you may have.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

Is there any discussion? Senator Righter.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Thank you, Madam President. To the bill, please.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

...bill.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Thank you. Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, I know we're going to blow through a lot of bills on the Calendar today. I think this is clearly the most significant one we're going to see, not just today, but at least certainly this week as well. This is about changing the process by which we pick our elected leaders. And I just want to review for a minute what it is we're doing, what it is we hear from home, from our constituents, about elections, and how we're responding to that. First of all, the system of elections is a public process. It exists for the public good. And if we strip away the varnish that's kind of been put on here in the last few months in the debate on this issue, we'll recall that this -- or, this matter finds its origin in a speech that was made on the House Floor, over in another Chamber, on the day the General Assembly -- the new General Assembly was sworn in by the Speaker of the House, who said he thought it was a good idea for us to move the primary forward in order to give a candidate of one party a better opportunity to seize his party's nomination for President. And let's not kid

STATE OF ILLINOIS
95th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION
SENATE TRANSCRIPT

39th Legislative Day

5/15/2007

ourselves. That's where this idea started. I think it's a bad idea to move a public process for one person. Secondly, Ladies and Gentlemen, back home, what do our constituents tell us about campaigns? They tell us they're too expensive and they get tired of getting hitting -- hit up for campaign money all the time. This will make campaigns more expensive. And they get tired of hearing the negative TV ads month after month, after month, after month. This will make those campaigns longer. Ladies and Gentlemen, this bill will make it more likely that your constituents and mine are getting negative mail pieces in their mailboxes and pulling those out with their Christmas cards. Is that what we want to do for constituents? I don't think that's what we want to do for our constituents. Madam President, there's been a lot of rhetoric about Illinois needs to move to the front because we need to be players in the Presidential primary system. But if you'll take a look, there are a long list of states that have already decided to move theirs forward not just to this day, but ahead of this day as well. If our goal is to try to be at the forefront, then we are running a race that has no finish line, whatsoever, and we will continue to move this process forward and forward. And that may make us feel better about ourselves. It may make us feel a little better about some of the candidates we're supporting, but it will be a tremendous disservice to our constituents. For those reasons, I urge a No vote. Thank you, Madam President.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

Senator Lauzen.

SENATOR LAUZEN:

Thank you, Madam President. You know, I certainly

STATE OF ILLINOIS
95th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION
SENATE TRANSCRIPT

39th Legislative Day

5/15/2007

appreciate the desire of some folks to leapfrog forward so that primary votes, especially in Presidential elections, count for more. But I -- I have to agree with the previous speaker that when we listen to what our constituents tell us, campaigns are too long, they're too expensive and this is just going to lengthen that campaign cycle and -- and the duration. But there's another thing that's important here. The people -- the -- the people who vote control the candidates up until the time that the nomination is made in a primary. After a nomination is made, then the party has a much bigger role as far as who's going to run for -- in the general election. Moving it to February 5th means that there's going to be, I believe, about a ninth-month period of time that the parties - both the Republicans and the Democrat establishment parties - are going to have a longer period of time that they're basically in control of the process. For the three reasons of too long, too expensive and too much control by the parties, I would recommend a No vote.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

Any further discussion? Senator Hendon.

SENATOR HENDON:

Thank you, Madam President. I'm -- I'm almost in shock here that bright and intelligent Republicans would want to leave Illinois back behind other states. I mean, this is Illinois. We should be ahead of other states. Other states are moving up their primary. What are we supposed to do? Just stand pat, just leave Illinois where it's insignificant when it comes to such an important race - President of the United States. I -- I'm -- I'm perplexed. And -- and to hear someone say its being done for one person is -- is outrageous. We're doing it for the State of

STATE OF ILLINOIS
95th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION
SENATE TRANSCRIPT

39th Legislative Day

5/15/2007

Illinois. But if people fear Barack Obama that much, well, you don't have to vote for him. You weren't going to vote for him in the first place. No one is doing it for any individual. It's so the State of Illinois can be a role player in the Presidential election, and I'm just shocked that some would want to keep us behind. So maybe you should propose that we move it back even further behind, so we'll be further behind the rest of the country. And as far as negative mail, all you have to do is just don't send out any. I'm sure your constituents are tired of getting campaign mail from you anyway, positive or negative. So just don't send out any -- any campaign mail. Don't buy any TV commercials, but I'm certain that you will be doing both. I urge an Aye vote. This is good for the State of Illinois, not for any individual. But if it happens to help a former Member of this Body, then so be it.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

Any further discussion? Senator Watson.

