SENATOR SULLIVAN:

Thank you, Mr. President. A point of personal privilege. Mr. President and all Members of the Senate, welcome back, first of all. Great to have everybody back. I have some guests here today that I'd like to introduce. Up on the -- up in the gallery on our side is the Western Illinois University Political Science class. There's approximately fifteen students. They are under the leadership of Keith Boeckelman. Keith, stand up, if you would, please. And the students are from all over the State of Illinois, many of your -- some of your -- some are your constituents. I know Senator Cunningham has a constituent up there. Some from all over the City, up in the Chicago area. But I'd like everybody -- first of all, stand up, if you would. And I'd like everybody to welcome the WIU Political Science class here to the Illinois State Senate.

State your point.

SENATOR ALTHOFF:

Thank you very much. From the Republican side of the aisle, we, too, welcome everybody back. Congratulation to all of us who were successful with our elections. I'd like to remind the Body that, tonight, the Joint Legislative Task Force on Turkish-Illinois Relations, the Niagara Foundation and the Turkish American Federation of the Midwest invite you to attend an intercultural reception celebrating the bonds of friendship, business and culture between Turkey and the State of Illinois. We do this every year. It will be in Secretary of State White's Office, Room 213, from 5 to 7. Easy walk downstairs. We really would encourage everyone to attend. Thank you very much, Mr. President.

11/19/2014

Thank you, Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. Senate Bill 172 is a shell bill. It is a Senate bill that needs to go to the House. It is an election law title. We are negotiating, in the preliminary phases, an election law bill to deal with some of the required cleanup following our -- our last election law bill in the spring. Again, this is a shell bill. It would be amended in the House and come back to us for concurrence if and when the appropriate provisions are negotiated.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

Is there any discussion? Senator Righter.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Thank you, Mr. President. Will the sponsor yield, please?

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

He indicates he will.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Senator Harmon, in your conversations with the Leaders in the House, has there been any conversation about negotiating the bill here, where it already is? And we can put it together and then the Members know what they're voting on, and then the House can take what -- what we have negotiated with them in a cooperative fashion.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

Senator Harmon.

SENATOR HARMON:

Thank you, Mr. President. Senator, I appreciate your question, and that would clearly be my preference. We are dealing with a procedural reality with 6-day posting and this being a Senate bill. If we don't pass it out of the Senate this week, the House would be in a more difficult position to take it up in the

STATE OF ILLINOIS
98th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION
SENATE TRANSCRIPT

11/19/2014

second week of the Veto Session to send it back to us. We will be fully engaged in those negotiations.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

Senator Righter.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

I guess, then, let's rewind the tape a little bit. I take from your answer that you feel it is necessary that this bill be passed before Veto Session or what is oftentimes termed the "lame-duck" Session ends, before a new Governor takes office or a new General Assembly takes office. Why is it necessary to do it so quickly?

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

Senator Harmon.

SENATOR HARMON:

Thank you, Mr. President. I don't know whether there will be a lame-duck Session. I don't know if this General Assembly will return in January. I don't know what our schedule will be in January. We do have municipal elections in February. And so, if we want to take up anything that would be effective in that election, we need to act now in the regularly scheduled Veto Session.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

Senator Righter.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

To the bill, if I might, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

To the bill.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Thank you, Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Chamber.

Our first act back is to move a bill - on elections, no less - that has no content and put it on a timeline so that it can clear the General Assembly and be signed into law before the new General Assembly is seated, before the new Governor takes office. The voters spoke in November. I don't think the first act of this Senate coming back should be to tell them, okay, now that you've spoken, we want to get some things done in a hurry before what you decided comes to fruition. I would urge, with all due respect to the sponsor, a No or Present vote. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

Senator Harmon, to close.

