SENATOR BRADY:

Also for a point of personal privilege to make an introduction.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR SULLIVAN)

Please state your point of personal privilege.

SENATOR BRADY:

Thank you, Mr. President. I have two guests with me today. One is Owen Bolles and the other one is Olivia Bolles. They are the children of Shaure Bolles and the grandchildren of Bill and Sara Wills from my district, who are accompanying them here today. They have the privilege of being homeschooled by their parent and they both are very involved in piano lessons, golf lessons, as well as -- as well as other activities. They wish -- one wishes to be an architect and the other one wishes to be in an orchestra and an orthopedic surgeon. So maybe they can take care of people like Senator Murphy when they get hurt at the softball game in the House/Senate. But if the Chamber would please join me in welcoming them, I would certainly appreciate it.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR SULLIVAN)

Ladies and Gentlemen, let's welcome Senator Brady's guests. Nice to have you here today. Thanks for joining us. Senator Noland, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR NOLAND:

Thank you, Mr. President. For a couple of announcements, if I may. First of all...

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR SULLIVAN)

celebrate the Police Memorial, as we normally do about this time of the year here in Springfield. However, I -- I've been asked to make an announcement, and that is that on May 1st, on that Thursday, at 11 a.m., due to construction at the Police Memorial, the memorial service will be held on the east steps - that is the east steps of the Capitol. In case of bad weather, it will be held in the State Library. Also, too, Mr. President - and you may want me to announce that a little bit later with more -- more folks - I have with me here on the Floor my District Director, Rich Jacobs. He is that person that we all have, perhaps, back in our districts that for whom no mountain is high enough, no valley is low, and I don't mean that he does that on behalf of the Senator; he does that on behalf of our constituents back home. And they broke the mold when they sent me this guy to be my District Director. I can't say enough good things about him, but for the sake of brevity, I will just ask the Senate to provide him a very warm Senate welcome. Thank you.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR SULLIVAN)

Welcome to the Senate. Thanks for joining us and thanks for your work. Alex Davis with WCIA 3 TV requests permission to shoot audio and video. Seeing no objection, leave is granted. Mr. Secretary, Resolutions.