SENATOR WATSON:

Yes, thank you very much, Madam Chairman. It almost scares me to get up and talk after the -- the previous speaker when I'm going to talk in support of this legislation. I don't know that that's happened very often. Personally, I -- I've always felt that when you think of New Hampshire, South Carolina, Iowa, Nevada - not exactly what I would call a mainstream of political thought in this country - and over the past, they've always been the states that have really determined who the candidate may be for both parties. I think that Illinois has taken a backseat over the years in -- in -- in being involved. And we've seen it happen over and over again, at least in our primaries and I would

STATE OF ILLINOIS
95th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION
SENATE TRANSCRIPT

39th Legislative Day

assume in yours also, where this -- we just don't become a part of the process and the people that we support early on are -- are gone or dropped out by the time it comes to -- to Illinois. So it may be for the wrong reasons. I do agree that -- that I -- and I -- Barack Obama, the fact that he's running for President, that's fine. But I do believe that this is being done for the wrong reasons, is to help him, and that -- that's been said by many people and -- and I just don't think that's the right reason to do it. Personally, I would rather see us go to the -- what Iowa does, kind of a caucus or a -- or a preferential poll, or something to get really the grassroots of both parties involved in the process, where you get really the ground troops out there in getting it done. And I think that would help both parties. I think it would help the organizations on both sides. But that isn't what we have before us, and I think it's the right thing to do and I support the President in his efforts.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

Any further discussion? Senator Link.

SENATOR LINK:

...you, Madam President. I -- I stand before you as strongly supporting this piece of legislation. I've done a lot of interviews pertaining not only to this upcoming election, but I did an interview the other day on this particular piece of legislation. And the reporter actually gave me a little bit more of an insight - and it was a national reporter - and he was talking to me about how he said other states have been passing this. And he said a legislator in Florida stood up and he said, "Florida needs this because Florida represents the complexion of the United States and that's why we need to be out in the

STATE OF ILLINOIS
95th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION
SENATE TRANSCRIPT

39th Legislative Day

5/15/2007

forefront." And this reporter said he's heard this in other states. So he said he went to look at this, and he said -- and he tried to figure out what state actually does mirror the United States. And he said to me, he said, "What state do you think it is?" And I said, "That's easy." I said, "Illinois." And he says, "You're right." And I said, "I could tell that" - no offense to my colleagues over there - I said, "I could tell that from my own Democratic Caucus." I said, "We represent every section of the State of Illinois. We represent every ethnic, every race, all genders, education levels. We represent the United States of America in this caucus." When we're talking about moving up, we're talking about deciding who are the two finalists going to be, the two people who are going to be -- be representing their parties in November. Instead of sitting back and waiting and it having been decided for us, and hear the statement that we hear for the last I don't know how many years - Which of the lesser of two evils are we going to vote for? - this time we can decide who those individuals of great statue {sic}, of either side you might think of, should represent our parties in the general election. And I want to clear something up. If Illinois is doing this for one person, what's Florida doing? What's California doing? What's New York doing? What's all the other big states doing? Have they already conceded to Obama, because they're all moving up to February 5th. Are they all moving in favor of him? If they are, thank God, because this election's over then, and I hope it's that way. But we're doing this for the right reason. Illinois is one of the largest states. It's the bellwether of the United States. We should decide who the candidates are going to be in November. We should

Senator Luechtefeld.