SENATOR HARMON:

Thank you, Mr. President. I'd like to thank the prior speaker for living up to his promise during the Assignments Committee. And I would just remind all of my colleagues that this, in fact, if it is negotiated and amended in the House, will come back to us. We'll be able to take a careful look at the contents. I'd ask for your Aye votes to move this as a procedural matter. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

The question is, shall Senate Bill 172 pass. All those in favor will vote Aye. Opposed, vote Nay. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Mr. Secretary, please take the record. On that question, there are 35 voting Aye, 14 voting No, none voting Present. The bill, having received the constitutional majority, is declared passed. Ladies and Gentlemen, Travis Collins from WSEC has asked for leave to take still photographs. All in favor, if there's no objection, say Aye. All opposed, No. The Ayes have it. Senator -- Senator

SENATOR MANAR:

Ladies and Gentlemen and my colleagues in the Senate, I'd like to introduce Joey Lipe, who is a twelve-year-old young man from Hillsboro. Stand up, Joey. Attends Hillsboro Junior High School. His hobbies include playing football. He runs track. I met him along the way a few summers ago and I invited him to come to the Senate today to meet my colleagues. Please join me in welcoming Joey to Springfield.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

Welcome to Springfield. Ladies and Gentlemen, we have some special guests that I'd like to introduce. Ask them to come to the podium. Ladies and Gentlemen, I'm pleased to recognize, with Senator Radogno, some outstanding student athletes from our alma mater, the Loyola University Chicago men's volleyball team. The Loyola University Chicago men's volleyball team finished the 2014 season with a record of 29 wins, 1 loss, and at one point, won 27 consecutive matches. This spring, in front of a capacity crowd in the Gentile Arena, the men's team defeated Stanford University in a four-set win in the NCAA Men's Volleyball Championship game, earning the school its first-ever volleyball championship title. The -- the men's volleyball championship title is the second NCAA championship title in the history of Loyola Chicago and the first since the men's basketball program captured the men's basketball championship in 1963. 2014 Loyola University men's volleyball team featured four All-Americans, including the NCAA tournament Most Outstanding Player Cody Caldwell and the 2014 Midwest {sic} (Midwestern) Intercollegiate Volleyball Association Player of the Year Thomas Jaeschke. They are joined by Coach Shane Davis and Father Patrick Dorsey. Would you please welcome them to Springfield? Thank you. Ladies and Gentlemen, I have some announcements to make about committees. If I can have your attention. Can I have your attention, please? The Executive Committee will meet in Room 212 at 2 p.m. today. State Government and Veterans Affairs will meet in Room 409 at 2 p.m. today. Judiciary will meet in Room 212. I'm sorry. That was an error. Human Services will meet in Room 409 at 4 p.m. today. Senator Kotowski.

SENATOR KOTOWSKI:

Thank you, Mr. President. And good afternoon to everyone here. Senate Bill 2557 is a shell bill in order that we have an appropriations bill in place in the event that a supplemental is needed prior to January. Should an amendment contain a supplemental appropriations be filed to the bill, we'll have a committee hearing to discuss the proposed funding.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

Any discussion? Senator Righter.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Thank you -- thank you, Mr. President. Will the sponsor yield, please?

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

Sure -- indicates he will yield.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

I -- Senator Kotowski, quite honestly, I did not have the opportunity to fully grasp what you said the plan is - thank you, Mr. President - the plan is for Senate Bill 2557 beyond passing out of the Senate on 3rd Reading with no content. What -- what - - where are we going with this?

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

Senator Kotowski.

SENATOR KOTOWSKI:

Thank you, Senator Righter, and it's a pleasure to see you. It's been some time. And thank you for your question. So we're passing this shell bill in order to have an appropriations bill in place in the event that is a -- that a supplemental is needed prior to January. If an amendment contains any supplemental appropriations be filed to the bill, we'll have a committee hearing to discuss the proposed funding.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

Senator Righter.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

What would be the need for an appropriations bill to become law before January 1, Senator Kotowski?

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

...Kotowski.

