Thank you, Madam President. This amendment takes away and is the objections of -- and is the suggestion of the Department of Central Management Services. This bill -- the underlying bill deals with the Illinois portal system. And this says that when the Legislature or the Judicial Branch has information on there, it shall be the responsibility of us or the courts to verify or be held accountable for the accuracy of that information. And it also makes the bill subject to appropriation. And, again, it takes away the objections of Central Management Services and I'd move its adoption.

SENATOR HARMON:

Thank you, Madam President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. Senate Bill 1862 amends the Data Security on State Computers Act. We created this Act in 2003. At the time, there was a change in the Executive administration and some concern over the handling of State computers. There were also news reports that surplus State computers were discovered with data remaining on their hard drives. In response, we adopted fairly dramatic standards for the erasure of data. In practice, we have determined that it can be done more efficiently and effectively and this language would authorize those alternative methods of protecting the data on State computers. I'm not aware of any opposition and I ask for your Aye votes.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CROTTY)

Previously we passed legislation and it's been signed into law, legislation that would allow a uniform speed limit on rural interstate highways. After the passage of that legislation, it was brought to my attention that there are rural four-lane highways that look like an interstate - they're divided, they have a grass median, two lanes going one direction, two going the other direction - that were not incorporated into the uniform speed limit. There's about fifteen of these roads throughout the State, many of 'em in my district. This would make a uniform speed limit on all four-

Act. The Act permits facilities that recycle construction and demolition debris subject to a variety of requirements. We're updating those requirements. The most significant change is this: Today they are required to divert from the waste stream seventy-five percent of the material that comes into those facilities. In practice, they have been achieving that by using fine aggregate material repurposed at landfills for daily cover. This clarifies that that practice is permissible. There are a variety of other changes. This is a bipartisan effort. Senator Millner has been very helpful. And I wish he were here today, but in his absence, I believe Senator Steans is going to ask me some questions for legislative intent, though I'm not aware of any opposition to the bill.

SENATOR HARMON:

Yes, that is correct.

Thank you, Madam President and Members of the Senate. Senate Bill 1943 expands the written statement concerning a hospital's patients -- a hospital patient's right to include the right not to be discriminated against by the hospital due to certain factors that are not relevant to the patient's medical diagnosis and treatment. Senate Bill 1943 also creates procedures for addressing discrimination grievances and authorizes every hospital to post its emergency room anti-discrimination policy. SENATOR MALONEY:

Thank you, Madam President. What -- what Senate Bill 1967 does is it amends the Community College Act. It provides that provisions in a Section requiring the award of a contract to the lowest responsible bidder does not prevent the community college from complying with the terms and conditions of a grant. What this means is, is that grants come in for a specific purpose. Sometimes, when the grant is over twenty-five thousand dollars, it has to be put out to bid, but when the grant comes from, say, a private agency -- for example, IBM would want to donate computers and it was put out to bid and Mac won the -- won the bid, then IBM would not follow through with the grant. So, this is really a technical change, because there is an exemption in

This is an initiative -- 2040 is an initiative of the Illinois State Bar Association, charitably given to me, with respect to the lawsuit of People versus -- Williams versus -- the People of the State of Illinois {sic} (People v. Williams). Essentially, it's a technical revision to our Criminal Code, which basically makes our State statute comply with the federal copyright provision. Essentially, our State antipiracy statute is now conforming with the federal law, so that all music and copyright music provisions from 1972 backwards are protected by our State statute. Everything forward has to comply with the federal copyright law. So this conforms our State statute to the federal law. I'm happy to take any questions.

For a couple of reasons, Madam President. My name was used in debate and I'm also the leader of the bald caucus on the Floor and I've taken on that title and I proudly wear it, or don't wear it, 'cause I don't really have much to wear. There are some people in this Chamber who cannot pull off bald and handsome, Senator Sandack. And one of them was the previous Senator who spoke from Palatine. I don't know if it's -- you know, 'cause February 14th is Valentine's Day. It's a very important day for many of us here in this Chamber. And I just want to know why you chose the 15th instead of the 14th.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CROTTY)

Senator Sandack.

SENATOR SANDACK:

...you. That's an excellent question. I -- I didn't choose it, Senator; our federal laws did, because the copyright statute, it becomes effective February 15, 1972. So all music recordings previous thereto would be still subject to our State antipiracy statute.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CROTTY)

Senator Kotowski.