SENATOR LUECHTEFELD:

Thank you, Madam President and Members of the Senate. I -- I -- I think the discussion is kind of interesting. I -- I find myself in a little bit of a tough situation. I disagree with my Leader over here, Frank Watson, and I -- but I do feel good about the fact that I disagree with Senator Hendon. That does help me somewhat. You know, I -- I -- I'm amazed that -- of the discussion. Let -- let's just say what it is, and -- and -- and, you know, maybe it is good. Maybe it is good that we're trying to help someone here in Illinois. He happens to be of the other party. I doubt seriously if some of the -- rhetoric would be the same, especially on the other side, if there was a Republican -- former Republican Senator here in Illinois running for President. I don't think it would be. In fact, it probably would be the -- I think it'd be the opposite in many cases. Again, let's just say what it is. You know, I've always felt that the primary was too soon, not -- not necessarily for a Presidential election, but just for the general good of -- of politics in -- in the State. You know, we -- we have -- it -- elections are way too long. Everyone knows that. Everyone agrees with it. Our constituents agree with it, and in the process, they become so expensive. So, you know, there are good reasons, I think, and some of you have stated them, why we want to do this for -- for Senator Obama. But there are also a lot, a lot of bad reasons, I think, of why we're doing it, and the rhetoric is always kind of funny. And -- and always, obviously, depends on politics how it -- how it comes out. So it -- this is going -- this is going to pass. We know that. But, again, I -- I do not think for the -- just for the State in -- in general that this is a -- a good bill. Thank you.

I want to tell you, I sit on the Iowa border, so I watch those elections. And while some of my friends may love the idea of a caucus, I love the idea of Illinois voters going to the polls in a cold February snow, because it's boring and there's nothing to do. Maybe we can have a great time. And I'm looking forward to voting for Barack Obama for President.

SENATOR MURPHY:

To the bill. Thank you, Madam President. I am not a national political figure of the stature of my good friend Senator Link who gets interviewed by these national magazines. But what I -- what I do know - and -- and again a lot of people have made good -- good points as to why -- that's true... There have been very good reasons stated here as to why to vote for this bill. There have been some good reasons why we should be opposed to this bill. A couple of the reasons I am opposed to this bill that haven't been covered: First and foremost - I'll sound the alarm to everybody - when, not if - when somebody starts campaigning during the holiday season for a February 5th primary and the people in your district start screaming bloody murder, they're going to want to know who's responsible for bringing politics into my holiday season. That's number one. Number two, again, it strains credibility, you know, be -- to the breaking point to suggest, after the Speaker said on the first day of this Session, that we were expressly doing this for one person. That's fine. That's not really my main problem. The biggest problem here is, and nobody has touched on this yet, is this is the incumbent protection plan. You can't even get a sign in the ground before February 5th in Illinois. How are you ever going to have name ID to run against an incumbent in what's about a four-week election with the Super Bowl two days before the election taking one of these days away. You can't -- you can't -- you can't seriously take on an incumbent in a -- in a primary with a February 5th date. If we'd have separated this out for Presidential years, it might have been a little bit more reasonable, but I urge a No vote for those reasons.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

Senate President Jones, to close.

SENATOR E. JONES:

Thank you, Madam President. I do appreciate the lively discussion. But what's so shocking to me is that we're talking about a national election, not a local election. And we're talking about whether or not we are lengthening the process of the national election. If we do nothing, absolutely nothing, the campaign will still be just as long around this nation. All this bill does is simply put Illinois, the bellwether State, in position to say who the nominees of our respective parties shall be. Now, if you don't want to be involved in selecting your nominee, you want to lay back and wait till the rest of the country pick your nominee for you, then you lay back. But the -- the Minority Leader and I agree, this is the right thing to do. The bill does not say Obama. I don't know who will come into the forefront for your party's nomination, because some -- you may not have one. You just may not have one. But we are giving you the opportunity to select one just in case you haven't found one as of yet. So that that person can go in, say, "I got the strong support of the people of Illinois of my party." It's a good bill. It deserve a unanimous vote.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

The question is, shall House Bill 426 pass. Those in favor will vote Aye. Opposed, Nay. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Take the record. On that question, there are 48 Yeas, 10 voting Nay, 0 voting Present. And House Bill 426, having received the required constitutional majority, is declared passed. There being no further business to come -- oh! I'm sorry. Senator Hendon.

SENATOR HENDON:

Thank -- thank you, Madam President. It's something that Senator Luechtefeld and I can agree on. Because of the bad weather, softball practice has been canceled for the night and we're going to pick it up maybe Thursday. Thank you.
