Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, I have two guests here with me today - on my right, Christine Leal; on my left, Violet Frias. Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, they -- we went to grammar school together. There's probably about ten to fifteen of us that still keep together and we try to meet at least once or twice a year. I had the privilege of having Violet's mom, my mom's best friend, here for Inauguration Day and the mom went back and told everyone, so now they're wanting to come by and visit. So if we can give 'em a -- welcome to the Senate, I'd appreciate it.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

Thank you, Senator Muñoz. Those ladies look a lot younger than you, Senator. Can I ask the Senate, please, to take your seats? I have a introduction and I'd like to ask the Senators to please take their seats. Thank you. Ladies and Gentlemen, today I'm pleased to introduce the reigning Miss Heart of Illinois 2013. This is Marisa Buchheit. This June, Marisa will advance to the Miss Illinois stage in hopes of competing to become Miss America. She's a native Chicagoan and a recent graduate of the Cleveland Institute of Music, where she majored in vocal performance and minored in German. She's made countless appearances at venues ranging from Chicago's Civic Opera House to North Avenue Beach, where she sang the National Anthem to -- to kick off the 2012 Chicago Air and Water Show. It's also come to my attention - and I understand that there's other Senators that are in this category - we have a shared interest that Marisa runs marathons. I understand there's some other fellow marathon runners here. I'm sure that it's competitive spirit and discipline that has made her so