SENATOR KOTOWSKI:

See, I don't understand what "previous thereto" means. Okay? I think that's confusing. I have a great deal of respect for the sponsor. I think you're just trying to obfuscate the fact that you are against romance, that you're anti-love, that you're against Valentine's Day, and you don't want to protect songs that inspire a sense of warmth and connection among other people. And I have a problem with that and I have a problem with phrases like "thereto" that are overly lawyerly. This Chamber is becoming too lawyerly. In fact, we are going to introduce a bill to abolish the word "thereto" henceforth. So, I would like you to respond to that. Thank you.

I'm -- I'm glad that you're here and it has nothing to do with your talent and your capability and your reputation and your history. It has everything to do with the fact that, like I said, there are people who can -- they work their whole lives to try and pull off the fact that they're follicly challenged. They don't do a good job of it. And I'm insulted by that when I walk down the street and I see bald people who are not handsome. You, my friend, you pull it off. All right? SENATOR SANDACK:

By lawyers in the plural, I assume you just mean me, and yes, I cover much of the family overhead at the Sandack household.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CROTTY)

Senator Jacobs.

SENATOR JACOBS:

And therein lies the rub. I looked at this bill and it seems that the only proponent for this bill is the Illinois Trial Lawyers. Is this a simple case of pay to play?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CROTTY)

Senator Sandack.

SENATOR SANDACK:

Pay to play, no, sir. Play music before 1972 and sell it without attribution, yes.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CROTTY)

Senator Raoul, for what reason do you rise?

SENATOR RAOUL:

I just rise because baldness was used in the debate. And to my good friend who's part of the follicly challenged caucus, I rise in great support of your bill, notwithstanding the fact that 1960's music is known to make your hair grow. I rise in strong support of the gentleman with the similar hairdo. It's much more handsome than Senator Kotowski. Welcome to the Senate.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CROTTY)

Senator Koehler, for what reason do you rise?

SENATOR KOEHLER:

Thank you, Madam President. I want to correct the record, because my name was used in debate as well. I've had two occasions now when people have talked about being follicly challenged. I am follicly liberated, and any time you want to use my comb, you get it.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CROTTY)

Oh, is there any other discussion? There being none, the question is, shall Senate Bill 2040 pass. The -- all those in favor will vote Aye. Those opposed will vote Nay. And the voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Take the record. I had to -- oh! I... Oh! There -- on that question, there are 50 voting Yes, 3 voting No, and none voting Present. Senate Bill 2040, having received the required constitutional majority, is declared passed. Congratulations. Senator Schmidt, for what reason do you rise?

SENATOR SCHMIDT:

I rise to the -- the prior vote. I don't want this guy against me, you know. I'd like to record a Yes vote on that. Thank you.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CROTTY)

The record -- the record will reflect your intention. Senator Rezin, why did -- for what reason do you rise?

SENATOR REZIN:

A point of personal privilege, Madam President.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CROTTY)

State your point.

SENATOR REZIN:

I have a young gentleman here today with me. His name is David Welter. This past November, he ran for and was successfully elected to the county board. He is the youngest county board member in Grundy County. He was born in 1991. At the ripe age of nineteen, he now chairs the technology committee at the county level and also is vice chair of the cost benefit analysis. He is working on increasing transparency in county government by also putting our budget online. And David is a student at Joliet Junior College. I would like to extend a warm Springfield welcome to David Welter.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CROTTY)

Welcome, David, to the Senate. Senator Raoul, for what reason do you rise?

SENATOR RAOUL:

I guess I'm challenged in more than one way. On Senate Bill 2040, I was a little bit slow and inadvertently pushed the wrong button. I'd like to be recorded as a Yes, or my intent was to be a Yes.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CROTTY)

The record will reflect your intention. On -- Senator Sandoval, for what reason do you rise?

SENATOR SANDOVAL:

Thank you, Madam President, Members of the Senate. I'd like to welcome to the Illinois Senate some high school students who are from the Pilsen Wellness Center in Pilsen who are -- been mentoring to get ahead in life and get to college at some point. And they are -- they are joined by and mentored by my -- none other than my daughter, Angie, who is a junior at the University of Illinois at Chicago, who is a political science major in Chicago. Like to welcome them, in the gallery today, to Springfield.

Senator Sullivan.

SENATOR SULLIVAN:

Thank you, Madam President and Members of the Senate. Senate Bill 2056 removes the length limit for the distance between the kingpin and the center of the rear axel on semitrailers. The kingpin is the pivot point where the semi and the trailer connect. It namely -- mainly affects livestock trailers that do not have adjustable rear axels. I'd be more than happy to answer any questions.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CROTTY)

Is there any discussion? There being none, the question is, shall Senate Bill 2056 pass. All those in favor will vote Aye. Those opposed, vote Nay. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CROTTY)

Senator Harmon.