SENATOR KOTOWSKI:

Thank you, Senator Righter. Just if there's any funding issues that need to be addressed, we want to have a bill in place to address that, give us an opportunity. We pass supplementals in this Chamber all the time and this is just to give us an opportunity to do that.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

Senator Righter.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

I absolutely agree with you, Senator Kotowski; passage of supplemental appropriation bills is a regular practice. Some would say it's a little bit too regular of a practice. But my question really wasn't aimed at the fact that we might need a supplemental appropriation. It's aimed at the timing. Supplemental appropriations bills oftentimes pass later into the calendar year. What's a little different about this year is, is that we'll have a new General Assembly seated in January and we'll have a new Governor seated in January as well. So what is the urgency, other than trying to get this in front of the current Governor before he leaves office, that -- that -- that's pressing this timeline?

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

Senator Kotowski.

SENATOR KOTOWSKI:

You know, I -- I can't speak to that. All I can speak to, it's the -- the same financial challenges that we've had that -- when we dealt with the budget in May. They -- they -- they happen throughout the year. Whether we have a supplemental now or a supplemental in the future, it just gives us an opportunity to address these financial challenges that - as you're well aware of - that we currently face.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

Senator Righter.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Thank you, Mr. President. Well, Senator Kotowski, you've got me worried now, because you can't -- you're the sponsor of the bill, but you can't speak to the timing of moving the bill - even though you're in control of the timing of the moving of the bill. So what I'm trying to figure out is why are you moving the bill, a supplemental appropriation, which could contain very important issues, why are we in a hurry to do that before the Veto Session ends and before the new Governor can take his seat.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

Senator Kotowski.

SENATOR KOTOWSKI:

Yes. Senator Righter, there's -- there's -- there's no -- this is very straightforward here. It's a supplemental bill and it's a shell bill. It gives us an opportunity to address some of the challenges that we have here on a spending standpoint. And so -- I mean, this is -- it is what it is. If there -- when the content is put on the bill, if at all, if there's any, we'll have a hearing on it, we'll discuss it, and we'll have a, you know, a full-throated debate on the merits of that legislation. This allows us just to have this in place in order to make sure we can do that.

STATE OF ILLINOIS
98th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

Senator Righter.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Thank you, Mr. President. Very briefly to the bill, if I might.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

To the bill.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Thank you. Ladies and Gentlemen, not unlike the elections shell bill that passed out of this Chamber shortly ago, this is something that can wait. The voters have spoken. A new Governor is going to take office in January. Let's have the balanced government and new Governor that the voters asked for in place before we decide to start spending even more of the taxpayers' money. I would urge a No vote.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

Any further discussion? Senator Kotowski, to close.

SENATOR KOTOWSKI:

Appreciate the -- the colloquy. I would simply ask for an Aye vote.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

The question is, shall Senate Bill 2557 pass. All those in favor, vote Aye. All those opposed, vote Nay. The voting's open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted to {sic} wish? Mr. Secretary, please take the record. On that question, there are 36 voting Aye, 13 voting No, none voting Present. This bill, having received the required constitutional majority, is hereby declared passed. Senator Silverstein, for what purpose do you rise? Senator Silverstein, please.

SENATOR SILVERSTEIN:

For purpose of an announcement.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

State your announcement.

SENATOR SILVERSTEIN:

That there'll be a Democratic Caucus for sixty minutes after -- upon recess.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

Senator Althoff? Senator Althoff. Senator Silverstein has asked for a -- a Democratic Caucus. Do you have a request?

SENATOR ALTHOFF:

Thank -- thank you, Mr. President. Yes, the Republicans would also like to caucus.

PRESIDENT CULLERTON:

Senators Silverstein and Althoff move that the Senate recess for purposes of a Senate Democratic and Republican Caucus, lasting one hour. Seeing no objection, the motion is granted. And the Senate now stands in recess to the call of the Chair. After the Senate Democratic and Republican Caucuses, the Senate will reconvene after the committee meetings for the purpose of Floor action. The Senate stands in recess to the call of the Chair.
