Senate President would like to make an introduction. Would everybody please be at their desks? Hold the visiting down. All the staff retire to the rear of the Chamber, please. President Cullerton.

SENATOR J. CULLERTON:

Thank you, Mr. President. A point of personal privilege. Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, amidst the debate over firearms in the State, we are joined by some special visitors today from Sandy Hook Promise. Certainly, I believe, all of our offices have received a multitude of phone calls and emails advocating one way or the other on gun bills, but I hope that the presence of these individuals today offers a face to the debate. Today I'd like to introduce people who are -- we are joined by: family representatives, Mark Barden, Francine Wheeler and Nicole Hockley. We're also joined by Sandy Hook Promise representatives, Tom {sic} (Tim) Makris and Rob Cox. These individuals are not paid lobbyists. They're -- they aren't political strategists. Instead, they're parents who are advocating for gun laws. While I commend their courage for being here today, I feel that a moment of silence for those they fight for is in order here today. I'd request, Mr. President, a moment of silence at this time for their children, Daniel Barden, Benjamin Wheeler and Dylan Hockley, the victims of Sandy Hook, and the Illinoisans who have mourned a loss due to gun violence.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR SULLIVAN)

All our Members please rise. Will our guests rise for a moment of silence. (Moment of silence observed) Thank you, Mr. President. The Senate will stand at ease for a few minutes to Thank you. I appreciate it. I believe everyone in the Body that has been here in prior years is familiar with our friends from Turkey. On behalf of the Joint Legislative Task Force on Turkish-Illinois {sic} (Illinois-Turkish) Relations, the Niagara Foundation and the Turkish American Federation of the {sic} Midwest, I would like to extend a personal invitation to our Intercultural Reception, which is a celebration of our bonds of friendship, our business and our cultural relationships with Turkey and the State of Illinois. It will be May 21st from 5 to 7 p.m. at the office of our Secretary of State, right here in the Capitol. And I would really urge all of you who have attended before to come and say hello to our friends. And for those of you who have not taken advantage of this opportunity, please come and meet these wonderful men and women and learn about our Turkish friendship and the opportunities that we've established with this wonderful country. Thank you very much, Mr. President.

House Bill 188.

(Secretary reads title of bill)

3rd Reading of the bill.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR SULLIVAN)

Leader Radogno.

SENATOR RADOGNO:

Thank you, Mr. President. We've heard about this bill before in this Chamber, but this is the bill that will probably land on the Governor's desk. It bans indoor ultraviolet tanning for individuals who are under the age of eighteen years old. It's a known carcinogen. It's a Class 1 carcinogen. And I think that it warrants us passing this bill in order to protect the children and help educate their parents and reinforce the parents to encourage their kids not to tan. So I ask for your support and would be happy to try to answer any questions.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR SULLIVAN)

Is there any discussion? Is there any discussion? Seeing none, Ladies and Gentlemen, the question is, shall House Bill 188 pass. All those in favor will vote Aye. Opposed, Nay. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Take the record. On that question, there are 34 voting Aye, 12 voting Nay, 0 voting Present. House Bill 188, having received the required constitutional majority, is declared passed. Ladies and Gentlemen, if I can have your attention, for an announcement. The State Government Committee that was scheduled for this afternoon has been canceled. State Government that was scheduled for this afternoon has been canceled. There being no further business to come before the Senate, the Senate stands
