SENATOR ALTHOFF:

Point of personal privilege.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CLAYBORNE)

Please state your point.

SENATOR ALTHOFF:

Thank you very much, Mr. President. I believe that you actually made a similar announcement last week. So, even though we don't have a full complement, I just want to remind everybody that this Thursday is the - as part of the American Cancer Society Cancer Action Network - Suit and Sneaker Day at the Capitol. So, Thursday, we're asking everybody to don their sneakers and talk about making the fight against cancer a top priority. I think everyone knows that cancer, in some way, shape or form, has touched all of us and we want to draw awareness to the fact that we are still fighting this disease. So if you can, put on a pair of sneakers on Thursday, and you can run around the Capitol and actually up and down the stairs without worrying about falling. Thank you very much.

Please state your announcement.

SENATOR CUNNINGHAM:

Thank you. I just wanted to bring to the Chamber's attention, a reception will be held later on this evening, starting at 5 o'clock, at the Hilton on behalf of the Special Olympics of Chicago. As many of you know, the State of Illinois has a special relationship with the Special Olympics. It was founded here, actually in the City of Chicago, some forty-five years ago by a young park district staffer named Anne McGlone, who we know today as Justice Anne Burke. It's grown into an international success. The crew from Special Olympics Chicago is in town today, though. As I said, have their reception tonight. Like to encourage everyone to come by. I'd also like to introduce some of the Special Olympics board members who are here. First of all - they're in the gallery behind me, if we could welcome 'em to Springfield - we have former State Senator Pam Munizzi, and then members of the board, Dr. Casey Hogan, Jim "Skinny" Sheahan, Michael Sheahan, Kevin Magnuson, and Jen Kramer. If we could give them a -- a warm Springfield welcome.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CLAYBORNE)

Welcome to Springfield. Appreciate all that you do. Thanks for coming. Enjoy your day. With leave of the Body, we will return to House Bill 4440. Senator Lightford. Mr. Secretary, read the bill.
