SENATOR RIGHTER:

Thank you, Mr. President. Inquiry of the Chair. Thank you for giving the schedule on committees. Is it the Chair's intention -- the Chair earlier represented that we would get through 2nds once today and once tomorrow. Is it the Chair's intention to get all the way through the Calendar - 2nds - before we break for committees this afternoon?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CLAYBORNE)

I was just told we will get as far as possible. Have a few more pages left, Senator Righter. Continue on. Senate Bill 1638. Senator Trotter. Madam Secretary, please read the bill.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Thank you, Mr. President. Inquiry of the Chair. I noticed at the bottom of page 43, Senate Bill 1666 was skipped over. I'm sure it was an error on the Presiding Officer's part. I wonder if we could go - with leave of the body - go back to the bottom of page 43, Senate Bill 1666, and ask the sponsor if he'd like to move that bill to 3rd Reading, please?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CLAYBORNE)

We're -- we're going to come back to it. We'll get to it. Senator Righter, for what purpose do you seek recognition?

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Thank you, Mr. President. Point of order. There has been a lot of rhetoric about Members being allowed to control their own bills and move them forward and -- and have a vote, and I think this is an opportunity -- this is an early opportunity here for the Majority to demonstrate that that's going to be the case. I would ask again, with leave of the Body, to move back to bottom of page 43 of the Calendar to Senate Bill 1666 and ask the sponsor if he would like to move the bill from 2nd Reading to 3rd Reading.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CLAYBORNE)

My understanding, Senator Righter, that there's an amendment that's being considered, so that's the reason why we're not looking to move this forward. We will get to this bill and the amendment. Senator Righter, for what purpose..

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Thank you, Mr. President. Already today, we have gone through a truckload of bills, both Democrat and Republican, that have amendments pending somewhere in the process that were called on the Order of 2nd Reading. The sponsor was asked whether or not they wanted to move them to 3rd and they were allowed to do so. Senate Bill 1666 is no different than that. Now I appreciate that some may have a political objection to Senate Bill 1666, but if the Member's going to be allowed to control their own bill, as has been stated more than once in