SENATOR HARMON:

Thank you, Madam President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. Senate Bill -- 2062 is an initiative of a constituent. A -- a new business in my district in Oak Park that does computer forensic services came to me with the -- the troubling realization that the Department of Professional Regulation was attempting to regulate them as private detectives, primarily because it wasn't clear that they shouldn't be. This bill would clarify that computer forensics services companies are not private detectives subject to regulation so long as they don't hold themselves out to be private detectives. I'm not aware of any opposition and I ask for your Aye votes.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CROTTY)

Is there any discussion? There being none, the question is, shall Senate Bill 2062 pass. All those in favor will vote Aye. Opposed, Nay. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? SENATOR LINK:

Thank you, Madam President. Senate Bill 2073 amends the Property Tax Code and requires that the Property Tax Appeal Board to -- decide appeals with -- within three hundred and sixty-five days of filing. PTAB can -- cannot complete its work on time. The huge backlog of cases continues and almost twenty-three percent of cases filed since 2000 remain undecided. Be more than happy to answer any questions.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CROTTY)

Senator Pankau.

SENATOR PANKAU:

Thank you, Madam President. Senate Bill 2083 amends the Limited Liability Company Act and reduces the expedited service fee for a limited liability company's articles of organization from a hundred dollars down to zero. This came about from a number of chamber of commerce meetings that I was at, where different businesses would tell me that the Department of Revenue encourages them to renew their LLCs online. But when they do that, they are charged an extra hundred dollars expedition fee. Now, anybody can understand an expedited fee when you're first forming your company and you want it done quickly and you want to get everything established, but just for ordinary renewals, there should not be an -- an additional expedited fee. And this takes that away. I urge your support of Senate Bill 2083.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CROTTY)

Is there any discussion? Senator Lauzen.

SENATOR LAUZEN:

Madam President, it came through Revenue Committee, unanimous support.

SENATOR HARMON:

Senator, I apologize to interrupt late in the discussion here. I just -- I want to clarify my understanding. Would people no longer be able to obtain expedited service or would they just not be required to pay for expedited service?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CROTTY)

Senator Pankau.

SENATOR PANKAU:

They absolutely will be able to have expedited service, but when they're renewing and it's not in an expedited manner, they will not have to pay that additional hundred dollars just because they renewed online. Which is what the -- the office is doing right now. They're requiring it when you just renew online.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CROTTY)

Senator Harmon.

SENATOR HARMON:

And if the renewal has to be done in an expedited manner in -- in part because the -- the business failed to do it in advance, would -- would they be able to accomplish that on an expedited basis and -- and pay for it if they need the expedited services?

Also, I'd like to inform the Members that when the Senate meets on Monday afternoon, we will take up the Order of Senate Bills 2nd Reading on the Calendar. SENATOR ALTHOFF:

Thank you very much, Madam President. And just so everybody knows, we're part of the redhead caucus. Senate Bill 2096 is a result of our Accessibility Task Force, which recommended the adoption of federal guidelines for press boxes, and that language says "An accessible route shall not be required to press boxes in bleachers that have points of entry at only one level provided that the aggregate area of all press boxes is five hundred square feet maximum." pre-purchase and post-purchase home-ownership education, along with foreclosure prevention counseling activities. The funds for counseling grants will be split with seventy-five percent going outside of Chicago and twenty-five percent going to the City of Chicago. This replicates a bill I sponsored in 2009. However, once it reached the House, it was amended for a different purpose. And I just ask for -- it is subject to appropriation. However, I have a bill in the House that will be the revenue stream for this fund.

The counseling will be administered by HUD-approved housing counselors.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR TROTTER)

SENATOR RIGHTER:

What -- at what point in the foreclosure process would a person be eligible to receive this counseling? Is this if they're having trouble making their house payment and so they want to go get educated or they're already subject to foreclosure proceedings and so now they're going to get the counseling? I mean, at what point do -- do these people get educated, for lack of a better term?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR TROTTER)

Senator Collins.

SENATOR J. COLLINS:

As far as the foreclosure - because it's also with pre-purchase and post-purchase of home ownership - the foreclosure counseling will be a part of the prevention -- foreclosure prevention - so, if a family is having problems meeting their payments. This does not replicate the HAMP program whatsoever with the -- with the modification. This is prior to getting actually into foreclosure. So this is trying to prevent them from the foreclosure procedure.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR TROTTER)

Senator Righter.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Okay. The -- the -- and I -- I didn't catch it. There's another program that also provides counseling. Tell me about that one and at what point does that other program provide counseling?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR TROTTER)

The federal government has a program called HAMP, where by all measurements has been a failure. Initially, when it was initiated by the Obama administration, it was to help at least four million people who might be facing foreclosure. To this point, they've only been able to help six hundred thousand. So, by all measurements and standards and even by the administration, it has been admitted to be a failure. This program is based on the counseling that's available now. From the statistics from the Illinois Department of -- Housing Authority, there are -- there are no housing counseling services in rural and downstate Illinois. That's why the distribution of the funding will be directed to seventy-five percent outside of Chicago. As we know now, the increasing of foreclosures are now in Will County, McHenry County. And many agencies -- nonprofit agencies don't have the capacity for -- to do the counseling at this point. So this would increase the capacity for those agencies, nonprofit agencies, to be engaged in foreclosure prevention and counseling.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR TROTTER)

Senator Righter.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Senator, what -- help me understand what it is that this program is going to teach people. I mean, someone is behind in their mortgage, I'm assuming -- that's kind of the -- that's kind of the scenario you've outlined, where someone is having trouble making their payments. The payments are too high. Their income isn't sufficient. What is it that they're going to be taught that will remedy their situation?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR TROTTER)

Senator Collins.

SENATOR J. COLLINS:

That is the counseling under the HAMP program. This is counseling for pre-purchase and post-purchase of home ownership and the prevention of foreclosure. They might be just thirty days late or have a problem. So, this would direct them to agencies, because I passed legislation also, two years ago, that before the bank or a lender can close, they have to have counseling. And so this would just allow them to have the same capacity that I put in the statute; that before a lender can move on foreclosure, they need counseling, to go through approved HUD counseling agency. So, this really enhances the legislation I've already passed allowing counseling for people going forward in foreclosure.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR TROTTER)

Senator Righter.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Okay, I'm looking -- thank you. Senator, I'm looking at the language in the bill. This is for pre-purchase also. ...this -- so this would be also eligible for people who haven't even bought the home and signed the mortgage, is that correct?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR TROTTER)

Senator Collins.

SENATOR J. COLLINS:

Many times, part of the problem that we face with the high rate of foreclosure, many people got into a loan situation and didn't understand what they were signing. So, I'm -- I was a first-time home purchaser maybe five years ago. So I went through a HUD-sponsored education program on -- it was administered by the neighborhood housing service - just to get an understanding of what I was encountering. So I think this is well -- helping those individuals to prevent them from even getting into a -- a situation where they sign a mortgage that they can't afford or they don't understand. So it's -- I think it's a well -- it's part of financial literacy, enhancing the education and the understanding of what people are actually getting into when they file or when they sign a mortgage.

STATE OF ILLINOIS
97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR TROTTER)

Senator Righter.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Thank you, Mr. President. Okay, now we've covered the pre-purchase. Now, let's talk about, again, the post-purchase. What will be the requirement to qualify for one of these programs? Do you have to be a -- a month late, two months late? Do you have to make some kind of indication that you think you're running into trouble on it? I mean, what's the -- what is the gatekeeper for people to try to get into -- to the -- to the post-purchase part of the program?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR TROTTER)

Senator Collins.

SENATOR J. COLLINS:

I think you're confusing the post-purchase home-ownership education with the foreclosure issue or the loan modification program.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR TROTTER)

Senator Righter.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Mr. President, to the bill, if I might. Thank you. Actually, Senator Collins, you may be right. I'm -- I'm probably confused about all the programs that we have on this issue. I would agree with that. This is -- this is one of those issues, Ladies and Gentlemen, about whether or not you think it is your constituents' and your taxpayers' responsibility to talk to someone to make sure before they sign a mortgage and buy a home that they -- what they get themselves into and whether or not you think that's their responsibility or you think that your taxpayers and the State's taxpayers should pay to create a program to walk them through that. That's not what my constituents want. That's not what my taxpayers want. In a day and age when we are talking about cutting money to schools, cutting from Medicaid, cutting to other services, do we want to now layer another burden on the General Revenue Fund and say we're going to create another - another, because we already have - another foreclosure counseling program. I would urge a No vote. Thank you.

STATE OF ILLINOIS
97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR TROTTER)

Seeing there's no further discussion, Senator Collins, to close.

SENATOR J. COLLINS:

I mentioned that this bill was subject to appropriation. I also mentioned that I have a bill that I'm working on negotiating with the banks. The taxpayers will not be paying for this counseling. The funding will come from an agreement that I'm working on - a housing bill, a foreclosure bill that I'm working on with the banks. So it will not be coming out of the General Revenue Fund. Thank you. I ask for a Aye vote.
